HOW TO LOCATE STUDDING

Almost everyone knows that the easy way to locate a steel backed plaster is to pound on the wall with a hammer, listening for the "solid sound" that will mark where the studding lies. But many are disappointed to find that the hammer leaves marks in the plaster. A block of thin wood held between hammer and plaster is the answer to this. It will enable you to locate the studding without marring the plaster in any way.

Most Publicized German Wedding Set As Part Of Folk Festival

The Maennerchor Hall at 906 S. High-st. familiar spot for festive occasions on the South Side, was the gaily decorated scene of a traditionally German wedding rehearsal for the most widely publicized German wedding of our time, which will take place at the German Folk Festival in Schiller Park the evening of Saturday, Oct. 2.

The prospective "bride and groom" are actually newlyweds who were selected by the festival committee after a screening of over 10 couples from the Columbus and Franklin County area. They are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kuhn, 205 N. State-st, Westerville, who made their first public appearance dressed in the costume of the period, 1846, at the wedding rehearsal feast Tuesday evening where they were feted in the traditional German manner which included a serenade of favorite German wedding songs. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn come from German families.

The festival itself, undoubtedly the gayest occasion to stir the South Side for some time, will honor Franklin County soldiers who fought in the Mexican War of 1846-48, most of whom were natives of Germany or of German parentage. A bronze plaque will be erected to their memory in Schiller Park the afternoon of the festival.

There's a town in one of our states that hundreds of American veterans remember . . .

A big train stopped there at four in the morning, and on it were always a few service men who had to "lay-over" until the connecting train came through. And that lay-over didn't sound pleasant on cold winter mornings.

Yet it was.

For every man in uniform who stepped off that train was greeted, and taken to a comfortable home where breakfast was waiting on the stove. There was no charge—ever.

"Why did you do this?" the astounded soldier or sailor would ask.

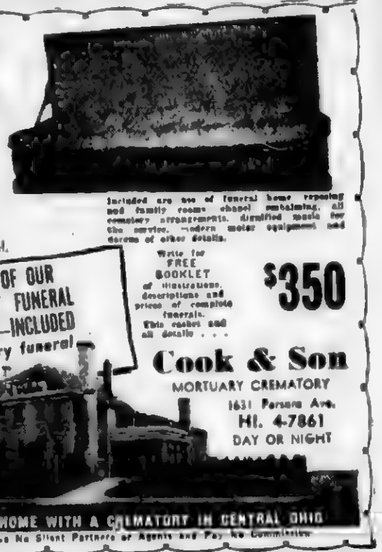
"The church people in this town meet you fellows every night this train comes in . . ."

That's a fair sample of the spirit found in the community churches of today. They are filled with people who gather every Sunday to receive guidance and counsel.

On weekdays, these people practice what is preached.

Perhaps you are looking for such a church. It's not far away. It may be in your block. Certainly, it's in your neighborhood. And in it, you'll find the type of hospitality and friendliness that came from one church in that one town that the service men remember.



That's the town where the people met the train . . .

South Side Attorney Is Elected Golfers' Proxy

Charles W. Winters, South Side attorney, who resides at 795 Forest-st, was elected president of the Columbus Public Golfers Association at a recent meeting of the group.

Other new officers include William Podolski, vice-president; James Murdock, secretary; and James Baber, treasurer.

The association was organized in 1939 and has as its objective the promotion of public golf. It was quite instrumental in the development and opening of the new Arthur Raymond Municipal Golf Course.

Winters attended Aquinas High School, Ohio State University, and was graduated from Franklin University Law School in January 1953. He is a member of the Columbus Bar Association Legal Aide Committee, the War Veterans Republican Club of Ohio, and AmVet Post 22. He attends St. John the Evangelist Church.

CIVIL AIR PATROL

High Points In Lives Of CAP Cadets Include Summer Encampments, Drills

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the conclusion of a two-part article outlining the importance of the Civil Air Patrol to the nation and to the individual. The feature was prepared by Lt. L. E. Wall of the local CAP headquarters exclusively for the Hartley Printing and Publishing Co.

Civil Air Patrol cadets have annual summer encampments, each of two weeks duration, through the months of June, July and August at 21 Air Force bases throughout the U.S. There they are put through a course of 80 hours in such subjects as jet-propulsion, radar, meteorology, airplane engine mechanics, marksmanship, flying safety and crash procedures.

During their two weeks at camp, they are given a taste of actual military life. They are under the constant supervision of senior CAP and Air Force personnel.

To promote international understanding and thus serve the cause of peace, the CAP has included among its cadet activities an ambitious exchange program to give outstanding air-minded youth of each participating country an opportunity to observe the life and institutions of other nations at first hand.

Each year 50 or more cadets are sent abroad for two weeks, with all but minor personal expenses paid, to see the historic spots about which they have read in their school books and newspapers, to live with and get to know the youth of another country, and to hear what those others have to say about us.

A like number of cadets from the exchange countries meanwhile are given similar tours in the U.S. by the CAP. Needless to say — to participate in the International Cadet Exchange is a goal toward which every cadet strives.

This summer Capt. John Williams, a Columbus cadet, spent two weeks in Portugal as an exchange cadet.

Another high point in the cadet's training is the Major General Lucas V. Beau International Drill Competition for air cadets. It is held annually during the months of July and August among the U.S., Canada and such other countries as may later be invited to participate. Trophies are awarded to the winners of the international drill competition and, in the U.S. for the national drill championship.

Civil Air Patrols peacetime duties consist of sea and air rescue missions such as the search the week of Aug. 23 for the F-86 Sabrejet, flown by National Guard Capt. Frank H. Stern, Jr., enroute to Mansfield, O. CAP fliers an organized search but was unable to locate the pilot or plane. It is now believed the plane crashed into Chesapeake Bay as pieces of metal that have been taken from the bay have been identified as having come from the same type ship flown by Capt. Stern.

CAP also helps in such disasters as floods, forest fires, blizzards and explosions. It maintains its own communications system and is invaluable in observing from the air and reporting to ground crews the best and safest method of handling the situation. Early in World War II, CAP flew submarine patrol off the east coast. Later it flew much needed plasma and parts for the air force.

CAP is the airarm of the Civil Defense. On Dec. 6, 1952, a practice missions was flown out of Gowdy Field. Five planes and observers were used to evaluate the traffic situation, observe which streets were blocked and to report the outbreak of fires.

A regional meeting was held recently to coordinate ideas for the coming year and further the aim of CAP. Members from the Great Lakes Region attended.

Columbus' CAP can be the biggest and best in the United States and with the present enthusiasm, that goal is not unattainable, local CAP officials point out.

CAP urges pilots and anyone with previous military or technical training to contact Squadron Headquarters Bldg. T-88, Fort Hayes.

Efforts To Familiarize Public With Sausage Product Now Underway

L. K. Evans

An intensive promotion campaign is being conducted in the Columbus market to better acquaint the homemaker with a sausage made of ham and tenderloins.

South Side Polio Victim Gives Birth In Iron Lung

A 30-year-old polio patient confined to an iron lung in University Hospital, was in critical condition Tuesday after giving birth of a six-pound daughter.

Mrs. Keith Jacobs of 948 Geersay, was taken out of the iron lung only long enough for the normal delivery, her father-in-law, the Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs, pastor of the Wilson Avenue Reformed Church, said. The baby, born a month prematurely, was reported in good condition.

Mrs. Jacobs' illness was diagnosed as polio last Thursday, and she was placed in the iron lung Sunday.

The couple has two other children, Pamela six, and Deborah Kay, three.

MARCHING BAND
By Mary Lou Fowler

Hard work and steady practice all go into the fine performances displayed by South High School's marching band every Friday night during the fall football season. Their director, Randall Near, keeps them stepping at a pretty steady pace every morning from 8 o'clock through the first period. The band's practice usually lasts about two hours.

South's band consists of 70 members and some extras for substitutes in case one of the regulars doesn't show up. The band is really looking forward to the game at Lima Central. The Blue and Gray is very proud of its marching band and its director. Mr. Near, who has put so much time and effort into making South High School's band a success.

Marion Twp. Sidelights

would reveal a startling lack of information possessed by the average citizen, regarding civic and political affairs. As long as there are so many indifferent citizens within our boundaries we can't hope to achieve the best in the way of community administration. We're only going to get what we deserve, and that goes if we annex to the city too.

To digress from this regrettable lack of interest for a moment, your attention is directed to the influential faction in the township which is retaining a great deal of interest in the goings-on. The reference, of course, is to the group that picks up three-fourths of the tab with their taxes, the industrial cluster.

If this group has suffered any undeserving misunderstanding inflicted by the public, and apparently there are indications this is a possibility, the industries must shoulder a large part of the responsibility. By preferring to stay behind the scenes, the public has been free to draw their own conclusions.

These large corporations have contributed immensely in the past in their own devious ways. Because they have preferred to hide their light under a basket, many of their contributions have passed by without gratitude. Soon, it is hoped, they will decide to chuck their timidity, and blossom into full view. They have remained hidden for so long that when you mention them, you feel like you're saying a dirty word.

This faction should be heard from openly, and with a certain amount of regularity. Why should they be so bashful about asserting themselves publicly? Have they got something even their best friends won't tell them about? There is a need for their open, civic cooperation and a need for their professional advice and leadership.

The emphasis is on "open", and by leadership I'm not suggesting that they direct the whole show by themselves, but they certainly pay the lion's share of the household expenses and shouldn't feel badly about sitting down to dinner with the rest of the roomers. They won't get stabbed with a fork.

They're citizens just like the residents. Their businesses reside here in the township and they are paying plenty of rent. But it isn't fair to criticize the man down the street for his apparent lack of interest and neglect to prod the guys with the know-how and the do-with who have wrapped their interest in a box and are saving it until Christmas.

If they have a few policies they have agreed upon between themselves, they know they're welcome to share them around the Citizens Association conference table. Having their opinions bantered around third and fourth hand does them no good at all, and even gets monotonous eventually. With so much at stake in Marion Township, I would hate to think there wasn't free and open active participation in civic affairs by ALL of the interested units of community living.

Pack 105, the Smith Road School Cub Scouts, has postponed its meeting for this Thursday and it will be held Oct. 7 . . . Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Toth of Linwood-av have just returned from a 1500 mile journey which took them through the Ozark Mountains in Missouri.

When Al Meyers saw his son come home with his new Marion-Franklin High School band uniform, he was prompted to call me and ask that I inform the readers that the uniforms were provided by the Booster Club, its activities and donations. The uniforms are so sharp that he was concerned that possibly some individuals would think that they came out of school board funds and wonder why a new bond issue was needed if they have enough money to purchase such fancy duds for the members of the band. By law, school funds cannot be used for the equipment of this kind. The various carnivals, projects and other activities sponsored by the Booster Club, together with the membership dues and outside donations provided enough funds to partially pay for the uniforms. They still owe a balance and are continually trying to raise funds by saving sales tax stamps and outside projects. A good group, these Booster Club members. They need your cooperation.

Steelton Merchants Assn. Meeting Considers Christmas Decorations

South Side Widow Discovers $139 Jackpot Insignia In Leader Contest

About the most enthusiastic Leader booster and the happiest individual on the South Side is Mrs. Mary Ward 690 Ann-st, winner of the $139 jackpot award in the Leader's "Confederate" Money contest in cooperation with community advertisers.

Here's the way Mrs Ward who lives with her daughter at the Ann-st address describes the happy moment of discovery of the prized insignia:

"I picked the paper off the porch, sat down on the settee and started to read it There the insignia — the jackpot one — was, staring up at me from the advertisement of the Weber Dry Cleaning firm I always look through the paper, so does the whole family.

"This time it really paid off!"

The Leader staff couldn't be happier about the jackpot winner either Mrs Ward is a 69-year-old widow and she says "This is the first time I've won anything absolutely for free in my life"

Her daughter and son-in-law recently purchased a dining room suite through a Leader ad Her plans for the $139"

"Let me see I'd like to get my granddaughter some shoes And I guess the rest will go for clothes and groceries," she concluded

Mrs Ward lived at 310 Jackson-st for 58 years

In today's issue of the Leader the jackpot insignia is worth $9 — a brand new pot' In addition, as usual there will be five $1 insignia spotted around in various ads. They are not hidden You'll see them quite plainly if you read the ads. And you'll profit by reading the ads even if you don't find one of these valuable insignia. You can't lose, either way'

Read the simple rules in the accompanying dark-face box. You'll see samples of the greatly sought for insignia there, too.

Here's What To Look For

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper, take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av (before Friday at 5 p. m.). It will be redeemed for $9 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

UA Guest Speaker Explains The Role Agencies Perform

The Steelton Merchants Association met Tuesday evening for its regular monthly meeting. Guest speaker Harry Merz discussed the work the United Appeals was doing throughout the country and in more detail, the work being accomplished locally

Jack Alton of the Metropolitan Commission presented several issues to be voted on including the bond issues, completion of new Memorial building, slum clearance and the expressway Reports were heard from different committees with Christmas decorations receiving the most attention

The committee decided to explore the possibility of decorating Parsons-av with lights Jack Shore presented pictures, descriptions and prices for the project. The immediate problem is to clear the idea with city officials and finally, to raise money to pay for the project

Also discussed was the problem of encouraging more members to attend the association meetings. It was decided to run an announcement in the South Side Leader the week before each meeting, listing the time and the program.

Refreshments were served by George Horvath and Tony Rappold.

O'SEAS WIVES CLUB MEETING

The Overseas Wives' Club urgently requests all foreign-born wives of servicemen or veterans to attend "Guest Night" at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct 8, in the YWCA. "Blackie the Cravon," will be the program feature For additional information concerning the club, foreign-born wives are asked to telephone Mrs. Ruth Dorey at CA. 4-7938

Several Industrialists Sanction Annexation

Officials who represent large industries in Marion Township announced Saturday that they favor the annexation to Columbus of the entire township south of the city.

Eleven manufacturers who jointly made the announcement are Hercules Paper Box Co., Bonney-Floyd Co., Federal Glass Co., American Blower Corp Buckeye Steel Castings Co Keever Starch Co., The Teeters Packing Co., Seagrave Corp Peter Fornof & Son, Lemon Trucking Co., and American Aggregates Corp.

The announcement was made as another freeholder's petition was filed with county officials asking for the annexation to Columbus of another large industrial tract in the township.

The petition signed by Mr and Mrs William R Fornof, 103 Fornof-rd, asked for the annexation of an area bounded on the west by the east side of High-st on the north by the Columbus corporation line, and on the east by the east side of Parsons av, and on the south by Deering av.

This area includes such industries as Buckeye Steel Castings Co., Seagrave Corp., Keever Starch Co Peter Fornof & Son Teeters Packing Co High Frank Garage, Hill Distributing Co, Ohio Wool Growers Co-op, Immel Co, and others.

Eight other manufacturing firms were included in a 168-acre tract proposed for annexation last weekend by a freeholder petition signed by Valentine and Elsa Schneider of 1901 S Champion av. This area is east of the Columbus corporation line just east of Parsons-av south of Woodrow av, west of Champion-av, and north of the New York Central Railroad tracks north of Refugee rd

Firms affected in the 168-acre petition were Hercules Paper Box, Buckeye Stamping Co, Bonney-Floyd Co, Brightman Manufacturing Co, Lattimer Stevens Co, Union Carbine and Carbon Corp, Brown Steel Co American Blower Corp, Federal Glass Co and National Cylinder Gas Co and others

Several leaders in the township have announced that they feel an nexation will prove more beneficial to residents of the community than incorporation as a separate unit These same industrialists appear agreed that it is impossible to remain as a township any longer. Township voters will decide the annexation issue at the November elections.

Several industrial firms also announced that they plan to initiate the formation of a citizens committee that will serve on a continuing basis, after annexation is completed to see to it that Columbus city officials take care of public service needs in the area

Liaison will be established and maintained with city council, the mayor, school authorities, and public safety officials to work out the best facilities possible for the Marion Township area afterwards if annexation should be effected.

The proposed citizens committee will be composed equally of public spirited area residents and industry representatives.

STILL ANOTHER SUCCESS!

Real Estate Salesman John Daugherty of 242 Cypress-av, is our classified department booster this week Sold on the "miraculous drawing power" of the little want-ad worker, Daugherty told us how he had received more than 50 telephone inquiries after placing a small want ad with this new paper last week. Calls came in from all over the city, some 50 of them from the South Side, concerning lots in the southwestern suburban area

It was Daugherty's first experience with the power-packed punch of the want-ads in this newspaper which are avidly read by at least one member of the 32000 households receiving the paper.

Why not convince yourself as Mr Daugherty did? Merely call HI 4-9262 or JO 7331 for quick courteous assistance in the best wording of your want-ad?

GENTLE SEX

Professor in Northwestern University says coeds pretend to be dumb to attract the boys. Some of them don't have to pretend much. —Buffalo Times.

Hello:

October seems to be full of "special days" — for instance, did you know that the second Sunday this month is official "Grandparents Day" in Ohio? Honoring these grand people with a day of their own seems an excellent way to show them how we love and appreciate them. A gift of lovely flowers will add so much to their enjoyment of the day.

Our speedy recovery list is long, but sincere best wishes to each and every one — Elizabeth Kendl, Mrs. Chester Ramey, Mary Long, Mrs. Joe Castorino, Mrs. Arthur Weaver, and Mrs. Charlotte Alvis. Also, Mrs. Frances Fitez, Maxine Rathburn, Mrs. Anna Brown, Mrs. William Gaulke, Dorothy Belford, Mrs. Augusta Cairo, Mrs. Patricia Taylor, and Don Jewell.

Congratulations also to Don and Mrs. Jewell, as they have just added a baby daughter to their family of two sons. The George Gilberts are lullabying a new little one. Mrs. Jack Alton spent her birthday in the hospital, two days after the birth of her baby girl. Happy birthday to Belle Smith who celebrated her birthday on Tuesday.

MEET YOUR UA CAPTAINS

Mrs. Matteson Has Long Been Active Worker In Civic Affairs

Throughout the 18 years she has lived in Marion Township, Mrs. J. M. Matteson has kept in close touch with civic and school affairs, and by acting as a captain in this year's United Appeals campaign, she is remaining consistent in her habits of faithful community service. With previous experience as a worker in other fund raising campaigns, her knowledge of the benefits rendered by the various member agencies of the United Appeals will be used to inspire her co-workers in the campaign scheduled to begin the first of October. She and her team of volunteer workers will conduct a door-to-door solicitation during the drive and Mrs. Matteson is currently drafting plans to assure complete coverage in the area under her supervision.

Mrs. J. M. Matteson

After even a hurried survey of the hundreds of persons in Marion Township who received treatment or service last year from one or more of the 58 health and welfare agencies that are supported by the funds raised during the annual UA campaign, an observer could hardly help but agree with Mrs. Matteson that by giving generously to the volunteer who rings the door bell, the public is directly lending a helping hand to humanity.

Helping one another, being our brother's keeper, or just having a big heart, has set our country apart and in this world of nations in only a few hundred years we have picked ourselves up by our boot straps and with the help of God have risen to the position of being looked upon for the hope of a free world of tomorrow. As a Christian people, we have always sympathized with those who, through no fault of their own, have lacked the essentials of existence. Whether the necessities were understanding, love or requisite materials for health and comfort, we have always rallied to the cause. The United Appeals way is the American way.

Mrs. Matteson and hundreds of other volunteers like her are expecting the public to rally in behalf of the 52 Community Chest agencies, the Columbus Cancer Clinic, Cerebral Palsy, Red Cross, Mental Health, and the United Defense Fund (USO). The separate campaigns of all of these organizations have been combined to save campaign costs, and the time and energy of the volunteers. The agency personnel is freed from campaign responsibilities to a greater extent and can concentrate on the job for which they were trained.

Mrs. Matteson's husband, Jack, is office manager for the Lemmon Trucking Company. At the time their daughter, Nancie, who is now a junior in the college of education at OSU, was a student in Smith Road School, both Mr. and Mrs. Matteson held offices in the PTA. The Mattesons reside at 1710 S. Champion-av.

The Gadabout

By Priscilla LaRue Dicks
HI. 4-1051

Some of our very favorite people have natal days when the calendar is in the Libran aspect, so the best of wishes to Pat Conn, on the 11th, to Lana Itskin on Columbus Day, and to Grace McCaffrey on the 13th.

Gertrude Ramey has been a very sick lady, so won't you please send cards to her at White Cross Hospital, Room 250? Or better yet, send them to her home at 1721 S. Third-st. Gertrude's husband, Chester, also has a birthday this month on Oct. 12.

Some late September birthdays missed other editions. Sharon Crary had a Sept. 20 natal day. (The Crary family should be settled in their Deshler-av home by now, having moved last week. The move was made from Morrill-av.) Other late September birthdays include Darrel Itskin, Frank LaRue and Mabel Trigg, all on Sept. 27.

Trudeau Guild 10 holds the October meeting in the home of Evelyn MacLeod, instead of the Cantor home as erroneously reported here last week. I "writ" it as I heard it, and I heard wrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace and the Sept. 23 addition to their family should be settled in their home at 240 Southwood-av. Young Stephen Charles made his debut in the army hospital at Ft. Belvoir, Va. His mommy was Joyce Burton before her marriage.

Mae Dean finds October a busy month, with so many birthdays to remember. Her sister, Lucille Vance, will be celebrating on the 10th of the month, and her mother, also named Lucille, celebrates on the 26th. An aunt, Ann Bode, started the ball rolling on Oct. 8. The inimitable and irrepressible Bob Dean winds things up by having an Oct. 29 birth date. The Vances live at 611 Stewart-av and Mrs. Bode makes her home at 664 S. Grant-av. Bob's address is 33 E. Jenkins.

Early October birthdays are celebrated by Thelma Swisher and Lucille Hussey. Thelma "done had hers" on the third of the month while Lucille has a few days to wait, as hers is an event of Oct. 10.

A little girl, Elaine Ann, is the youngest member of the Alton family of 183 Welch-av. Little Miss Alton will have a Sept. 28 birth date in years to come.

A husband and wife share Oct. 4 as a birth date. The friendly couple who added a year to their age this past Monday are Mr. and Mrs. Reames of Mohawk-st. If memory serves correctly a grandson of theirs, "Butch" Zielke, of S. Sixth-st, will be doing likewise in about a week.

Mrs. Edwin Liebrand, 1391 City Park-av, is recovering from a hand operation she underwent recently.

Once again we're looking forward to seeing fellow South Siders when the Buckeye Steel Castings Co. honors its employes at the Seneca Hotel on Oct. 13. That's one job we really enjoying playing. Nice peoples, that's why!

Karen Denise Wones is visiting her grandparents these days, deserting her California homeplace for the "nonce." Of course Karen is just a wee bit young for such things but she has help from her mommy as she is only 14 months old. The two Wones' are dividing their time between the home of Mr. and Mrs. Drugon of Groveport-pk and Mrs. Wones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer. They made the trip by plane and will return the same way very shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Drugon are planning a California trip in mid-winter.

Birthdays just recently past are those of Billy Johnson, Sept. 30, and Lynn Felice, Oct. 3. (Lynn is my A-1 supplier of knock-knocks. Her last week's contribution to my education was "Old Lady" and the "old-lady-who" query brought this: "I didn't know you could yodel!")

Buss and Virginia Leonard have an anniversary coming up next week, so we want to sincerely wish them many, many more. It's wonderful to see folks stick to the same partner year after year because far too many people take their marriage vows too lightly. Good luck, Leonards!

Jean Wirtz and her two sons spent the past week-end in Ohio's second largest city if they carried out their original plans. They planned to see cinerama while in the river city.

Former South High School classmates of Barbara and John DeLong will be quite interested in hearing the latest news in the lives of this young couple. A young daughter, Melinda, has been added to the family circle and was promptly dubbed "Mindy" by her grandpa, Fred Reibel. The 10-week-old girl and her mommy are being escorted to New York City by Fred and Eloise, and from there Barbara and Mindy will sail the Atlantic Ocean to England. All friends are cordially invited to write to Barbara and John, so we'll pass along their address:
Carswood, Tuddenham, St. Martin, near Ipswich, Suffolk, England.

We'll bet one thing: 1389 S. Third-st is gonna seem mighty quiet to Eloise and Fred, with Barbara and Mindy no longer a part of the household.

The ladies of Gates-Fourth Methodist Church are working diligently on their Oct. 12 program and we hope it's very successful.

Mid-October birthdays should include those of Sue Ann Stalter, Danny Driscoll and "Duke" Eichel. The dates respectively are 14th, 16th and 17th.

The Barrett executive board had a fine outing last week at the Buckeye Lake cottage of Mrs. Ruoff. One of the feathered friends had an especially good time too, for he used Glenna Edwards for a "bombing" experiment, much to Glenna's dismay!

Don't forget us, please, when there's news abrewin! We'll be ever so grateful. The number is HI. 4-1051, and till next week, 'tis

South Side 'Y' Youth Attends Int'l Meeting

Richard Guyer, past president of the South Side YMCA's Gra-Y Club at Southwood School, represented the Gra-Y clubs of Columbus at a recent meeting of the International Committee of the YMCA's of the United States and Canada. Richard reported to the 300 members and guests from the foreign countries that the Gra-Y clubs of Columbus raised over $2500 toward the support of YMCA World Services, a program which helps YMCAs in other lands. These funds were obtained by a door to door candy sale in which the fifth and sixth grade members of the Gra-Y clubs participated.

Boys in the YMCAs Gra-Y clubs learn to share with others through programs such as their annual World Service candy sale and service projects to their own schools and communities.

City-Wide Orchestra Rehearses At Schiller

The City-wide Orchestra, which meets on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. at Schiller Recreation Center, draws its membership from all over the city as well as from smaller towns around Columbus. Members come from Worthington, Grove City, London, East Columbus, Lockbourne Air Base and every section of Columbus to join in the fun of playing orchestral music ranging from the classics to musical comedy selections.

D. T. Crawshaw, who is in charge of the group, states that there are openings for additional members in the string and woodwind sections. He would like to see more South Siders participate in this activity. Further information may be had by contacting Schiller Recreation Center and asking for Mr. Crawshaw.

LEARN PUPPET MAKING

Making puppets and presenting plays has become such a popular activity at Schiller Recreation Center that special classes have been formed for interested boys and girls. The group meets Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:30 p.m. under the direction of D. T. Crawshaw.

TUMBLING CLASSES BEGIN

Tumblers who are eager to get back to the mats are asked to sign up at Schiller Recreation Center soon. Classes began Monday, Oct. 4. If you have never tumbled before in a regular class, but you think you'd like to try your skill, then enter the class ready for work and fun. Clothing that allows you freedom of movement is most suitable. Shoes should be either gym shoes or soft shoes of the regular tumbling type.

Light their life with Faith
Bring them to worship this week

When they're little is the best time to give the children the biggest gift of all . . .
Faith. Bulwark of the soul in troubled times. Source of inner peace every day. With it, your children will be ready to meet the obstacles . . . to relish the happy times fully.
And there's no better way to help them find Faith, than by making attendance at church or synagogue a family affair. Go together this week . . . and every week!

Wilbur, Jack and Bud Martin are announcing the addition of the International truck agency to their business at 527 Parsons-av. They also have added a new service department in which they can handle any and all mechanical repairs, from a motor tune up to a major overhaul job on any truck or passenger car. Jesse's Shoe Repair Shop To Give Away A Silverware Set Shown above are Sue and Jess Chadwick of Jesse's Shoe Repair Shop at 1902 Parsons-av. The items of silverware that they are holding are to be given away to some lucky person that either has shoe repair work or dry cleaning done by this competent organization.

Featuring the best in service and the most modern of machines this pair strives to meet the public's needs in both fields. Their dry cleaning is done by Ohio Curtis cleaners and is guaranteed.

Sue and Jess have two children, Frank and James. Frank has recently returned from Korea and James is currently going to school and operates a shoe shine shop in the afternoons near his parents' store.

Jess has been in the shoe repair work ever since he was a kid. He started into business on his own at Centerburg, O., and then moved to S. High-st. Then two years ago he moved to his present location. Some of the items of interest in the way of price are: he will do soles and heels for as low as $2.60 and ladies' heels for 40 cents and men's heels for 70 cents up.

This beautiful set of Rogers silverware service for eight will be given away Dec. 30. Two names will be drawn by the public. The first name will be held for 30 days and if not called for, the second name will be the winner. Tickets will be given on shoe repair and dry cleaning. One ticket with each 40 cents of work.

This silverware is a get acquainted offer and it is hoped by these two wonderful people that everyone stops in and receives a chance on this wonderful gift. For good shoe repair and the best in dry cleaning the place to go is Jesse's Shoe Repair.

HAMILTON HIGH NOTES

Member Of Hi-Y Movement In India Addresses Local Student

George Williams, a famous member of the High-Y in India, spoke to the students of Hamilton about religion and peace of the world. He told how India won her independence without bloodshed.

Communism in India is a world topic of discussion. Mr. Williams believes that the people of India will not go communistic because of their religion. Religion is very strong, and the people will not have anything else.

People of India have great respect for the people of America. They sent CARE packages and food without their asking for help.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club of Hamilton Township High School had a meeting on Sept. 23 and elected officers. The officers are John Warner, president; Paul McClish, vice-president; Linda Anderson, secretary; Shirley Archer, treasurer; Janice Warner, student council; Bill Brigner and Shirley Thompson, sergeant-at-arms. The Spanish Club plans to make a constitution for the club to abide by. A few parties throughout the year are also planned. The Spanish Club adviser is Mr. Antolino.

GIRLS' ATHELETIC ASSN.

The GAA of Hamilton Township elected officers last year for the year of 1954-55. They are as follows: Verla Haynes, president; Mary Young, vice-president; Ann O'Harra, secretary; Karleen Wikoff, treasurer. The student council member is Kathryn Taylor.

Junior and senior girls held their initiation service Wednesday evening at Y-Park for the sophomores. Everyone had a good time. They started playing their noon volleyball games on Wednesday, Sept. 23. They have six teams and two teams play each day for about 20 minutes.

On Sept. 22, when Hamilton played New Albany in football at Hamilton, the GAA had charge of the refreshment stand. Also at the Westerville game they sold football programs. Mrs. Belcher is the adviser.

ROOF INJURED

A serious accident occurred Friday night, Sept. 24, at the Hamilton-Westerville game, when Dayle Roof, a Hamilton halfback, accidentally broke his leg. He was carrying the ball around left end when he was hit with a vicious tackle by one of Westerville's huge tacklers. He lay on the football field for about half an hour before the Marion Township emergency squad came. Before leaving he asked Mr. Powless to go with him to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Dayle was released from the hospital on the following Tuesday, Sept. 28. Some time during the week Mr. Powless and the other coaches will take the movies of all the games and show them to Dayle.

TRI-HI-Y PLANS PARTY

Officers for the Tri-Hi-Y Club at Hamilton Township High School this year include Marlene Massie, president; Verla Haynes, vice-president; Alene Wilburn, secretary; Kathryn Taylor, treasurer; Mary Griffith, student council.

Seniors of the Tri-Hi-Y gave the juniors a party Wednesday, Oct. 6, at Y-Park. Later in the year the juniors will treat the seniors to a party.

HAMILTON HI-Y

The first meeting of the Hamilton Township Hi-Y Club was held at the high school on Sept. 28. New members paid their dues and handed in their cards for membership. Mr. O'Dell gave a talk on the responsibilities of the club and the requirements which the members must live up to. There was very little business discussed for nothing was yet definite. The Hi-Y is a Christian organization which strives for higher school standards and Christian living.

HEALTH SERVICE MEETING

The Franklin County Teachers Association held a health service meeting at Gahanna on Wednesday, Sept. 22. The purpose of this meeting was to try to improve the health-education given students in Franklin County.

Hamilton offers many of the suggested health services, such as a health class, hearing tests, T.B. tests, vision tests, hot lunches that are approved by the health service, and health cards that indicate whether or not to send a pupil home or to a doctor in case of an emergency.

South High School Notes

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER
By Betty Goal

W. E. Parkinson, who has worked with Junior Achievement for a number of years, and David A. Davis, general manager of Moores and Ross, were guest speakers for an assembly conducted at South High School recently.

The purpose of the assembly was to explain Junior Achievement to the students and get them interested in taking a part in this organization.

The belief that experience, leadership, intelligence, and co-operation are all gained from Junior Achievement was expressed by Mr. Parkinson, Mr. Davis and Joe Herron, a Junior Achiever at South.

All three speakers urged the students to participate in Junior Achievement in order that they may learn some of the fundamentals of business that are needed to plan a bright future.

FOREIGN STUDENTS AT SOUTH
By Juleann Waller and Phyllis Ramsey

::The American people should be thankful for the many opportunities offered them here in this country," was the feeling expressed by Udo Marosche, a new student at South High School. Udo was born in Transylvania, a small European country near Munich, Germany. The aggressive Russians were the domineering factor that sent him and his family to this country approximately five years ago. Udo, now 16 years of age, attended Barrett Junior High school before coming to South. He says the schools in Germany were more strict and the work much harder.

Another new arrival is Barbara Scharte, a 10B student. Barbara landed in New York City from Berlin, Germany on June 3 of this year. She was born in a small country which is now part of Poland. It is interesting to note that in Berlin they have a six-day schedule.

Both students are planning to attend Ohio State University after graduation from South.

GAA News
By Carole Kates

Soccer teams were organized at a recent meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association of South High. The captains and co-captains of the sophomore teams are Susan Boquist, captain; Connie Miller, co-captain; Donna Wood, captain; Lee Chancy, co-captain, Carol Danison, captain; Nancy Copeland, co-captain; Carol Hunter, captain; Alma Schwarz, co-captain, head the junior teams.

Those on the senior team are Carole Kates, captain; Roberta Hoodiel, co-captain; Rose Foley, Altwain Larcom, Helen Maser, Donna Augustine, Patti Allen, Elinor Bordy, Joy Ryan, Barbara Shipley, Marty DeCaminada, Sylvia Simmerman, Phillis Myers, Carol Martin, Joan Boden, and Barbara Friedberg.

TV REPRESENTATIVE

South High School will be represented on the first fall television show of Teens and Twenties. This television show is dedicated to all high schools of Columbus and surrounding areas. Glenna Hunter, head of Teens and Twenties, is a graduate of South High School, and she is now the Ohio State Journal youth page editor.

On this first show of the season South will have representatives for the home economics classes and sewing classes. The date of this television show, featuring South is Saturday, Oct. 2, at 4:15 p. m. on Channel 10.

TAKE PART IN DRIVE
By Judy Shirey and Dorothy O'Neil

More than 75 South High girls participated in the Annual Forget-Me Not Drive Saturday, Sept. 25.

All girls participating in the drive will compete for several cash prizes. The girl who turned in the largest amount of money will be crowned Forget-Me-Not Queen at the Forget-Me-Not Ball which is to be held October 9 at the Virginia Hotel.

A court of honor for the queen will be composed of the girls who turn in the greatest amount of money from each of the schools represented. This ceremony is to be followed by a dance and entertainment to which all the girls participating in the drive, and their escorts, will be privileged to attend.

All the girls reported to the district headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce Building, 30 East Broad Street at 7:30 a. m. All of the districts were under strict supervision of auxiliary ladies.

HOLD DANCE
By Janice Eisenaugle and Cathy Wynd

The dance was sponsored by the South High School marching band Friday evening, Sept. 24, in the South gymnasium, after the South - Grandview game. The South dance band, under the baton of Richard Baars, student director, played for the event.

The band also planned a tag sale the same day. These diamond shaped tags were sold for a dime.

Both these projects are to raise funds in order that the band will be able to go to the South-Lima Central football game Nov. 1.

H'COMING QUEEN CANDIDATES
By Phyllis Myers

Glenna Dean, Nancy Johnson, Janis Reese, Carol Weber and Beverly Weakley were selected by the South High School 12B's as their candidates for homecoming queen during a special assembly on Wednesday, Sept. 29. Caryl Coverdale and Sue Hafey were chosen by the 12A's as their candidates.

The entire school will vote for the homecoming queen and she will be crowned during half time of the South-West football game of Oct. 15. The other candidates will make up the queen's court.

South Side YMCA Organizes Four Marion-Franklin Clubs

The South Side YMCA began its club program in Marion-Franklin High School with a recent luncheon meeting in the school cafeteria of the principal and club faculty advisers.

This year there will be four YMCA clubs meeting at the school: the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y, Miss Elizabeth Fiershe, adviser for Jr. High girls; Sr. Tri-Hi-Y, Mrs. Arlene Dempster, adviser, for Sr. High girls; Jr. Hi-Y, George Haines, adviser for Jr. High boys; and Sr. Hi-Y, Paul Meiss, adviser for Sr. High boys.

The purpose of the Senior Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs is "To create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character." The Jr. Hi-Y and Jr. Tri-Hi-Y's purpose is "To strengthen our bodies, develop our minds, worship God and work together for a finer community and a better world." Activities of these clubs will include: series of helpful service projects for the school, social events, outings at Y-Park, and giving thoughtful consideration to basic problems facing junior and senior high school youth.

Applications for membership are being accepted by the club advisers. This club program is sponsored by the South Side Branch YMCA, a participating agency in the United Appeals Community Chest Organization, in cooperation with Marion-Franklin High School.

South Side Man Is Burned In Gas Fire

A 60-year-old man was burned about the face and arms when a fire routed him and his wife, who is confined to wheel chair, and son from their home at 475 Hosack-st Sunday afternoon.

John Hunley was treated for minor burns at Mercy Hospital. Most of the family's belongings were destroyed in the blaze caused when gas fumes from a stove ignited. Battalion Chief Charles M. Pugh said.

Loss was estimated at $400 to the three-room house and $250 to contents, Pugh said. Neighbors helped to salvage some of the furniture by helping to carry it from the burning house, Pugh added.

William P. Hoermle was appointed to the board of trustees of Mercy Hospital at the board's last regular meeting, it was announced by Judge Dana Reynolds, chairman of the hospital's board of trustees. Hoermle, prominent in South Side civic and business affairs, makes a total of five South Siders who are on the hospital's governing board or in an administrative capacity. Charles B. Beard, a native of this section, is superintendent of Mercy. Other trustees are Rev. Paul C. Keefer, pastor of St. John's Evangelical, Attorney Walter Snider and Dan Barnes, industrial relations of Swift & Co.

Membership Cards Now Required At Schiller

Something new has been added at Schiller Recreation Center. Membership cards are now required to take out equipment. The cards have serial numbers on them plus the name of the member and the name of the recreation center.

Each member will only receive one card, so it is important that he take care not to lose it or deface it. For the convenience of members, plastic card covers are available. These covers will protect the card from wear. You may obtain one at the equipment desk.

When you check out equipment, it is important for you to return that equipment in good order and ask for your card. Many members forget to do this and as a result we have cards left in the file and you without your card. If you think you have lost your card, ask at the desk; you may have left it at the center.

Six South Side Merchants Join In Big Promotional Event To Show Bargains

A gigantic promotional effort designed to prove to South Siders that the best values in merchandise can be found right at "home" is being initiated by six "neighbor" merchants of S. Parsons-av, who will feature their wares each week in The South Side Leader.

In addition to the special values to be offered merchandise valued at $1,000 will be given away Dec. 17 through the 23rd. The drawing will take place at each of the participating stores.

Cooperating stores are Foreign Foodtown Grocery, Goodrich Store, Hoermle's, Leeds Credit Jewelers, R&S Dime Store and Schottensteins.

The grand prize is a 21-inch Motorola TV which is to be given away the last night. Each one of the other nights a similar prize will be given away plus each night of the six a total of five baskets of groceries and five turkeys. The other five prizes are a roaster oven and cabinet, Sunbeam Mix-Master, Polaroid camera, a deluxe bicycle, and Rotiserre.

A total of 11 prizes each night will be given away and all you have to do to be eligible is shop at the cooperating stores.

A free ticket will be given with each purchase. This ticket will actually give you 66 chances to win a prize. You may enter as many times as you like and in as many stores as you care to shop in.

Each week these six merchants will advertise items of interest to the whole family in a special section. Watch for this section and spend your money wisely at these stores. LOOK ELSEWHERE IN THIS ISSUE FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS HUGE PARSONS MERCHANTS' CHRISTMAS JUBILEE.

Annexation-Incorporation Battle Reaches A Heated Pitch With Several New Developments

Pre-Election Ballot, Jaycee Annexation Support Announced

Developments reported Wednesday in the annexation-incorporation struggle for the whole of Marion Township included announcement that township trustees were asking incorporation of the entire township, calling for a vote on the issue Oct. 26, and endorsement 100 per cent by the Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce of the annexation of all six of the townships on the Nov. 2 general election ballot.

Hours before the petition for incorporation, on which the trustees will act, was presented to trustees Tuesday night, Attorney Harrison Smith, Jr., filed at the county courthouse a petition asking annexation of 51 acres in the heart of the richest portion of the township. He was acting in behalf of Floyd Lemmon, owner of the Lemmon Trucking Co. The affected area is west of Lockbourne between Marion-rd and the New York Central Railroad.

Prompt action with this latest petition means that, for legal purposes, the annexation will be given precedence over the incorporation petition proceedings. The 51-acre annexation petition carried 20 more signatures than required by law.

The more than 400 members of the Jaycees have voted to support in every way possible the move to annex Marion Township and the other five townships to Columbus, following the recommendation of a special subcommittee which compiled an extensive report concerning the pros and cons of annexation. In this report, the tax advantages to residents of Marion Township, if they should become Columbus residents, were set forth.

A Jaycee official said yesterday, "When it is realized that in Franklin County there are 85 separate governments, with overlapping jurisdiction and responsibilities, it is easy to understand why consolidation in the central community would be advantageous to everyone in metropolitan Columbus.

"All of these units elect or appoint their own officers, levy taxes and borrow money. Each spends money, constructs and maintains buildings or other improvements, has employees, and executes a number of governmental functions. The result of this is a division of responsibility, unnecessary expense, and often ill feeling between the different areas. Each of these units is geared to a local pattern of development.

"Often none is very much concerned with its neighbors, nor the over-all development of the entire area.

"Further," he stated, "the advisability of annexation is also supported by the problems created due to population density. A look at the map of Franklin County showing this density indicates that there is much settlement of unincorporated areas. This means that a large segment of what is called Greater Columbus is without adequate and proper urban services, although the people live in conditions similar to those of a densely, built-up city."

The rather extensive report of the daycees, contains in part the following statements: "In all fairness to existing township government, it should be noted that, by reason of its structure and legal power, it is incapable of coping with many of the problems of increased settlement. It cannot supply services essential to orderly living in an urbanized area, because it is designed (by law) for a rural community, wherein most the services are supplied by each landowner for himself.

"A township supplies only the most superficial police and fire protection under its tax levy, the report continues. No township in Franklin County now supplies anything in the nature of public relief, water, sewers, curbs, or sidewalks, states one paragraph.

Street lights garbage or trash collection, health services, or public transportation — all these are missing, too, under the township system, the Jaycees note.

"Although townships have zoning, enforcement must be by the county, which is a wholly independent governmental unit beyond direct control and without direct responsibility, it is pointed out.

"It is well known," the report says,

SCHOOL ISSUES TO BE AIRED BY CITIZENS ASSOCIATION

The Marion Township Citizens Association will turn its attention today at the regular October meeting to the two school questions which will face voters in the Nov. 2 election.

The meeting will be held at the Marion-Franklin High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 14. A slide-illustrated discussion entitled "What Do You Want For Your Children?" will present the four alternatives that the citizens of Marion or any other district face in providing education for children of the district, along with needs for the bond issue and the operating levy which are to be voted on.

The local superintendt of schools, principals of the five schools, and members of the board of education will be present to try to answer questions.

Following the program, annexation and incorporation issues will be discussed.

Legion Post Backs Up TB Levy Unanimously

Southway Post, No. 144, the American Legion, in a meeting Oct. 6, adopted a resolution giving 100 per cent support to the renewal of the TB tax levy which provides an operating fund to support the Franklin County Tuberculosis Hospital (Benjamin Franklin Hospital) at a rate not to exceed sixty-five (.65) one-hundredths of a mill for each dollar of appraised value.

This amounts to six and one half cents for each one hundred dollars of appraised valuation for five years. Further, Southway Post No. 144, pledges the support of its individual members through an affirmative vote for this tax levy and also urges the citizens of Franklin County to vote for the levy in the interests of the public good at the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Powell-Ott Studio Will Hold Registration Two Days At 1071 S. High St.

The Powell-Ott dance studio of 1071 S. High-st announced that registration will be held Saturday, Oct. 16, at 2:30 p.m. The studio begins its 15th year as a South Side business and was among the first to move from downtown Columbus.

It is under the direction of Marie H. Ott. Extensive study in this country and Europe plus many long years of experience has made possible the success of many former students. Mel Carson, twice state champion in baton twirling, is in charge of the baton classes.

A limited number of new students can now be accepted. A busy month of dance programs are ahead. On Tuesday, Oct. 12, the Powelletes from the studio appeared at the Eagles home, N. High-st, and will perform at Fornof School on Friday, Oct. 15.

The senior and junior lines will entertain at the Livingston School, Oct. 21 and at the Moose Lodge, Oct. 26. All the programs are under the direction of Marie H. Ott.

Street At Brooke Medical Center To Bear Name Of South Side Man

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas—Fred W. Zimpfer of the Columbus South Side who was posthumously awarded the Silver Star for gallantry on Corregidor in 1942, is one of nine medical soldiers to be honored this Saturday, Oct. 16, at Brooke Army Medical Center when streets in the Medical Training are are named after them.

Dedicated by Brigadier General L. Holmes Ginn, Jr., Medical Training Center commander, will be Zimpfer Road and eight other streets which run through Brooke, the nation's largest military medical installation. Zimpfer, who was killed by the enemy after his Philippine service, thus will join the ranks of other United States heroes whose deeds are permanently commemorated at this historic post, itself named after a famous fighter for freedom.

Expected to attend the ceremony are Zimpfer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zimpfer of 810 Siebert-st, Columbus, and his sister. Their accommodations in San Antonio will be arranged by the San Antonio Hotel Association without cost.

Eighteen hundred troops from Medical Training Center, the basic training unit at Brooke and the army's only training center for combat aidmen, will march in a ceremonial review before General Ginn unveils a plaque telling of the sacrifices made by the aidmen. Then a 30-man honor guard will participate in dedication of Zimpfer Road, which also will be marked with a plaque.

In the army general order awarding Zimpfer the Silver Star, he was cited for "outstanding courage and determination," displayed while a member of the 803rd Engineer Battalion on Corregidor Mar. 24, 1942.

"During a heavy bombardment and shelling in which several men were severely wounded," the citation said, "he moved without regard for his own safety through the barrage to aid the fallen men. Passing through an area of tall grass blazing among stacks of bombs (which) were in imminent danger of exploding, he helped move the wounded soldiers to the hospital in Malinta Tunnel."

Tumblers Earn Emblems For Mastering 20 Stunts

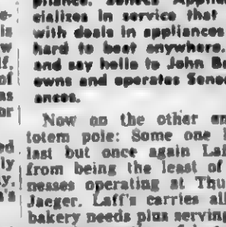
Tumbling classes are now in full swing at Schiller Recreation Center, with many experienced tumblers as well as new ones in the classes. They have been working hard to pass their first skill test.

The following have received their first achievement patch in the clown series: Mary Demsey, Lynne Myers, Eva Ward, Barbara Christ, Sharon Ramey, Bonnie Husse, Dorothea Ruoff, Karen Schmitt, Jerry Steiner, Skip Mans, Colleen Bush, Francis Callahan, Mary Ann Yetter, Jack Holstein, Linda Hoffman and Kathleen Curran.

To earn their achievement patches, children successfully did 20 out of 22 skill stunts. Each patch is orange, diamond shaped, and of felt with a blue clown face on it.

CANDIDATES TO MEET

Interest in the upcoming election will reach a climax here Sunday, Oct. 17, when the contenders in the top contest on the Ohio ballot will appear on Columbus Town Meeting.



Democratic Senator Thomas A. Burke and Republican congressman George Bender, who have been carrying on a running word battle across the state, will meet on the forum simulcast at 1 p.m. over WBNS and WBNS-TV.

Bender, who carries the endorsement of President Eisenhower, is running for the senate seat now occupied by Burke. Burke, himself, wears the mantle of approval of Governor Lausche by whom he was appointed on the death of Senator Robert A. Taft.

Moderator for the star-studded program will be another nationally known figure, George V. Denny, long time moderator of America's Town Meeting of the Air.

Mrs. Grace Hare Frye, program director, has invited the public to attend the forum at the studio at 495 Olentangy River-rd or to telephone questions to speakers through CA. 8-3881.

South Side Bell Ringer

By Tom Sharp

One thing has been brought to my attention. The items of food that I mention in this column from time to time are suggested because they have been served to me and really have met with my approval. I am in no way endorsing this product to anyone else. Actually, I may suggest an item but it is up to you really to decide if what you are served is a culinary delight.

I think that the corner of Thurman and Jaeger is a good subject for this week. I have four current advertisers from this progressive corner, namely Laff's Bakery and Coffee Shop, Seneca Appliances, John's Market and last, but certainly not least, Frank Neubeck's Carry Out and Paint Store.

Starting with Neubeck, who carries a complete line of Lowe Bros. paints to meet any painting need and also provides the general public with beer, wine and picnic supplies on the carry out side. Now, let's go across the street to John's Market, which is operated by John Boss, who recently acquired the store from Herb Eichhorn. This store carries quite a variety of grocery needs that would solve any woman's problem on what to serve her family and still stay within the budget.

Then over to the other corner and down a store to Seneca Appliance. Seneca Appliance specializes in service that satisfies, with deals in appliances that are hard to beat anywhere. Stop in and say hello to John Baker who owns and operates Seneca Appliances.

Now on the other end of the totem pole: Some one has to be last but once again Laff's is far from being the least of the businesses operating at Thurman and Jaeger. Laff's carries all types of bakery needs plus serving a mighty tempting portion of just about any type of food that you might need to fill that hungry void you call a stomach.

These are four fine merchants and all are anxious to try to please you, "Mr. John Q. Public." Stop in and tell them that the Bill Ringer said to say hello.

Skipping down a few streets to 28 E. Moler, we find a new advertiser with the Leader, carrying on in a business that was founded on the South Side some 22 years ago. I am talking about the Goetz and Kaiser Garage. This week their ad carries some mighty important information concerning winterizing your car. Check further in this issue for the ad. Eddie Goetz has been in the business for approximately

AND IN BETWEEN

The average "uncommitted voter" in Marion Township who just hasn't quite made up his or her mind about whether to join the "leave-us-aloners," the "all-or-nothing-at-all annexers," and the "incorporators" had plenty of material to make his nights restless this week.

His nightmare of indecision was compounded by the following:

ONE: Announcement by trustees of plans to ballot on the issue of incorporating the entire township prior to the general fall election, at which time the annexation of the entireties of six townships to the city of Columbus, including Marion, is on the ballot.

TWO: Announcement of the Junior Chamber of Commerce that their members were thoroughly convinced of the advisability of annexation and would campaign actively on its behalf.

THREE: Recent announcement by 11 major industrial firms on the South Side that they would prefer annexation to Columbus.

FOUR: Changeover of Marion Township trustee to the side of pro-annexation after prior bitter opposition. Trustee William Fornof has disclosed that between annexation and incorporation, he considers annexation by far the lesser of the two evils.

VISITS JAPAN DURING LEAVE

Pfc. Richard C. Deming, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Deming, 275 Hawkes-st, who is a rifleman with Company E of the 24th Division's 34th Regiment, recently spent seven days in Japan on a rest and recuperation leave. Deming entered the army in March, 1953 and arrived overseas in September of the same year.

City Education Officials Promise Annexation Not To Bring Change

Parents of Marion Township school children had the word today of both the Columbus board of education and the superintendent of Columbus schools that annexation to the city will not result in a change in the present policies, free bus service and tuition arrangements.

Superintendent N. G. Fawcett, several days ago said he would recommend to the board of education that free transportation of elementary school pupils to and from school be continued in Marion Township.

He said the township is "in fact an emergency area when various safety factors are considered."

A few days later, Dwight A. Swisher offered a seven-point resolution to the board of education, which was adopted unanimously. Fast, efficient extension of the board's services and instruction program to newly annexed territories is assured by the resolution.

If annexation of Marion Township is approved at the Nov. 2 election, the resolution said the board will:

(1) Operate schools in the annexed area on the basis of "broad, general policies" effective in the township at the time of the merger, until the area "can be integrated into the total Columbus public school system." Swisher said the transition will be orderly and gradual rather than abrupt and confused.

(2) Use services of "teachers and administrators already employed" in the township, in compliance with state law. Future hiring and contract-awarding policies in the area will be governed both by state law and Columbus school board policy.

(3) Continue to provide transportation on the same basis as at present until extension of city transportation, streets and sidewalks to the territory is accomplished; (4) school facilities are brought within a "reasonable distance" of pupils' homes, and (5) the new area is urbanized.

(6) Pay tuition of township high school pupils who want to continue their studies in a secondary school located in an area that would not join the Columbus School District through annexation. A township now pays the tuition if one of its residents attends high school classes in another community. If the township becomes annexed to Columbus, the students' parents need not fear they will have to pay for schooling because the Columbus Board would take over the obligation.

(7) Secure necessary legal counsel to resolve annexation problems affecting the school district.

TO HOLD PAPER DRIVE

On October 16, Saturday morning, Boy Scout Troop 92 will hold a paper drive from Stewart-av south to Markison-av, west to High. Residents should leave papers on front porch or call HI. 4-7526. The boys will collect east to Lockbourne-rd.

FANFARE FOR WEST GAME

"South of the Border" will be the theme used for the formations of the South High marching band tomorrow night when South meets West for the homecoming game. Randall Near, director of the band, said that the formations would include, "A Mexican cart, sombrero, and a fan."

After the queen is announced by the president of Student Council, Lila Babbert, the band will form a crown hailing the queen.

A dance will be held after the game, where a special fanfare will be given by the marching band for the queen and her court.

TEAM STAND-OUTS

Egnew 'Shows Well' In Center Position

Wilber Egnew

One of the most consistent ball players playing for South this year is Wilber Egnew. Wilber has been first string center for the past two seasons and is again showing well this year. Last year he went through the season without making any fumbles and would have made all city, except the center of the Linden Panthers was a senior and he got the nod over Wilber. Wilber is also on the track team and throws the shot put and the discus. He is 5'6" tall and weighs around 212 pounds.

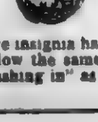
Readers Search For Insignia Worth $19 In The New Jackpot

It seems many South Siders missed the boat last week when the huge $139 jackpot was discovered.

Although the new $19 jackpot being offered this week is not such a fabulous sum, it's sure to be mighty welcome to the sharp South Sider who discovers it.

All this is very simply achieved, of course, by checking the big advertisements in the South Side Leader where an insignia, like one of those shown here in the box, may be plainly printed.

Six insignia, each about the size of a dime, are printed each week. There is one $5 insignia and five $1 insignia. The lucky South Sider discovering any of these should take it to the office of the South Side Leader, following the instructions printed here in the box.



In return for the insignia, he will receive a $1 "Confederate" bill if it is a $1 insignia, or the 19 "Confederate" dollars in the jackpot if it is the $5 insignia. These "Confederate" bills may then be redeemed for merchandise at the full value of U.S. currency at any business establishment advertising in the issue of the South Side Leader in which the insignia was found.

Easy? Couldn't be easier. No coupons, application blanks, or jingles to bother with. Simply scan the pages of your interesting and informative community newspaper, The South Side Leader. It means money in your pocket when you make a habit of it.

Here's What To Look For

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av (before Friday at 5 p. m.). It will be redeemed for $19 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue.

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

Central Hands 27-6 Defeat To South Bulldogs

By Jerry Dever

Central Pirates handed South its fourth straight defeat of the season Friday night at Central, with the final tally reading Central, 27, and South, 6. The two teams battled to a standstill in the first quarter with neither making too much of a threat to score. Central made its first score in the second quarter with Paul Schooley going over from the five-yard line for the score. Gene Bennett split the uprights for the extra point.

South made its bid to score in the closing seconds of the second quarter when Bob Hart completed a long pass to Sammy Pointer to the Central nine-yard line, but time ran out and Central led at the half by a score of 7-0.

Central's second score came in the third quarter when Gene Bennett ran around right end for 39 yards. South got into the scoring early in the fourth quarter when Bobby Hart passed to Dave Strauss to the 20-yard line and Strauss eluded two Central tacklers and went the rest of the way into the end zone for the score.

Central scored its final 13 points on touchdowns by Jim Bargdill and a beautiful 60-yard run by Gene Bennett, in which he went around right end then reversed his field and ran through the entire South team. Bennett added the extra point and the final score read Central 27, South 6.

State School Now Will Accept Christmas Gifts

A letter from Lloyd P. Ferguson, chairman of this year's Christmas gift committee at the State School, points out that, "We are now gratefully accepting Christmas gifts for the school."

A specialized list of suitable gifts for men and women, boys and girls, is available to those calling Ferguson at RA. 1191, Ext. 8. Gifts may be brought or sent to the special services office at the school, 1601 W. Broad-st. Donors are asked not to wrap gifts, but to attach fancy wrapping, if so desired, to the exterior of them.

MISUSE OF ELECTRICITY

Use only cords approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. Never hang extension cords from nails or hooks, or run them under carpets. Don't fasten cord to wall with tacks; have approved wiring installed by an electrician.

Replace all worn or frayed cords on appliances. Use lamps of proper wattage. See that no contact is made with cloth or paper shades, or other combustible material. Have "trouble lights" adequately protected against breakage. In commercial establishments, electric irons should be equipped with pilot lights to show when current is on. Always disconnect iron when not in use, or if you leave the ironing board. Keep iron on metal or asbestos pad when heated.

How To Guard Against Home Electrical Hazards

Misuse of electricity is responsible for many home fires each year. Here's how to guard against the sparks and overheating that result in electrical fires:

1. Fifteen ampere fuses are recommended for most household circuits. Never use oversize fuses or tamper with the ones already in the box.

2. Don't try to run too many appliances from one outlet; you will overload the circuit. If fuses blow frequently even without overloading, have an electrician inspect the wiring.

3. Look for the UL label on all electric cords and appliances you buy. It means they passed Underwriters' Laboratories tests for fire and shock safety.

4. When an electric cord or appliance needs repairs, don't let a "home handyman" tinker with it. Take it to an electrician.

5. Extension or repairs to wiring is also a job for a professional. Wiring done by amateurs has caused many fires.

6. Don't string wires over hooks or around nails, or run them under rugs where they may be walked on. Insulation will break or wear out.

PERSPIRERS NEED WATER

Thirst is no barometer of the body's need for fluid. Those who perspire freely should take a glass of water frequently, perhaps as often as every half hour, throughout the day. And they should include a small quanity of salt, which is an integral part of perspiration. Lack of sufficient salt can cause abdominal cramps.

Mr. Fix-It Delves Into Problems Revolving Around Halloween Fun

Dear Mr. Fix-It:

I've never appreciated anyone telling me how to raise my children so please don't misunderstand my plea, but my husband and I, and many other parents like us, have a problem that none of us seem to have solved very satisfactorily.

The problem is that, although our junior high school age boys are bright and generally well behaved, "boys will be boys" as the saying goes, and as Halloween rolls around, their main pleasure seems to be in playing the harmless but bothersome pranks that often turn young practical jokers into vandals.

They, and nearly every other youngster their age, seem to find some unexplained thrill and excitement in soaping windows of the grouchy neighbor across the street or "pinning" the automobile horn of a total stranger down the block.

We're not the kind of parents who let our children run the streets at all hours. We do put a nine o'clock curfew on them unless they want to attend something special. However, I have received two complaints that during that length of time my boys were seen in the act of performing the stunts that I spoke of. My husband seems to think that we should confront the boys with the complaints and punish them in addition to keeping them in during the Halloween "season."

This, no doubt, is the common thing to do. But I don't think it is the solution to a problem that I consider a real problem because of the acts of vandalism and violence that such an idea of "fun" might encourage.

I don't expect you to give me a law governing such problems, but perhaps you can suggest the "cause and cure" as the doctors say.

Yours truly,
Mrs. J. G.

Dear Mrs. J. G.

The cause of your problem seems to be fairly simple to explain. Apparently, there was nothing else of "interest" for your boys to do at the time, and, of course, there is the element of "danger" that is always exciting to youngsters and the young at heart.

The "cure" may not be so easy. However, perhaps I can prescribe a treatment that may help in dealing with this problem in addition to your own explanation to your sons of the folly and cruelty and sometimes needless hurt and tragedy that such pranks may bring about.

Needless to say, the simple pastime of "Halloweening" loses its thrill like any other plaything in time. Although most youngsters give up at that point, some may develop this type of "entertainment" into tragic and criminal vandalism, for which the law prescribes just punishment.

In order to avoid wasted time and effort and bad feeling, and in the future, perhaps even sorrow, it would be well to lay these simple facts of the consequences before your sons. Moreover, as they are of junior high school age, you might stress the fact that they are getting too old for this "kid stuff" and might devote their time and energy to developing their talents in really exciting and rewarding pastimes such as football or basketball or any of the many sports and activities offered by their school and local organizations, such as the YMCA.

Of course, we all like to celebrate a holiday and many organizations in the locale have made ample provision for the celebration of this fun-provoking occasion.

A number or local groups are sponsoring contests for budding young artists in their separate localities in which they supply water soluble paint to be used in painting Halloween scenes on the store windows of local business establishments. The pictures are judged and winning entrants receive cash prizes for their efforts. In addition, many schools, churches, and various organizations sponsor dances and parties where young people may gather and bring their friends for an evening of fun and festivities. Plenty of toothsome refreshments are usually supplied too, which active teenagers aren't in the habit of turning down.

Actually, there isn't any problem at all when teen-agers are in the habit of gathering at these functions or giving a party in their own home, by way of doing something different that is interesting to them.

Sunday Sermonette

By
Rev. Delbert S. Mills

Look with me at one of the sweetest words in the Bible, the word COME, the word of words. The first COME in the Bible is one of salvation, Gen. 7-1, note COME not GO, a proof that the Lord Himself was in the Ark as is also the last, Rev. 22-7.

What must we come for? Come and I will give you rest, Matt 11-28; come for knowledge, come and see, John 1, 3-9; come for satisfaction, come unto me and drink, John 37-7; come for discipleship, come and follow me, Mark 1.-21; come for victory, come put your feet upon the necks, John. 10-27; come for fellowship, come and dine, John 21-12; come for refreshments, come and rest awhile, Mark 6-31; come and receive your inheritance, come and inherit. Matt. 25-34.

How must we come? Just as we are without any attempt to make ourselves presentable for then He will make us new creatures in Christ Jesus.

When must we come? The instructions, COME NOW are found over and over again in the Bible.

He said unto Mary and Martha, "I am the Resurrection and the Life," and so among the many wonderful things that we come for in Jesus, most of all, the highest of all is life, more abundant life. Come to that life!

OCTOBER EVENING

The dusk is stabbed with glancing spears of rain:
Mist, from the meadows rising,
idly drifts;
Trees murmur legends and a lone bird lifts
A single voice, one pur.. hushed note of pain.
The leaves have fallen, in a golden stain
Sudden as sunlight through the fraying rifts
Of cloud. A pale moon flowers.
Dim light sifts
Blurred silver on the pool. I watched it wane:
I heard the rain drums waken, heard them beat
Upon the water, saw the darkness hold
The moving shapes of swans, in still retreat.
Stranger than dreaming, like a tale once told.
Haunting the mind, or like the slow defeat
Of love remembered, when the heart is old

OCTOBER

The day we walked together
through October
The mist-wrapped sun shone down, half-heartedly
He thought himself out-shone by all the glowing
Of goldenrod and flaming bittersweet
Long silences between us let in tiny sounds—
The sudden whir of wild geese, flying south;
Of busy squirrels who chattered as they worked
We heard smoke-scented winds sigh mournfully
And gentle murmuring of leaf choked streams
The day we walked together
through October
Is the day my heart keeps remembering.

Mail—From Cincinnati: "A child enters your home and makes so much noise for 18 or 20 years that you can scarcely stand it, then he departs—leaving the house so dismally silent you think you'll go mad. I read that somewhere, and it is so true" . . . From Thornville: "All is well on Honey Creek. An autumn wind sings through the willows. The goldenrod is yellow and I think I may have seen a patch of red in the tree tops. Looks like a mighty harvest of corn. Those long yellow cribs of corn I saw in my mind's eye long days ago when I was 'The Plow Man' soon will be a reality" . . . From Boston: "We are beginning to see out again, so if yo are still planning that trip to Cape Cod, come along. Thanks to patriotic people all over the country, the Old North Church is to be repaired" . . . From California: "Every October we get homesick for Ohio. I can still taste that apple butter and smell the wood smoke and burnin leaves."

In Passing—Was gunna to ask whatever became of G David Schine, but Robert Sylvester beat me to it . . . Last October when the last week of vacation was over, my better 9/10 and I told each other dolefully that that was that till spring, and it seemed like a long, bleak stretch of time. But the next thing we knew it was Christmas, then Easter. This isn't news to anyone, but it does fill up space. This isn't news either—but time does fly . . . The trouble with dusting books is it takes so long to read them. A busy housewife either shouldn't have books, or they should go un-dusted. (Am still embarrassed when I remember that Dr. Miles once pulled a book from our book shelves and his antiseptically-clean hands were black!)

From somewhere — Wolks used to make shirts on spinning-wheels; now they lose their shirts on them . . . Judge a man by his questions rather than by his answers . . . Friend of Judge, visiting police court: "You have a pretty rough bunch of customers this morning, don't you judge?" Judge: "You're looking at the wrong bunch. Those are the lawyers" . . . For years the catalogue of a mail order house had carried an ad picturing a pair of corduroy pants, together with the description and price of same. In the twenty-fifth year the company received this letter: "Dear Friend: The more I been seeing them corduroy britches the more I get to wanting them. If you aint sold them yet, let me know and I'll buy them" . . .

Wood-Working Class Is Popular With Youngsters

The woodcraft class which meets on Saturday from 9-12 a. m., at Schiller Recreation Center is proving to be quite a popular activity. Last week the boys made a toothbrush holder in the form of a little clown, who holds a brush in each hand. Future projects will include toys, gifts and small pieces of furniture for their parents. The class is open to all boys interested in this type of activity.

Want ads penetrate even the Iron Curtain.

Still Time To Enroll In Beginners Baton Class

Prospective drum-majors and majorettes should sign up now for instruction in beginning twirling and marching at Schiller Recreation Center.

The class, which is almost full, meets at Schiller from 4 to 5:30 p. m. on Tuesday and Thursday in the auditorium. When pupils become skilled enough they will plan a twirling routine set to music. Learning group routines will enable the class to twirl together as a group for an audience. Prospective pupils who do not have a baton, should borrow one until they are able to buy one.

VARIETY IN CRAFT CLASSES

Many interesting projects are scheduled for the craft classes held at Schiller Recreation Center Monday through Thursday from 5:30 until 5:30 p.m.

This is an opportunity for boys and girls of all ages to participate in a variety of activities. Hand puppets, costumes and scenery will be made and the children will be able to perform in puppet plays at the center.

Other plans for the season include paper craft, paper sculpture and papier mache. Weaving in various forms, from pot holders to baskets, will also be taught under the supervision of Rita McNally who is crafts instructor at Schiller.

WOODCRAFT OPPORTUNITY

Boys, here's a good opportunity for you to make Christmas gifts. D. T. Crawshaw is supervising a boy's woodcraft shop, Saturday mornings from 9 to 12 noon. Here are some of the items which the class is making now. Toothbrush holders, ash trays, and sewing boxes. If you make all of these things, it would just about fill your gift list for mom and dad and sisters or brothers. Hurry down and get an early start this Saturday.

Southwood Church Plans Homecoming Sunday; Special Evening Services

Homecoming day will be observed at Southwood Church of Christ on Sunday, Oct. 17. Former members and former pastors of the church will be given special recognition at the morning service.

A pot luck luncheon, under the direction of the young people, will be eaten at noon.

During the months of October, November and December at Southwood the evening services are being centered around the theme, "Building According To The Pattern". Each Sunday evening there will be special music, and a special message on some phase of the New Testament Church. This Sunday evening a former Roman Catholic, Edward Colina of Cincinnati, will be the speaker. Mr. Colina is the master proof reader at the Standard Publishing Co., a publishing house of the Church of Christ. His subject will be "Is the Roman Catholic Church the New Testament Church?". Everyone is cordially invited.

First English Lutheran Sets Guest Day Sunday

Guest Day will be observed at First English Lutheran Church, E. Main-st at 22nd-st. Sunday, Oct. 17, at 10:45 a.m. Rev. Harold R. Albert and Rev. Clyde R. McCormack are pastors.

Rev. Albert will preach, "The Church Speaks," and the adult and youth choirs under the direction of C. Robert Myers will provide special music, as will Elmer Blackmer, organist. Following the service a "coffee hour" will be held in the assembly room. People of the community who have no church home are especially invited to this service.

CLEARING MATTER UP

There seems to be some misunderstanding and some doubt as to how the proposed water and sewage system in Marion and Hamilton Townships willl be financed. The project will be paid for by the sale of revenue bonds and the cost will be included in the charge made for service.

There is no assessment being made to the front footage of the consumer's property. The only payment made by the water and sewer users will be by the regular water and sewage bill.

The above is an announcement from the Marion and Hamilton Township Joint Sewer and Water Committee.

The Gadabout

October's bright blue weather, says the poet and how true. Wonder why the October skies are so much bluer than those of the rest of the year?

Former South High classmates of Joan Mincer will be interested in learning she has now attained the rank of "mother" as of Oct. 4. She and her husband, Louis Cooperider are naturally quite proud of their little son who weighed in at a whopping seven pounds three ounces. Congratulation cards will reach them if addressed to Thornville, O.

We hope today's column finds Tilly Kraft of Champion-av feeling good as new. Tilly was among the ailing members of our community last week.

How does one pronounce "roaster"? We've always thought it was "raw-ster," but after attending Trudeau 25's meeting held last week, we now have two other pronounciations to choose from: Isabelle Coslett is 'our educator and she gives out with "roaster" or "rooster." Dresses it up, don't you think?

An item that happened in the recent past was the 74th birthday of Mr. Yoakem, of Sycamore-st. His children held a big reception for him in Mt. Vernon on that day. As a crowning joy, a great-grandchild was born on Sept. 18, Mr. Yokem's natal day.

Early October birthdays include those of Glenna Edwards who has an Oct. 5 birthdate, Charles (call me "Butch") Carter, an Oct. 4 day of celebration, and Viola Burns, well-known proprietress of the Betty Ann Grocery Store, who added a year on Oct. 9.

Some proud grandparents around are busy comparing notes on the new grandchildren. The "grands" are Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore of 59 E. Jenkins-av, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter of 71 E. Southwood-av.

The newest additions are the little 'uns of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sewell, the Moore's granddaughter, and of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter, the Carter's grandson. "Missy" Sewell has a few days headstart in "looking the situation over," for she arrived Sept. 23, while Master Carter waited until Oct. 4. Should any of the friends desire to say hello to the new arrivals the addresses are 2556 Northwoll, Westerville, for the Sewells, and 323 Sheldon for the younger Carters.

A young lad studying for the ministry has been taken ill and cards of cheer would help immensely. To do this good deed, address the card to Bob Schwab, Johnson Bible College, Kimberlin Heights, Tenn. Bob is a South Sider, naturally.

Another ailing lad is Raymond Lamberson, 622 Hanford-st, who was hospitalized in Mt. Carmel Hospital at this writing. His room number is 812.

We love to give recognition to worthy things, so we're quite happy to salute some gentlemen in the community for taking part in the blood donor program. The men are employees of the Armstrong Furnace Co. and have helped greatly in the outstanding job that Armstrong has done along this line. Armstrong won the Recognition Award from the Red Cross in 1952 and 1953 and won the WBNS-TV "Plaque of the Week" on Sept. 28.

The South Siders who helped to make this possible are Herschel Huffman, 208 E. Moler-st; Roy Fee, 1170 Jeager; John McLoughlin, 416 E. Gates-st; Joe Quinn, 567 S. Fifth-st; Joe O'Connor, 415 Deshler-av; Charles Ellis, 1014 Oakwood-av; Charles Mullens, 18 E. Stimmel; George Schmidt, 863 Columbus-st; Clyde Thompson, 571 Siebert-st, and Denville Proffit, 364 S. Sixth-st.

The foremen who have helped in this project are Larry Foster, 925 Mohawk-st; Millard Blackurn, 1300 S. Fourth-st, and Carl Herman, 688 E. Jackson-st.

We can't leave this part of the column without noting an unusual bit of news. Mr. and Mrs. Proffit are the parents of two sets of twins, born ten months apart! Practically quads, eh what? (And say, you other business places, let your personnel people give us news of the South Siders, too. We don't want any of this "We've done that well, or better." We can't know if you don't tell us!)

Birthdays to be celebrated very shortly include those of Lillian Meyers, on Oct. 15, Clarence Rothwell on Oct. 16, and Leona Souers, also the 16th. Another Rothwell, John Thomas, will have an Oct. 27 day of cake and ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worth, 729 Jaeger-st, were present in Springfield, Ill., on Oct. 4, when their daughter took her final vows. Their daughter is Sister Jacinta.

Most generally one thinks of a grandma-to-be as keeping dad-to-be company in the waiting room, but one grandma missed that experience. Mary Long, 1240 S. Ohio-av, was recovering from an operation in Doctors' Hospital at the same time her daughter, Agnes Irwin, kept her date with the stork in the maternity section of Doctor's. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Irwin will have Oct. 4, at his birthday, incidentally. Mrs. Long was due home early this week. (1240 will be a miniature hospital for awhile, won't it?)

Guess that does it for this time. If you'd like to read more news, help us out by telling us of the events in your life. Fair enough? Till next week, then--

YOUR BRANCH LIBRARY

Newly-Acquired Books Include 'Quaker Bride' By J. Whitney

The Parsons Avenue Branch Library wishes to acquaint its patrons with some of its recently acquired novels.

"The Quaker Bride," by Janet Whitney, concerns extension and mystery surrounding the life of Rose Cartwright, an innocent Quaker girl of 18, who married the fabulous Luke Ashton and goes with him to England to live at Friar's Court, Luke's ancestral home. Armed with feminine courage and Quaker gentleness, Rose remains steadfast in the face of mounting excitement and fearsome villainy.

"Day of the Harvest," by Helen Upshaw, is a novel of the deep South. On the surface it is the story of a lynching; but actually it is much more than that. It is rather a novel about human beings, people who are caught in a trap of their own devising. The theme is a forbidden love affair between a beautiful Negro girl, Noel, and spoiled, wealthy white boy, Philip Farrel.

"The Last Love of Camille," by Frances Winwar, is the true and little known story of Camille, famous courtesan, whose last love affair with the composer Franz Liszt, was the only real romance of her life.

"The Courts of Memory," by Frank Rooney. To the reader of this exciting and brilliant novel Brace Griffin will be as memorable as any heroine in contemporary fiction. To Dick Griffin, her brother, she was memory itself. She charted or deflected the course of Dick's life—gave it meaning, happiness and grief, and finally resolution.

"Cassy Scandal," by Zola Ross, is the tempestuous story of the prettiest girl in Seattle in 1885. Zola Rose knows early Seattle. This is her frankest, liveliest novel, full of excitement, passion and love.

"The Doctors," by Andre Sanbiran, presents the world through the eyes of young Jean Nerac from the day he enters medical school, as he works slowly toward his degree, learning about life as well as medicine. "The Doctors" presents a fascinating behind the scenes portrait of life in the clinic, the laboratory and the charity wards of a big city hospital.

"Father Couldn't Juggle," by Elisabeth Lambert, is the hilarious story of a joyous family . . . the delightful account of the life of an English family, recently arrived in Jamaica, B.W.I. A family every reader would like to know and indeed be a member of.

"Farewell, My General," by Shirley Seifert. General Jeb Stuart, the great cavalry commander of the Confederacy is a glamorous and well-known figure in American history. This novel gives a stirring and revealing portrait of the unforgettable woman whose destiny was interlocked with Jeb Stuart's, from Indian fighting days through the climactic agony of the War Between the States.

"The Whip Hand," by Ian Gordon. For 20 driving years his wife's ambition had been a dynamo that never let him rest. And Culby Fuller needed a rest. When the showdown came he knew that Sylvia would rather ruin him than let him stop.

HEPPED ON WANT-ADS

Probably the most enthused user of want-ads in this paper this week is L. F. Hitchcock of 181 Letchworth-av. He placed one of these tiny "wonder-workers" in the classified columns last week to sell a storm door with screen and five metal window screens.

Within minutes after the first of the weekly 32,000 copies of these newspapers were opened by readers, Hitchcock started getting calls. He sold the apparently widely-sought-after items in very short order, then went on to log some 40 separate telephone calls from would-be buyers.

Now, he's got the want ad habit. How about you? We know we can help you with your selling problems. Merely call JO. 7331 or HI. 4-9262 for courteous assistance in the best wording of your super-salesman.

Naughty kittens, lost your mittens. Well find them with a want ad.

Four New Teachers Briefly Introduced To Community As Classes Start

Mr. Powless, who attended North High School for three years and one year at Mifflin High School, from which he graduated, enlisted in the navy, where he served three and one-half years. Later enrolled at Otterbein College, he played football as a fullback and linebacker and participated in track, jumping hurdles and discus throwing.

He taught at West Jefferson for one year, where he was head football and baseball coach and reserve basketball coach. From there he began teaching at Glouster, where he taught for two years as head coach in all sports.

Mr. Powless is married and his one hobby is sailboating. He owns a Comet and Lightning.

During the football season at Hamilton he will act as assistant coach, with Mr. DeCenzo as head coach

Mr. Powless is offering a new course, drivers' training, at Hamilton Township High School this year. The seniors are the only ones eligible to take this driving course, which lasts for the one semester class, after completion of which they will receive drivers' licenses and certificates.

Miss Morgan is the new music teacher at Hamilton Township High School. A lifelong resident of Columbus, she was graduated from West High School, where she took a leading part in many activities. She majored in music and the next year went to Capital University to study further in music. Miss Morgan taught at the University Academy last year.

Her position at Hamilton Township High School is really her first big job of teaching. She conducts a mixed chorus with girls and boys —an activity the school hasn't had for quite some time—and a girl ensemble consisting of nine girls. Miss Morgan is looking forward to having the Christmas program and singing at the class plays. She is getting along very well with her classes and expects to make fast progress.

Mrs. Beeler is one of the new additions to the faculty at Hamilton Township High School. She comes from Kentucky, where she was graduated from Asbury College. Then she went to Ohio State University for two years. At Hamiltoin she teaches three eighth grade English classes, and the rest of the day she has the library. Mrs. Beeler will also direct the senior class play.

Mr. Antolino, Hamilton Township High School's new Spanish teacher and seventh grade adviser, was graduated from Roosevelt Military Academy in Toledo and was graduated from Ohio State University in 1954. Married, Mr. Antolino says this is his first year of teaching. His hobbies are golf and eating steaks.

In the winter of 1953 he attended Mexico City College with a group of Ohio State students. Besides gaining regular college credit for his courses—Spanish, economics and English—he and the other students had a wonderful winter in Mexico City and Acapulco, seeing as many of the sights of Mexico as possible. Mr. Antolino will sponsor the Spanish Club.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council of Hamilton had a meeting at the school, Sept. 21, to discuss plans for the year. Bob Cramer, the president, with the two advisers, Mr. Powless and Mr. Cole, conducted the meeting.

Discussed were driving cars on the school grounds, students getting to their home rooms in the morning, noise in the halls, taking care of school equipment, and forming a student court.

Mr. Strausbaugh talked about the student court. The court would be to help the students. For instance the driving of some students around school should conform to safety regulations as well as the Ohio laws. Each student council member was to tell his or her home room about these topics.

ART CLASS

The art classes, with Mr. Price as teacher, have a regular class room at Hamilton and they are equipped with work tables and stools, blackboards, paper, crayon, clays, some paint, and an electric-kiln for baking clay art objects.

Classes are looking forward to the time when the art room can be expanded with more counter space, a sink, bigger display areas, looms for weaving, metals and tools for metal working materials for basket weaving, space for making large murals and stage sets to be used for plays, Christmas programs and special events

At present Mr. Price's classes are trying various projects to get acquainted with art classes. Later, bigger projects will be undertaken.

PTA NEWS

Hamilton PTA will meet the third Thursday of each month except October, December and March.

This year its object is a better home and school relationship. Parents are urged to bring their school questions and problems to the PTA where they can be answered and discussed by both parents and teachers.

There will be a jubilee in March, the one money-making project planned. This money will be used for the school.

Officers include: president, Mrs. Prushing; secretary, Mrs. Sherman; and treasurer, Mrs. Forshey.

"that enforcement has been poor. Roads and traffic controls also are handled by the county and again responsibility to public need is slow and inadequate.

"A check of the county auditor's records with regards to expenditures and financial resources of the township governments will show that the largest single portion of funds available goes into retirement and pension funds for township officials," he emphasized in reading from the report.

"It should be noted," it continued, "that township government has nothing whatever to do with schools or school districts. These districts are independent political units, whose sole purpose is the operation of educational facilities. These units have done a creditable job even though hard pressed by the expansion that has overtaken them.

"The problem to be faced, however, is a continued and accelerated expansion in terms of number of students, and even more serious, advancing age of students to high school level, where costly, specialized technical and vocational training will be demanded.

"The third problem relates to providing facilities for rest and recreation and for cultural and sports events that make an urban community a pleasant place in which to live. Long range planning for the whole urban area, the financial resources of the whole urban area, and adequate undeveloped land with which to plan and where to build upon are essential

"Obviously, control and responsibility must be in one governmental unit, with jurisdiction over the whole urban area, if an adequate provision, with any reasonable time and at a reasonable cost, is to be made of these elements, that make a community livable in the broadest sense."

MARION LOCAL SCHOOLS

Board Of Education Approves Materials For Local Voters

The Marion local board of education, meeting in special session, recently approved a proof copy of a booklet entitled "Why the School Levy and Bond Issue?" to be printed and distributed to voters of the district before the general election. Also approved was a bi-partisan rally and discussion of school issues to be planned and sponsored by a ninth grade social studies class under the direction of Walter Shott. This meeting will be held at Marion-Franklin High School at 8 p. m. Oct. 21.

Approved at this meeting was the following resolution:

"Inasmuch as it seems certain that, regardless of whether this area continues as a township, becomes an incorporated village, or becomes a part of Columbus, new school buildings are going to be urgently needed in this area and more funds are needed to operate the schools in this area, and, inasmuch as there are fine public-spirited citizens of this district who sincerely believe in each of the above-mentioned forms of civil government, therefore be it resolved that this Board of Education urge all citizens interested in the schools of the district to vote for the operating levy and the school bond issue, regardless of their convictions on other matters."

After further action to employ William Fraher, Columbus, as a teacher in the high school and Norman Vick, Columbus, as a substitute bus driver, the board adjourned.

The executive committee of the Marion Township Citizens Association recently went on record as approving the operating levy and the bond issue, to be voted on by voters of Marion local school district at the Nov. 2 election.

In their most recent meetings, the Scioto Trail Parent-Teacher Club and the Smith Road Parent-Teacher Association each approved contributions of $50 to help defray the bost of publishing a booklet to explain the school issues. The Parent-Teacher Club of Clarfield School took similar action at its meeting on Thursday, Oct. 7, and the same question is to come before the Fornof Parent-Teacher group at its meeting on Oct. 19.

TO DEDICATE BARRETT

Thursday, Oct. 21, is the date set for the dedication of the new auditorium and cafeteria at Barrett Junior High School, with visitation and inspection of the building from 7:30 to 8:30 and a formal dedication at 8:30.

Novice G. Fawcett, superintendent of Columbus schools will make the address of the evening, and some rather special musical numbers will be offered

A Texan heard that a factory in Ohio was interested in buying bullfrog skins. He wired that he could supply any quantity up to 100,000 on demand. Needing the skins badly, the factory wired him to send the entire 100,000.

About 10 days later a single dried bullfrog skin arrived through the mail, with this notice: "Gents: I'm sorry about this, but here's all the frog skins there were. The noise sure fooled me."

South Side Settlement Reports Space For A Few Available In Its Play School

Clubs and interest groups are shaping up at South Side Settlement. There is still room in Nursery Play School for a few more three- and four-year-olds. This is for any child that age and the cost is 25 cents for registration, then 75 cents a month. Martha Bucke and Mary Cook are in charge.

Two adult sewing groups are started—one for young mothers who really want to learn to sew will be held every Friday evening at 7, with Mary Wittman in charge. On Monday night, 7-9, the older women's sewing group will meet with Martha Bucke. This is our oldest club and friendship group. A class in crochet from Hanford Village, open to anyone, will start as soon as a leader can be obtained.

There was an error in last week's notice — the Mothers' Breakfast Club meets the fourth Wednesday, which will be Oct. 27.

One of the problems which has not been solved is that of 12-13-year-old girls who want to come to evening programs which are planned for 14-year-olds and older with a very few exceptions. If parents will cooperate with this, it will help greatly. The curfew law is still in force and the Settlement cannot assume responsibility for those under 14.

Two things are important this month: Halloween and the United Appeals Drive! The Settlement is a Red Feather Agency and asks you to support this very important United Appeals drive for funds to keep our agencies functioning.

Make the South Side Settlement your center of activity—call HI. 4-2115 to find out what it has for you.

Twisted

Going round a mental home, a visitor strolled through the gardens, met an inmate and asked him his name.

"George Washington," was the reply.

"But I seem to remember the last time I was here you were Abraham Lincoln," the visitor said.

"That," explained the man, "was by my first wife."

Rep. Clarence J. Brown, Ohio Republican, says the Hoover Commission has discovered that the armed services at the end of World War II had on hand enough spare parts to keep their jeeps running at maximum rate for 104 years. He describes it as "almost criminal" waste in military purchases.

Nancy Boehm Earns $4,000 Scholarship To Western U.

By Marty McCaminada and Carol Klein

Nancy Boehm daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boehm, 1180 Lilley-av, was chosen as one of six students in the United States to receive a $4,000 scholarship to Western University in Oxford, O.

Nancy entered a sewing contest last spring which consisted of written tests and sewing exhibits. She chose to enter a princess style cocktail dress with a matching jacket which was made of peacock taffeta. Nancy learned of the contest from Lazarus where she helps out in the sewing department and was notified later this summer of her prize.

At South, Nancy, who maintains a B average, is active in FTA, Stylettes, and has taken sewing for three years. She also finds time to belong to Job's Daughters and work part-time at the Capital Bureau.

After graduation in January Nancy plans to work before entering college in September. She will major in dress designing and sewing.

Candidates for this year's queen are Beverly Weakly, Sue Haley, Carol Weber, Glenna Dean, Nancy Johnson, Caryl Coverdale, and Janis Reese.

The committees include Dick Starr, Neal Kresheck, and Ruth Cooper, tickets; student council and student court, decorations. Henry Maser, president of the Alumni Association, will be the alumni representative.

Announcing the homecoming queen at half-time will be Lila Babbert, president of the South High student council. This is the first time a girl has ever announced the homecoming queen.

After the game, the annual homecoming dance will be held in the South High School gym. The big attraction at the dance will be the crowning of the queen. Music will be furnished by the South High School dance band. The PTA will chaperone and be in charge of refreshments at the dance. Tickets for the dance are now on sale at South High School.

32 years and his partner for more than 26. These two men knew cars. Let them look yours over and check it thoroughly for the winter.

Well, that is "30" for this week. "Live on the South Side and Shop on the South Side." You're probably familiar with our slogan by now. But we think and know it'll pay off, both in the long and the short run.

FORNOF SCHOOL NEWS

Band Entertains Three Grades, Expains Use Of Instruments

The fourth, fifth and sixth grade boys and girls were recently guests of the Marion-Franklin Band. Mr. Ritter, the director, told about the instruments that are used in bands. Each section played a scale to let the group hear the tones of the various sections. The children liked the way the band stepped while marching, especially the high-stepping majorettes. They enjoyed the formations that were made. Their favorites were the Indian music and dance and the take-off on the "Little Red School House" to the tune of "School Days."

Many of the boys and girls are beginning to learn how to play band instruments under the leadership of Miss Marina Morris, who hopes to have a band at Fornof in the near future. To date, about 20 people already have instruments. More expect to have instruments by next week.

100 PER CENT MEMBERSHIP

The teachers of Fornof School have 100 per cent memberships in the National Education Association and The Ohio State Teachers Educational Organization.

PARTOL BOYS GUESTS

Yea, Team! Many of the patrol boys were guests of the Columbus Auto Club at the Ohio State-Indiana game. Needless to say they had a thrilling afternoon as well as an inspirational one.

CARNIVAL HELP NEEDED

Have you called Mrs. Colburn or Mrs. Gilkey offering to help with the Carnival at the school on Oct. 15? Remember the money made will be used for recreational equipment for your child. The school needs this help.

Mrs. Woehlert would be happy to meet the adults of the community in the library at the school. She is there every day from 2 until 4 o'clock. If you like to read you can find western stories, mystery stories and fiction. If you are giving a party you will find books of games and books on proper etiquette.

In addition to his duties as treasurer of the Southeast Lions Club, Horvath is an active member of the Steelton Merchants Association.

When he can find time for a respite from his many activities, he enjoys engaging in many types of sports and often plays the role of a very interested spectator.

Barrett Names Two As Its Delegates To Program

Barrett Junior High School has selected Mike Bordy and Barbara Hoover as representatives to the "Fun Without Destruction" program, as carried on in the South Side community this year.

This is an organized effort to observe the spirit and tradition of the Halloween without the violence and lawlessness that have crept into the observance throughout the years.

The program will be carried on throughout the city with the cooperation of city government, the board of education, and the community agencies in all localities of Columbus.

A number of teen-age parties and dances and other events are in preparation for the "Fun Without Destruction" season.

Marion-Franklin Booster Club To Meet Monday

The Marion-Franklin Boosters' Club will meet Monday, Oct. 18, at 8 p.m., in the Marion-Franklin High School.

All parents having children in the school are invited to attend. This club makes money for the athletic equipment, band uniforms and lights for the stadium. These things are not completely paid for and the help of everyone concerned is needed.

Become TV 'Quiz Kids' During Trip

In typical American fashion, members of a South Side family that started out to be a welcoming committee for a German immigrant, Friday, ended up as the harried contestants on a coast-to-coast TV quiz program.

This crazy, mixed-up event all started when Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Luce, 469 Marion-rd, and their son and daughter set out for New York to meet a friend, Mrs. Ottile Gernhardt, arriving from her home at Klingenberg, Germany, which is near Frankfort on the River Main. Mrs. Gernhardt was traversing the thousands of miles in order to visit her sister, Mrs. Agusta Voit, 858 Heyl-av, whom she hadn't seen in 40 years.

The family even started out on the trip in a comparatively odd fashion, for Mr. and Mrs. Luce drove while their son, Edward, better known as "Duke", of 457 Marion-rd, took a plane, receiving free transportation as an employee of Port Columbus. Duke's sister, Frances, now Mrs. John Loechler, 469 Marion-rd, arrived at Grand Central Station as she is a railroad employee.

When the family was at last reunited in New York City, they decided to see the popular television show, "The Big Payoff," for which Mrs. Luce had already procured tickets. Before the show, each member of the audience was asked to fill out a card explaining why he would like to win the "Big Payoff" for a certain person.

Duke Luce wrote, "I'd like to win the Big Payoff for my sister, Frances, because she helped me buy my plane and when she flew she was the smallest pilot in the country."

He received a call that evening that he had been selected to appear on the show the following day and was requested to arrive at the broadcasting station early in order to rehearse rules and stage procedure.

However, on Friday's show, Luce and his sister were no more than introduced to the audience than the allotted time for the broadcast ran out and they were asked to return on Monday.

Although the entire family left for Columbus that evening to take their German friend to her sister, Luce and his sister, Mrs. Loechler, returned to New York Sunday evening and were the first contestants to appear on the Big Payoff Monday afternoon.

There, before a nation-wide television audience and the large studio audience which included his wife, who was in New York on a theatre tour sponsored by the Columbus Citizen, Luce told the story of how his tiny sister, Frances, had helped him buy his first airplane nearly 15 years ago. Not long afterward, when Frances learned to fly, he had had a special seat built into the cockpit for her so she could reach the controls for, although she was 21 years old at the time, his sister was only four feet, five inches tall and weighed all of 85 pounds.

Although he was unable to give the correct name of Audrey Hepburn's husband (he had spent the night before studying the biographies of the past presidents of the United States, Luce won approximately $300 worth of pre-market items for giving the correct location of the island of Haiti. The $300 worth of gifts Mrs. Loechler received included a set of lingerie, an original hat creation, a handsome set of luggage, and two stylish suits.

In regard to the New York visit Luce recalled, "We also saw the Victor Borge and Perry Como shows. They were really wonderful."

There's no moral to the story, but it all goes to show that no matter what you may start out to do in the land of the free — you'll probably end up on television!

Poetry Corner

AFRAID
By Charles W. Widmaier

If we're afraid to face the future
Fear to tread the road through life.
Then we are doomed to be a failure,
For fear cannot conquer any strife.

Being afraid is the draw back on Achievement and on real success.
And any fear that lies within us,
Can destroy all our happiness.

Afraid to face life's battles
When confronted face to face.
Will easily take all the pleasure
And bring a sorrow in its place.

Fear not, the life before you,
Face it like a noble soldier staid.
And if we all just follow through,
We will never ever be afraid.

Trivia

From THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Gaizy Gordon

ANNEXATION STOLE THE SHOW: That's what Township Trustee William Fornof told us in a phone call the other day when we were asking him for his version of the public meeting last Thursday night in Marion-Franklin High School.

According to Fornof, the incorporation faction was all set to present in a convincing fashion its side of the current annexation-incorporation-leave-us-alone battle royal. Incorporation people were gnashing their teeth after several leaders of industry showed up and literally "stole the show," Fornof said.

Fornof was especially tickled because of the fact that handbills before the meeting had read "Come and Hear the Truth About Incorporation."

JAYCEE INTERVENTION: Effects of the Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce endorsement of annexation have not been felt to date. One reader, a pro-annexation man, complained that the report of the chamber was too high-toned to change any but a small number of voters' minds.

Logic apparently has been thrown out the window by some members of all the factions. Some township employees, who really have no connection with government and policy making, other than as "carry-outers" of this particular code have made all sorts of rash statements. These statements, incidentally, have been parroted about as though they had come from top authority. One particular example I can think of is a statement by a man in a position "not to know" that "your children will have to walk to school if this annexation goes through."

EXPLAINING SWITCH PROVES DIFFICULT: When Fornof switched to annexation as the lesser of the two evils facing the township, he got himself in a potful of trouble. In a letter to constituents this week Fornof pointed out that he was for the retention of township government, but that it had become apparent to him that the option of remaining a township no longer existed, he had thrown his support to annexation. He states he does not believe that incorporation of the whole township as a village could bring anything other than lawlessness and a "gold mine" for those who play footsies with the law.

A large segment of the township would still prefer to have organized, orderly piecemeal annexation of localities that are ready or "ripe" for annexation. That choice, too, apparently has vanished.

Cutting a pie is a lot easier than cutting up communities, one observer who was for slow and methodical annexation summed it up sadly.

BIGGEST BOON to the annexation people, of course, is the action of certain industries in coming out and saying that they were for joining the city. A critic termed their action "fearless."

The hodge-podge of tract petitions, voting for incorporation, and Nov. 2 balloting on annexation guarantees, almost, a long drawn out court battle no matter which side comes to the fore on Nov. 2.

SOUTH GRADS SOUGHT

A search is on for members of the January 1940 graduating class of South High School. Plans are being made for a reunion of the group in the spring of 1955, and organizers of the reunion are attempting to establish contact with members of the class.

Graduates of the mid-year 1940 group are asked to contact Marilou Brush at FE. 5470, after 5:30 p. m. Relatives of members of the class, who can give present-day whereabouts of the member, are also urged to contact Mrs. Brush.

S. Side Council Endorses Issues On Nov. 2 Ballot

The Council of South Side organizations at its monthly meeting unanimously endorsed the bond issues which will be put before the voters on Nov. 2.

Attorney Robert Albright, representing the Metropolitan Citizens Committee, presented the bond issues to the council last Thursday night and explained why they are needed. Appearing on the ballot, Nos. 3-10 are: a bond issue for completion of Veterans Memorial; a bond issue for expressway engineering; a .65 mill levy for renewal of the operation of tuberculosis hospitals; a .5 mill levy for child welfare; a bond issue for urban redevelopment; a bond issue for needed recreational improvements; a bond issue for grade crossings; and a one-mill levy for the schools.

In other business at the meeting, council approved plans for the community Halloween party to be held for children 12 and under at Schiller Recreation Center, and for youngsters 13 and over at Barrett Junior High School. Both parties are scheduled to be held on Saturday, Oct. 30.

Louis Dimel, first vice-chairman of the organization, was appointed to serve on the Mayor's Scioto River Improvement Committee.

The council voted to sponsor a community-wide paint-up, clean-up campaign on the South Side next spring. The South Side has always taken pride in community appearance and this campaign will help to increase the pride of our citizens.

The Council of South Side Organizations is composed of representatives of civic and fraternal orgamzations, and meets on the second Thursday of each month at the South Side Branch of the YMCA.

Verhovay Athletic Club Will Sponsor Fish Fry

The Verhovay Athletic Club will hold its annual fish fry Friday, Oct. 22, at the Verhovay Home, 1501 Parsons-av. President Charles Stimpfle announces serving of the best pickerel in town. Fish is ordered directly from Sandusky, O., on Lake Erie and is never more than 48 hours out of water.

Men and women bowlers of the club will serve at the fish fry. Serving time will be between 5 and 11 p. m. A $1 donation fee will be charged. The general public is invited.

"For Whom The Bell Tolls"

By Tom Shirp

It seems that inadvertently I skipped one of our oldest advertisers last week: In writing about the corner of Jaeger and Thurman I missed Hancock Cleaners. This fine organization is located next to Laff's Coffee Shop and is operated by John Hancock and his wife. They strive to meet the needs of their customers with the best of service in the Dry Cleaning field.

Pick up and delivery service is one of the many fine features of this enterprising establishment. If your clothes need cleaning, the place to call is Hancock Cleaners. Home owned, home operated, service with a smile, and clean clothes are what you get when you send your clothes there.

A new member of the advertising group is featured in a half page ad this week. John Lutsch, new owner of the Crystal Drug Store, is having his grand opening Saturday, Oct. 23. Twenty-three wonderful gifts are to be given away—one each half hour.

All you have to do is visit the store to receive a free chance. Roses will be given to women visitors, and cigars to the men. Favors are to be passed out to all kids accompanied by their parents. This should be quite an affair with wonderful savings being provided by John on many items in his store just so you can become acquainted with him and the many services in the drug field that he will provide. Don't forget to look elsewhere in this issue for his advertisement.

Three cheers for the six merchants who are cooperating in bringing the general public a Jubilee of Christmas savings and offering prizes just for "doing what comes naturally", namely shopping on the South Side. Yes, all you have to do is shop here at home.

Check further in this issue for all the details and when you shop at one of these six stores don't forget to ask for your free chance on these wonderful prizes.

I think that something now should be added to the old familiar slogan, "Live on the South Side, Shop on the South Side." My suggestion is, "Read the South Side Leader for news of both your neighbors and yourself and also many bargains provided by the advertisers. Don't forget when you shop in the South Side to tell the merchants that you saw their ad in the Leader.

That reminds them to place another ad and maybe bring to you another great bargain. It is a wonderful circle. Let's keep it rolling!

Crystal Drug Store To Hold Grand Opening On Saturday

John K. Lutsch, new owner of the Crystal Drug store, located at 1833 Parsons-av, has announced this week that the store's official grand opening will be held Saturday, Oct. 23.

Roses will be given to every lady attending this affair and cigars will be given to the men with favors for each and every child attending with his parents.

Twenty-three gifts in all will be given away, one each half hour and you need not spend a penny, just drop in and receive a free chance. Seven musical lamps and 16 beautiful manicure sets are among the items to be given away.

Many items of interest to the buying public are being offered as specials for this occasion as shown elsewhere in this issue.

John, with his wife, Margaret, and daughter, Ann now reside at 3465 Fisher-rd. John is a graduate of the pharmaceutical school of Ohio State University and was graduated from Salem High School in Salem, O.

I. E. Arnold of 143 Dana-av is still associated with the drug store in the capacity of pharmacist. John is also a registered pharmacist and has stated "There will be a registered pharmacist on duty at all times to meet any prescription needs that might occur." Also in

Christmas Jubilee Gets Under Way; Merchants Provide Bargains Galore

This week is the first week of big values provided especially for you in the gigantic promotional affair being staged by six cooperating South Side merchants. These merchants are joined together in this event to show everyone that the best place to shop is close to home.

Riding on the theme of "The place to shop is Parsons Avenue—Your South Side Shopping Center," these merchants will bring you special values from now 'til Christmas. Plus all of these advertised values, the merchants have joined hands to provide special bonus prizes for those who shop with them. All you have to do is shop with these merchants and with every purchase you will receive a free ticket to be placed in a container in the store of your choice.

The week before Christmas, "Santa Claus" will make a drawing each night for six nights. Each one of these nights the drawing will be held in one of the participating stores. Eleven prizes will be given away each drawing.

Participating merchants are Hoermele's, Schottenstein's, Leeds Credit Jewelers, Foreign Foodtown Grocery, R&S Dime Store, and the B. F. Goodrich Store. The prizes include a 21-inch Motorola TV, deluxe bicycle, electric rotisserre, Poloroid camera, Sunbeam Mixmaster, Westinghouse roaster oven and cabinet, 30 baskets of groceries and 30 turkeys. Each night one of the grand prizes will be given away, plus five turkeys and five baskets of groceries.

You may enter from as many stores as you like and each ticket you put in the container actually gives you 6s chances of winning. Don't delay; shop today with the merchants who are cooperating in this huge Christmas Jubilee. Look elsewhere in this issue for the advertised specials of this week.

JACKPOT GROWS LARGER

Your Alertness Can Bring You A $29 Prize In The 'Confederate' Contest

The Leader's jackpot begins to take on a princely aspect once again as this week's pay-off rises to the amount of $29.

Could you use $29 worth of merchandise? With Christmas on the way it's a sure bet that you could. The jackpot can be yours if you follow the easy rules given in the box at right.

The first step, of course, is to thoroughly read the advertisements in your copy of The South Side Leader, keeping in mind that you are looking for either of the two insignia shown here.

In return for the $5 insignia you will receive the full amount of the jackpot prize. If you should discover one of the five $1 insignia circulated each week, you are entitled to $1 in merchandise from any of the business establishments advertising in the copy of the Leader in which you found your insignia.

The many winners have discovered just how easy this contest is. The insignia are printed very plainly on the ads just as you see them here. There are no optical illusions or gimmicks to contend with. If you happen to receive one of the lucky copies this week and will invest a few minutes in checking to see if it contains the insignia, you may wind up $29 richer. Why not try it right now and see?

Here's What To Look For

Second Incorporation Plan Pending In Township

Press time found a second attempt of two of Marion Township's three trustees to gain a township incorporation vote still pending. The attempt this time on Tuesday night, was for balloting on the issue in connection with the Nov. 2 general election.

Their first attempt ended in failure Tuesday morning when Common Pleas Court Judge William C. Bryant issued a temporary injunction against a special election on Oct. 26.

As opponents of the move to incorporate the township as the Village of Marion Park were successful, they anticipated the Nov 2 vote call and said they would fight it also.

New resolutions drafted in advance of their night meeting were submitted to the trustees by Robert P. Barnhart, attorney for Jack J. Schoonover, 2001 Studer-av, agent for 50 petitioners for incorporation. Barnhart is a law partner of Howard F. Wehr, who represented the petitioners a week ago before the trustees.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club met on Tuesday, Oct. 12. Dick Barras was elected president; Carole Hunter, vice-president; Joyce Crary, secretary; Sara McAllister, treasurer; and Rosalie Passen, sergeant-at-arms. C. G. Howard is the adviser.

OMISSION REPORTED

Sunday, Oct. 17, at Camp Darby the South Side Eagles, Aerie 2244, staged their annual dinner for the 100 per cent South Side Eagles Christmas Charity Fund. Notice of this affair was not carried in last week's issue of the Leader. It is hoped that the people who missed this affair understand that it was by no means the fault of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber who handled this dinner. Mr. Weber was chairman of the affair and has worked hard and diligently to make this year's charity fund a huge

Tumbling Real Art At Schiller

The tumbling classes at Schiller Recreation Center have been filled to capacity with eager-to-learn young folks. Many children have passed not only the first test for skill, which is the Clown Series, but have gone several tests beyond this point.

Among children who have recently passed the Clown Tests are Mary Ebright, Barbara Kimberly, Jackie Miller, Roy Constable, Norma Ward, Paulette Fix, Linda Grinstead, Sharon Weir, Ray Speakman, Pattie Murdock, Michael Hause, Peggy Dupler, Martha Branson, Jackie McKibben, and Carolyn Heil.

The Elephant Series of skill tests is next in difficulty. Tumblers who have passed this test are Bonnie Husse, Dorothea Ruoff, Lynn Myers, Karen Schmitt, Jack Holstein, Mary Dempsey, Skip Mann, Eva Ward, Kathleen Curran, Mary Ann Yetter, Linda Hoffman, Barbara Kimberly, Linda Grinstead, Jackie Miller, Paulette Fix, Ray Speakman, and Jerry Stainer.

Fewer children have passed the Panther Series of skill tests because it is even more difficult. But the children who have mastered this skill test are Bonnie Husse, Barbara Kimberly, Eva Ward, Dorothea Ruoff, Lynne Myers, Mary Dempsey, Mary Ann Yetter, Jack Holstein and Karen Schmitt.

The Monkey Series is next to the last in difficuty. The tumblers who have hurdled its obstacles are Dorothea Ruoff, Mary Ann Yetter, Lynne Myers, Bonnie Husse, and Eva Ward

The full-fledged tumbler must pass a more stringent test. Four girls who have become top tumblers are Bonnie Husse, Lynne Myers, Mary Ann Yetter and Dorthea Ruoff. We congratulate these girls in their fine achievement.

Once the young folks have passed the Tumbler Test, they become members of the Tumbling Club of Schiller Recreation Center. This club works on the more difficult forms of tumbling, such as hand balancing. A fine example of their work will be shown in the talent show to be given at Schiller at Family Night, Oct. 29. If you are interested in their work come to see them

M-F High School Receives Its New 6-Year Charter

Marion-Franklin High School last Thursday received from the Ohio Department of Education a new first grade charter as a six year school. Graduates of this institution will be on a par with those of any other high school in the state, and will be admitted to colleges and universities on the same basis as graduates of any other chartered high school

Last year, 1953-54, Marion-Franklin held a second-grade charter. This was not because of any curriculum deficiency, but only because of the fact that no seniors were enrolled. Seniors were permitted to graduate from schools they had attended prior to the opening of Marion-Franklin.

This year, there is a senior class and the school has been given its first grade charter.

Teachers at Marion-Franklin are now busily engaged in the many extra duties necessary to maintain membership in the North Central Association of secondary schools and colleges. This is the body accrediting agency in the Mar and it is anticipated that Ma Franklin will gain membership year. Only 74 per cent of the h schools under county supervision are members of the association.

Rain, Mud, And Cowboys Team Up To Make Misery For Bulldogs

By Jerry Dover

Between the rain, mud and the West High Cowboys, South Bulldogs had a pretty rough time Friday night for their homecoming.

West drew blood in the first quarter of the game when Dave Ballinger went back to punt in the end zone. On a bad pass from center the slippery ball got away from Ballinger but he recovered it only to have Dick Berlo knock him out of the end zone for a safety and two points

South seemed to be heading for a score when Peyton Black made a run of 65 yards near the end of the second quarter, but time ran out and West led at the half by 2 to 0

South came back in the third quarter to take over the lead when one of the Cowboys fumbled and South took over on the West 33-yard line. It took eight plays on the muddy turf before Bobby Hart hit Sammy Pointer from four yards out on a pass and the score. The extra point attempt by Dick Shirley was off to the right.

West's final score was set up when the South defenses held West inside the 10-yard line. South took over but fumbled on its own one foot line. After two unsuccessful tries at the South forward wall, Bob Conley crashed over tackle for the final score. Ronnie Nebinger ran around end for the extra point, making the final score 9 to 6 in favor of West.

It was West's first city league win and second win in five starts. South is yet to win in five outings. The first downs were in favor of West, 8 to 6, and the Cowboys outgained the Bulldogs 146 to 122 yards.

Why Marion Township Should Vote FOR Annexation

Tuesday, November 2, is a red-letter day for every man, woman and child in Marion Township. What happens at the polls that day will determine the direction their lives are to take for all the years ahead. Every voter in that township should vote FOR annexation to Columbus. It makes good sense . . . for it makes for the best form of government at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer.

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA SCHOOL FACILITIES

The Columbus Board of Education has passed a resolution promising the following when Marion Township is annexed:

1. To operate its schools as they now are. The changeover will be gradual and orderly, not abrupt and confused.
2. To continue the services of teachers and administrators already employed.
3. To continue to provide free transportation on the same basis as present.

The Community Committee is on record in favor of the school bond issue and tax levy.

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA POLICE PROTECTION

Instead of five capable constables, Marion Township will enjoy the protection of the entire city police department, with its cruisers, emergency squads, detective bureau, crime laboratory and juvenile detention service.

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA FIRE PROTECTION

The City of Columbus has taken steps to contract for fire protection for Marion Township after annexation. And, if needed (especially in a disaster), Columbus fire equipment will answer calls in that area. This can be done only under annexation

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA HOME CONVENIENCES

Marion Township is assured of better sewerage and water facilities, thanks to a master plan now being worked on by nine townships and 10 municipalities in the Columbus metropolitan area. There will also be regular and improved garbage and refuse collection . . . FREE. More modern lighting and better-paved streets and sidewalks will be enjoyed.

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA TAX RATES

Present rate in Marion Township is $19.80 for each $1000 valuation This will jump to $28.51 in 1955 if the bond issue and tax levy are approved in November. In the next few years, according to township experts, this could go up to $32. Compare this with the current rate of $20 in Columbus . . . a rate which will advance to only $23.60 in 1955, if all issues before Columbus voters in November are approved. That's $5 less than the Marion Township rate . . . and the saving is even greater than if the township incorporated and were burdened with the responsibility of supplying its own municipal services.

A VOTE FOR ANNEXATION MEANS X-TRA VALUE FOR YOUR HOME

With its industries intact and offering all the advantages of being part of a progressive city like Columbus, the value of Marion Township homes and business buildings is bound to increase.

WHO IS BEHIND ANNEXATION?

We are a joint group of fellow citizens of Marion Township and representatives of its industries. We want for this area the best government, the best schools and the best possible public service. We pledge ourselves to see that this section gets them as soon as we join Columbus and start to enjoy a glorious growth together.

Members of the Marion-Franklin Jr. Hi-Y Club held their first outing of the school year at the South Side Y-Park Tuesday, October 19. Arriving at the park after school, the boys enjoyed a program of hiking and fellowship followed by a wiener roast.

The club has a business meeting at the school twice each month under the leadership of George Maines, faculty advisor. Membership is open to seventh and eighth grade boys who will accept the club purpose, "To strengthen our bodies, develop our minds, worship God, and work together for a finer community and a better world" and agree to cooperate with other members in carrying it out.

During the coming year the Marion-Franklin Jr. Hi Y's program will include service projects for the school and community, camping and other outdoor activity and athletic activities. Officers will be elected at the next club meeting.

The Jr. Hi-Y is sponsored by the South Side YMCA in cooperation with Marion-Franklin High School.

Law of the Lord

I
Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water that is under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God.

III
Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

IV
Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V
Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI
Thou shalt not kill.

VII
Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII
Thou shalt not steal.

IX
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X
Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

The Gadabout

Ah, lots of items today, hurray. In fact, there's so much we don't know where to start! The top slip of paper contains a note telling us that Warren England was in town over the week-end, visiting his parents who live at 1589 Championay, and that he took his dad to the thrilling Ohio State-Iowa game. A good game to go to, from all accounts.

Little Stevie Storts had an Oct. 13 birthday, so belated wishes to the little feller. His mom, Sarah, has been working like a beaver on the candy sale that Trudeau Guild 25 has been having. Doggone good candy, may we add, and if you like good chocolates, give Sarah a ring. She'll see that you get some. (The Gadabout got a big chuckle the night that the candy was boxed for sale. It was done at the home of Frances Rumsey and the youngest Rumsey, Sharon, brought forth a clipping that told of her birthday last January. Sharon solemnly announced that she was preserving it between pieces of cotton! We've heard everything now!)

Two neighbor women of Forest-st really take the word "neighbor" quite seriously, for they elected to have their youngsters in the same hospital at the same time. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ward, 511 Forest-st, became the parents of a girl on Oct. 13 and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hedrick, 480 Forest-st, also upped the "papalation" with a daughter on Oct. 15. The blessed events took place in Doctor's Hospital.

Maxine Crary will have to go to school to be in the swing of things in her Deshler-ay home. Not only are the three children in school, but husband, "Doc" is enrolled at night school. To quote Maxine, "books are scattered everywhere." You'll just have to go to school too, Maxine.

Um yum, we know that autumn is really here, when the churches start having their turkey dinners. By courtesy of Uncle Sam, we received a note from Mrs. Kinser that the South Church of Christ plans to have its annual turkey dinner on Oct. 27 (next Wednesday), from 11:30 on, and from 5 to 7:30 p.m. The church is located at Woodrow and Bruck. Try to make it, won't you? We're going to make an effort to be there, we know.

Two South Side ladies are looking forward to an enjoyable winter, for they plan to spend it in the warm California climate. They are Mrs. Mary Suttner and Mrs. Anna Schmitter. Winter headquarters for the two will be Pasadena, Calif., and they plan a side trip to Mexico, along the way.

Ah but we're the sneaky one! Folks call us on other matters, and we jot down the news they give us unknowingly. Such was the case when Margie Dunham called us last week. We discovered her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Dunham, had a recent birthday, so congrats and all that, young Mrs. D. The other item was much more somber, for Margie recently lost her mother. Our deepest sympathy, Margie.

Some birthdays past, present and future, warrant our attention at this time. Ina Warner had an Oct. 11 natal day. Charles and Jimmy Branscome are real brotherly and celebrate birthdays within a two week span. Charles was an older "teen" on Sept. 30, and Jimmy dittoed on Oct. 14. The cousins of the Branscome boys think this time of year is pretty nice for celebrating too, as their natal month is October. The young ladies are Colleen and Claudia Dunigan, 735 Reinhard. Colleen will be eight years old on Oct. 22, and Claudia will be six years old on Oct. 26. We were sorry to hear that Helen Branscome has been on the ailing list and hope that this coly-um finds her feeling in fine fettle. (What is a "fettle" anyhoo? Guess I could look it up in Mr. Webster's best-seller.)

Got your tickets yet for the fish fry to be held tomorrow night at the Verhovay Club on Parsons? They always have delicious fish, and that's personal experience speaking.

White Cross Hospital will be the place to find Gene Tope for a few days, as he's scheduled for surgery.

Ralph and Blanche Becker found their Columbus stay all too short, for it was impossible to visit all their many friends and relatives while they were here. They'll need a week or so to recuperate now that they're back in Pennsylvania. (We Keystoners call it "Pennsylturky.")

Tomorrow night brings the first PTA function of the year at Barrett Junior High School. Betcha there will be lots of moms and dads there, to meet the new principal and teachers and to view the auditorium et al. (Hooray, no more panting on that third flight of steps to attend meetings.) If your child is a student at Barrett, or if you'd like to see the remodelling, consider yourself cordially invited to attend the open house.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bronson, former South Siders, have another little boy in the family circle now. Their address is 2925 Sixth-av. This makes their preacher grandpa quite happy, naturally.

The ailing list currently has as occupants, Mrs. Robert DeBell and Vernon Vanscoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berecz, 480 E. Woodrow-av, believe in telescoping the birthday list into three short days. Isn't this unusual: Four children, birthdays from Oct. 19 to 21! Here are the vital statistics: Joseph Berecz will be 16 on Oct. 19. Patricia will be 14 on Oct. 20, and the twins, Robert and Roberta, will be seven on Oct. 21.

Once again, Mrs. Frank Butsko asks that her neighbors on Oakwood-av be thanked for their generous support on the United Appeals drive. These nice neighbors are in the Oakwood section that extends from Thurman to Frebis-av.

Oakwood-av is a part of this next item too, for it is the home street of Paul Kazee, Sr., and one of his nice neighbors wanted to remember his Oct. 23 birth date in this manner. Paul's mailing address is 1141 Oakwood.

A pretty young matron had an Oct. 16 "howdy do" with Father Time, so belated greetings to Marian Schroeder of S. Third-st. Here's another item from Oakwood Avenue. Mothers' Club of Bethel Five meets tonight in the home of Mrs. William Seofield, 1359 Oakwood-av, at 8 p.m.

Grandpa Rumsey isn't thrilled MUCH! He's passing out cigars in Columbus here, and his grandson is in Hopewell, Va.! The event that made grandparents out of the Frebis-av Rumseys took place on Oct. 13 and the infant weighed in at seven pounds, seven ounces. His mom and dad are John and Mary Rose Alexander. For anyone wanting to send congratulations, the address is 200 Webster Circle, Va.

We hear tell that Cinemascope at the Markham is real fine, so we're going to put that on our "wanna do" list.

Wonder if the hostess at Trudeau Ten has regained her fair complexion yet? While all the members were gabbing, her teen-age son comes downstairs, carrying dirty sheets and pillow cases. A few minutes later, he traipses back up with clean ones, leaving a crimson-faced mom sitting helpless in the chair! We were laughing with her and not at her, believe me, for we've all got teen-agers who devise ways to get us on the well known spot! It's part of the education in having adolescents around the house!

Guess we've marked all our items, so till next week, keep the phone ringing, it helps tremendously. This has been—

Hello:

We have many inquiries about how to water house plants. According to good authority, the amount of watering required depends upon the kind of plant and the size of the pot. Of course those in small pots dry out quicker than in large pots. One easy way to find out if a plant needs water is to rap the sides of the pot with a knife. If the ring is loud and hollow, it's thirsty; but if the sound is heavy and dull, don't water. Or look at the soil — if it is dry or lighter in color, water. The plant should be watered thoroughly, preferably from the top, with water about room temperature, but not left standing in excess liquid.

Our "Get Well Quick" list is long this week. Best wishes to Mrs. L. Deamer, Mrs. Williard Lutz, John Alexander, Charles Kessler, Mrs. Frank Renner, Mrs. Clebert Ramsey, Mrs. Merrel C. Moore, William Curran, Mrs. Mary Daum, Mrs. Bertha Evans, Mrs. Delores Adkins, Jean Harrington, Mrs. Raymond Upperman, Charles Csatlos, and Mr. John McGath.

Anniversary greetings to the Hillyers on their 38th, and to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis J. Scott. Birthday greetings to Mrs. Lucy Baugh and to little Pamela Kay Ellis whose birthdays were this month.

We have a "Pay and Tote" bargain for you this week — a bouquet of lovely, freshly cut pompon mums for just $1.00.

CITY GROWS CIRCLEVILLE A YEAR

Columbus' Jump Of 104,000 In 14-Year Period Makes One Mill Levy A Must

Do you remember Columbus before a Canton sprang up within our city limits?

If you do, you remember the Columbus of 1940.

It's been within the brief space of the last 14 years that this city has boomed from a population of 306,000 to an estimated 410,000.

The increase in population, 104,000, is almost equivalent to the population of Canton, as recorded in the 1950 census.

Thus, since 1940, a Canton actually has mushroomed within the corporation limits of Columbus. Furthermore, figures show that Columbus has been growing at a rate of 8,500 each year since 1950. This means that a Circleville is being added to our city annually.

This tremendous growth has vitalized the life of Columbus, bringing greater wealth, increased importance, and continuing progress to our community. But it has also brought increased responsibilities and perplexing problems to the people of Columbus and to their schools.

To help meet the problems threatening the quality of education offered in the Columbus public schools, the Columbus Board of Education is submitting a one-mill levy at the Nov. 2 election.

Funds raised by the additional levy would enable the Columbus school system to meet bigger bills growing out of bigger enrollments and to make a much needed adjustment in teacher salaries.

According to school officials, mounting enrollments and Columbus' low salary schedule for teachers are certain to have a detrimental effect on the program of instruction offered in Columbus classrooms in the future unless more revenue is made available to expand the services of the schools as needed.

"We've been able to maintain high standards in our schools because the public has given excellent support to our proposals during the past few years," Superintendent N. G. Fawcett commented.

"But as Columbus continues to grow, our enrollments continue to increase," he added, "and we must have more classrooms and teachers and must purchase more maintenance and instructional supplies in order to educate our boys and girls properly. Naturally, you can't expand educational services without spending more money."

Fawcett said the money needed would have to come from increased millage because "the tax duplicate in Columbus has not gone up as rapidly as enrollments."

Without the revenue a one-mill levy would provide, the superintendent warned that the schools would have to resort to severe overcrowding of classrooms and would be unable to purchase sufficient instructional and maintenance supplies.

Fawcett and the board are convinced that our low salary schedule is a major reason why Columbus is experiencing difficulty in attracting and holding good teachers. The superintendent commented:

Fawcett said that passage of the one-mill levy would enable the board to bring the Columbus teacher salary schedule in 1955 up to the average of the 1954 salary schedules in effect in Ohio's seven largest cities.

"This is a reasonable request and it would enable us to compete more effectively for the services of good teachers," he explained.

South Side Settlement Club Activities Reach 'Buzzing' Level As Week Starts

With the United Appeals Drive nearing its close, Halloween just around the corner, United Nations Week being emphasized, plus regular club activities, South Side Settlement is really buzzing!

There will be Halloween parties in each of the afternoon club groups. These will be planned and enjoyed by the club members. Oct. 26 will bring an evening of fun and square dancing for some of the Teen-age groups, and Saturday, Oct. 30, will be the date of a Halloween dance in the gym. All of these activities are for members of South Side Settlement.

Are you a member? Have you filled out a registration card? Have you paid your quarter? These are questions being asked this week as the annual membership drive is in progress. At the beginning of the week total registration was 319 with 181 having paid their 25 cent registration fee. This means that 319 young folks are coming to South Side Settlement for clubs and recreation, from the community.

Sunday, Oct. 24, is United Nations Day. There are varying opinions about the United Nations and much lack of real understanding of its work. Settlement officials agree with President Eisenhower in that "The United Nations represents man's best organized hope to substitute the conference table for the battlefield."

The Mothers' Breakfast Club will meet Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 9:30 a. m. All interested women are invited to attend. Mrs. Alberta Morris, executive director of Planned Parenthood, will speak on "Responsible Parenthood" at 10 a. m. Members should come at 9:30 to have coffee and rolls. This is a good place to share ideas and make new friends.

Estella Bryant Dies Of Traffic Injuries

The funeral service for Miss Estella Bryant, 73, of 62 Hoffman-av, was held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Speck Funeral Home, New Concord. Miss Bryant was Columbus' 26th traffic victim this year.

She suffered a fractured pelvis when struck Sept. 22 by an auto as she crossed at Parsons-av and Oak-st. She died Friday in Grant Hospital. Dr. Robert A. Evans, coroner, said autopsy results revealed Miss Bryant died of a blood clot caused by the accident. The clot entered her lungs.

Her physician said Miss Bryant was recuperating satisfactorily and was to have been released from the hospital Saturday.

Driver of the car was Charles Walters, Jr., 26, of 1481 Madison-av.

HI-Y DANCE PLANNED
By Larry Myer

The annual Hi-Y-Phile square dance will be held Nov. 6, at 7:30 p. m. at Y-Park. Jim Wagner will be the caller for the dance.

The Hi-Y will have the annual apple, penny and potato day early in November. This is an annual money-raising event for the purpose of buying shoes for needy children.

Halloween Masquerade Square Dance At Y-Park On Saturday

The Optimist Lodge of the South Side Branch YMCA Park will be the setting of the South Side YMCA Young People's Inter-Church Council Halloween and Square Dance Party to be held Saturday, Oct. 22, from 7:30 until 11 p. m.

If you are superstitious, believe in ghosts or are easily scared by hideous black cats, witches, goblins, skeletons and jack-o-lanterns you had better not plan to be present, because all will enliven the party. There will be prizes and everyone is to come masqueraded.

Judging of costumes will be held from 7:30 to 8:15 p. m., with square dancing from 8:30 to 11 p. m. The ever-popular Y-Park Combo will play for the dancing and Jim Wagner from the Y-Staff will echo the "Ghost" calls.

For those who get hungry, there will be cider and doughnuts.

The masquerade party is open to all. Participants should make reservations with local church Youth Fellowships or contact the South Side Branch YMCA, HI. 4-2151.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION ENDORSES SCHOOL TAX LEVY

Members of the South Side YMCA Ministerial Association in a recent meeting voted unanimously to endorse the passage of the one-mill school levy in order to keep the Columbus public schools matching strides in providing an education for the children of our fast growing city.

The Columbus and USA of tomorrow are under construction in our classrooms today. With additional pupils reporting in our classrooms and the community assuming the responsibility of their education, more teachers, more classrooms, more instructional supplies, more maintenance help, more maintenance supplies and more educational services are needed to maintain a solid program.

HAMILTON HIGH NOTES

Hamilton High Band Has 68 Members For Record Strength

Hamilton Township High School Band Director Seelenbinder has a considerably larger band this year, with the 1954 version boasting 68 students while last year's band was composed of only about 38 members. The band came in first place in a contest Aug. 31 at the Hilliards Fair, in which nine other bands were competing. The Westerville High School Band and Marion-Franklin Band visited Hamilton Township to perform during halftime of the football game on Fridays, Sept. 25 and Oct. 8, respectively. The Hamilton Band visited Canal Winchester on Friday, Sept. 7, Groveport, Oct. 15, and Dublin, Nov. 12. The band has enjoyed having these people as their guests and has enjoyed their visits to the other schools. The band played at the Pumpkin Show at Circleville, Oct. 20, and will play for the dedication of the new elementary school on Sunday, Oct. 24.

CHEER LEADERS TRAVEL

Saturday, Oct. 9, the varsity and reserve cheerleaders of Hamilton Township High School went to Tippecanoe High School for a cheerleading clinic, in Tipp City, O. These girls were Karleen Wikoff, Verla Haynes, Mary Griffith and JoAnn Dennis as varsity and Beverly Roof, Virginia Obetz, Rosie Mills and Margaret Grabiel as reserve. It started at approximately 2 in the afternoon. An alumnus from Michigan State conducted the entire meeting. After he had shown some cheerleading techniques, the contest started. There were 32 schools participating and each school did one cheer in front of the entire group. There were five judges arranged in a circle and each group did its school cheer in the center of the circle. The winning group came from Middletown.

Every team learned a lot from each of the others in the practice period given to them after the contest. All the delegates attended a dinner at which trophies were awarded. Tipp City then gave a skit on how to have fun on a trampoline. Mrs. Belcher and Mr. Baughman were chaperones.

PEP MEETING

Hamilton Township School's pep meetings are held in the auditorium every Friday that Hamilton plays football on its home field. The meetings usually start with a number from the band or singing the school song. Cheer leaders lead these meetings and direct about eight cheers in all. One or two boys on the football team are selected each time to say a few words about the game. Each one of the coaches has a few words to say too. Mr. Comer ends the meeting with a rousing pep talk. These pep meetings give enthusiasm to the student body and show the team how much they want them to win.

One of the varsity cheerleaders, Mary Lee Griffith, was asked for an interview. This is Mary's first year of cheering although she said she had always wanted to be a cheer leader. Mary has attended Hamilton since the seventh grade and is now a senior. She said that her cheering practice would average 15 hours a week besides a game a week.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club was organized this fall under the supervision of Mr. Baughman. The club will hold election of officers next week and plans an initiation ceremony, which will be a "formal" meeting. A portion of the meeting will be in Latin. Each person must learn certain passwords such as Latin mottoes of states or colleges. The club also will choose pins to be worn by members of the Latin Club. The club is considering a project of buying a film or film strips relating to Roman life.

GAA CANDY APPLES

The GAA of Hamilton Township High School was very active Oct. 3-10. On Tuesday evening, Oct. 5, the girls made candy apples at two different houses. One house was Beverly Roof's and the other was Mary Young's.

The GAA made four bushels of candy apples, with all ingredients donated so money taken in was profit. At 15 cents an apple, they cleared $26.

MOVIE INDUSTRY HERE

Shooting began this week on a movie made of all the classes of Hamilton Township High School. There will be four reels or 400 feet of film used in the process. The grade schools of this district will also be filmed.

Purpose of this film is to record the activities in the classrooms and acquaint parents with the various class activities in which their children are engaged. It is also expected to be a large help for the coming bond levy.

The film will be paid for by the school's general fund. Although it is doubted that stars are born we believe this will be quite an experience for all concerned.

EXCHANGE ASSEMBLIES

On Oct. 7, Marion-Franklin and Hamilton Township exchanged assembly programs. On Thursday morning Marion Franklin's superintendent, Mr. Boles, the principal, Mr. Manning, Football Captain Russ Chandler and the student council vice-president came to Hamilton Township. They also brought their coach and three cheerleaders.

The program started with a speech from each superintendent and each principal. Other representatives from Marion-Franklin and Hamilton also spoke. The seven cheerleaders then conducted a short pep meeting.

Thursday afternoon the same program was followed at Marion-Franklin with Hamilton representatives going there. They were as follows: Mr. Straubaugh, superintendent; Mr. Comer, principal; Bill Bond, senior class president; and cheerleaders Karleen Wikoff, Verla Haynes, Mary Griffith and Jo Ann Dennis.

These assemblies were held because of the big football game. It was a new cordial gesture to stress sportsmanship and friendly rivalry. Both were very successful and appreciated by everyone who attended.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

JoAnn Dennis is Hamilton Township High School football homecoming queen and will reign at the game between Hamilton and Mifflin tomorrow. The other attendants are Alene Wilburn from the senior class, as her maid of honor; Carol Harden and Eleanor Deible, junior attendants; Beverly Roof, sophomore attendant; and Ester Derby, freshman attendant.

The queen and her court would like to invite everyone to come to the homecoming game and stay for the dance immediately following.

BOOSTERS BUY CAMERA

The Boosters of Hamilton Township bought for the school a 16-mm. Bell and Howell movie camera with a telescopic lens. The seniors of 1953 added a wide angle lens. They have taken pictures of the football games and the band at halftime as well as classrooms at work and the dedication of the new elementary school. The films will be shown at the Booster Club meetings. Boosters are paying for the camera by donations at the football games.

MAKE GOOD ON VARSITY

Dayle Roof, who played right-half, broke a leg in the Westerville game on Sept. 24. Charlie Juliano is replacing Roof on offense and is doing a bang-up job.

Another sophomore player is Eddie Tucker, who has quarterbacked the team this year. Eddie is a brain. He knows what to do and when to do it. He needs only more experience to turn out to be a great ball player.

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class held a class meeting on Oct. 5, at which they decided on two ways to start making money for the junior-senior prom. They will have a sales-tax stamp drive and a magazine sale. The latter is already under way.

Also brought up at this meeting was selection of the junior class play. They decided on "Arizona Dude Ranch" by Richard Hill Wilkinson. Last week was also the week for the juniors to order their class rings. They expect to receive them in December.

Mayor To Speak

Mayor Sensenbrenner will speak on "What Music Can Do For a Community" immediately after the musical portion of a public open house program Sunday, Oct. 24, at the Franklin School of Music. Hours for the open house will be from 2 to 6 p.m., according to Arthur Withrow, director of the school at 2760½ W. Broad-st.

Rev. Frank C. Coleman, pastor of Central Baptist Church, will open the program, which begins at 2:30, by giving the invocation. Students and teachers of the school appearing on the program will include Mrs Mary Price, soprano; Julianne Billingsley, contralto; Karen Reeves, 10-year-old girl, who has sung on Sally Flowers' "Meetin' Time at Moore's"; Johnnie Reinhard, 10-year-old boy soprano; Thomas Frank, baritone; Stanley Hettinger, clarinet; and Miss Carole Bussey, piano; Don Riser, accordion.

The remainder of the afternoon will be given to interviewing guests.

Schiller Presents Family Night Program For The Public On Oct. 29

"Family Night" at Schiller Recreation Center has been designed with Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public and family in mind, and will be held Oct. 29. This night is awaited and welcomed by many south end families; so why not you put it on your calendar as a highlight for your family, Schiller officials suggest.

Family Night at Schiller will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will include movies, a talent show, games for everyone, and free refreshments. The movies will be a series of short comics, enjoyable for parents and children. Games have come directly from the recent National Recreation Association convention. Two Schiller staffers, LeRoy Wise and Rita McNally, have returned from this convention with fun-filled games for adults and children. The talent show is made up of Schiller talent entirely. A group from the Tumblers' Club, to give a brief tumbling act, include Dorothea Ruoff, Bonnie Husse, Karen Schmitt, Lynne Myers, and Barbara Kimberly. Lennie Fauver, who is assistant advisor to the club, will be on hand to assist the act. A violin solo, by Erica Reinke will provide a musical treat and a girls' vocal quartet is composed of the following girls: Phyllis Schoenholtz, Paulette Schoenholtz, Bonnie Wood, and Hazel Erb

Capping the program will be refreshments.

The Columbus Folk Dancers is a club devoted to folk dancing. It has been meeting weekly at Schiller Park for more than a year. For more information call the Schiller Park Recreation Center, HI. 4-7262.

Despite Annexation Viewpoints, Boles Asks For Support Of Schools On Nov. 2

School authorities this week attempted to clarify the two issues on which voters of Marion Local District will be asked to vote on Nov. 2. These issues seem to have taken a role secondary to other questions now raging in the township, Supt. Harold W. Boles declared.

THE BOND ISSUE—Voters are asked to approve a $970,000 bond issue to be used for an eight-room Heimandale School on Koebel-av, $260,000; 20-room George C. Beery Junior High School on Lockbourne-av, $600,000; Marion-Franklin shop addition, $50,000, and improvements to existing schools, $60,000.

The Heimandale school will be planned for use by September 1955, as will the Marion-Franklin shop addition. The junior high school is planned for completion by September 1956. All are urgently needed, school officials declare and will be whether the area continues as township, village, or part of Columbus.

Columbus authorities are of the opinion that annexation proceedings would take several months and that bonds could be sold and contracts let before it is accomplished. Columbus would then be obligated to complete the program and to assume the bonded indebtedness.

Bond issue proponents also point out that should the township annex and the bond issue not be approved, the only way the buildings could then be built would be through submission of a bond issue to the entire city.

If annexation is approved, tax rates for bond retirement would be equalized between Columbus and the township.

THE OPERATING LEVY—Also subject to approval is a 6.1 mill operating levy. The two-mill levy voted in 1949 has been reduced to 1.44 mill through reappraisal and it expires this year. Thus, 1.44 mills is a renewal levy and 4.66 mills is a new levy. It has been pointed out that the 1953-54 school enrollment was 38.1.3 per cent higher than enrollment in 1951-52 and this is the largest single facor in the increased cost of operation.

Several have asked what hap-

Bobb Chevrolet is a newcomer among the midst of happy advertisers this week. The firm is announcing the presentation of the brand new Chevrolet. Drop in and see this completely new automobile! It's a honey!

Walt's Drive In on Livingston-av is also a newcomer. Walt's is now under new management and this wonderful couple present many new ideas worth looking into. They plan features that will make your eating problems a real pleasure when you take them to Walt's Drive In.

John Lutsch was real surprised when he discovered just how many people must read the Leader. Busy, busy little bees were not the words for the people assisting at the grand opening of the Crystal Drug Store on Parsons-av Saturday. Many, many happy people came in and participated in this wonderful celebration.

John has stated that he sure appreciates the patronage that he received and he hopes that many of these people will come back again.

Buckeye Radio Lab is preparing quite an announcement and I am not allowed to spill the beans as yet, but watch next week's issue for something wonderful from Buckeye Radio Lab.

Betty Yoakum of 343 Sycamore-st, is opening her gift shop early this year to enable everyone to shop early and avoid the last-minute rush. Betty has on hand many, many new items of hand-made artistry, including various types of what-nots that would please anyone in the family for Christmas. Drop in and tell Betty that you saw her story in the paper.

Talk about new cars! Brother you ain't seen nothin' yet! That's what Les Redifer of Les Redifer, Inc., Parsons-av, says and he should know, for he is preparing to announce in the near future the showing of complete, brand new 1955 Plymouth. Watch for this announcement!

Wanda Tittle, a former South Side girl, has opened her completely new beauty shop on Livingston-av. Check this issue for the many specials offered by this newest of beauty parlors in this vicinity.

Some people say that the South End isn't growing. Have you checked the new businesses opening up in the South Side lately. Every day I hear of a new one. This is the only end of the town that really has a future. Miles and miles to go and nothing to stop you. Live on the South Side and Shop on the South Side. Your home, my home!

Smith Road Fifth Graders Present Original Drama

The date, Oct. 12, 1492, became more than just another date in history to memorize for fifth graders in Room 15 at Smith Road School. They relived that day through a puppet show they presented. Titled "Finding the New World," the three-act play was written and presented by the children under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Flossie L. Craddolph, and featured scenes in the throne room of Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand, on the ship, and on the landing at the New World.

The children made the puppets and the scenery as well as the stage on which it was performed. They plan to present it to other rooms in the building soon.

ARRIVES IN GERMANY

Pvt. William F. Polizzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Polizzi, 1841 S. Fourth-st, recently arrived in Germany for duty with the 1st Infantry Division.

Schiller Party Is For Kids 12 And Under; Barrett For Teens

Goblins, ghosts, and children will be hand-in-hand Saturday night at the annual Halloween parties held for South Side youngsters at Schiller Recreation Center at 7 p. m. and Barrett Junior High School, starting at 7:30 p. m.

The Council of South Side Organizations is again sponsoring these two parties, in cooperation with the Columbus recreation department, and Barrett Junior High PTA.

The party at Schiller Recreation Center, to start promptly at 7 p. m., is open to all boys and girls 12 years of age and under. All youngsters attending this party must be in some sort of a costume (it need not be an elaborate one) and parents are encouraged to accompany the younger tots.

The program will consist of (1) Costume judging, where prizes will be awarded to the boys and girls having the prettiest, funniest, and unique costumes; (2) ghost movies; (3) games; (4) puppet show; and (5) weirdest of all—"The Cadaver Castle."

Members of the Council of South Side organizations will be the hosts for the night and will serve free cider, doughnuts, and other treats to all youngsters who attend. A unique feature of the Schiller fun fest is that the children will be separated into three different age groups; 6 and under; 7, 8, and 9; 10, 11, and 12; so that the program can function more smoothly.

Schiller staff members will lead the activities in the program and the entire program is free of charge.

The party at Barrett Junior High School is open to all teen-agers in the southside and there is a 30-cent charge. The Southside YMCA is helping to make this party an enjoyable one through the square and round dancing which will be led by Jim Wagner. Music for the dancing will be by the Y Park Combo. In addition to the dancing there will be a costume judging contest with awards for the prettiest, funniest and unique costumes. The Barrett PTA will be on hand to chaperon and serve refreshments during the evening.

These Southside Halloween parties have always been well attended and enjoyed by local youngsters and have helped tremendously in decreasing destructive activities in the community.

Mohawk District Cub Scout Leaders Urged To Attend Central Council's Meet

All Cub Scout leaders in Central Ohio Council will gather Dec 5, at Ohio State School for the Blind, 5220 N. High-st, at 1 p. m. for the afternoon and early evening sessions including a Blue and Gold banquet. Reservations close No. 15.

If all packs in the Mohawk District have representatives in all sessions, you will have someone who is an expert in all fields of pack operation. Don't miss this golden opportunity for fun, fellowship, food and inspiration.

In the Mohawk District there are 15 packs which would mean that 90 cub leaders should represent this district. Registration should be made with either pack committee chairman or cubmasters. The registration fee is $1.50 per person.

Claytons Plan To Show New Trailer Homes

The newest models in nationally known trailer-home lines will be on public display when Clayton Trailer Sales, 3418 S. High-st, has its formal opening Friday, Oct. 29, through Sunday from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m.

Representatives of the trailer manufacturers will be present to discuss construction features.

Clayton Trailer Sales is a family affair. Len Clayton, who has been in the business 16 years, has not only sold trailers but has owned and built his own trailer parks, one of which is the largest and most modern in St. Petersburg, Fla. He builds parks in the pattern of a small city. Streets, lights, lawns, recreation clubs, self-government, parking space for the auto and storage space. He will soon open a five-acre park in West LaFayette, Ind.

Mrs. Clayton has just returned from various factories where she has designed interiors. She works from the premise that the trailer is a home and should have the appointments of a home. She designed the first picture window in trailer architecture and bedrooms offering twin bed arrangements.

Several trailers in the show this week-end will feature her personal design of interior, accenting increased wardrobe and storage space.

The Clayton's daughter, Pat, has charge of the interior appointments. Each trailer, upon arrival at the Clayton lot, is sent through the service department, then appointed with lamps, chairs, bedspreads and other furnishings, ready for occupancy by the prospective buyer.

Eugene Holton, sales manager, visits all factories several times a year to study changing trends in trailer designs.

Clayton's offers personally designed service. One customer recently ordered a masculine version with a knotty pine living room and gun racks. Another customer wanted a child's room with bunk beds with walls decorated with fairy tale motifs.

South Sadly Sacked Sixth Time As Terriers Roll Up 27-13 Win

By Jerry Dover

Sparked by the fine all around playing of Bob Tiberi, the Aquinas Terriers handed South their sixth straight loss of the year Friday night at South. Final score was 27-13.

Aquinas evened up its league record at two wins and two losses.

In the first quarter, Aquinas marched from its own 34-yard line, where Bob Tiberi went over for the score from the South nine-yard line. Aquinas made its second score in the second period on a sustained drive of 82 yards, climaxed by a smash from the one-yard line by Tony DeSabito. South got back into the game with three and a half minutes to go in the half when Phil Proctor went through the line on a crossbuck for 45 yards. Dick Shirey converted and at the half Aquinas led 14-7.

South started off the scoring early in the third quarter when Bob Hart hit Gary Ellis on a 34-yard pass play. Aquinas got back in the scoring, however, when Tiberi raced 40 yards to pay dirt. Ray Bellisari scored the last touchdown for Aquinas on a buck from the one-yard line which made the final score 27-13.

Peyton Black sprained his shoulder earlier in the week and it hurt South Friday because he was not at top playing form. All was not gloomy for South, however, for Dave Strauss made two fine catches of passes by Bob Hart. One was a leaping one-handed catch. Aquinas made 11 first downs to South's 9.

All departments are featured in this progressive firm from a complete repair department with all parts for all makes, models and types of Chevrolet equipment. An invitation has been extended by the personnel of Bobb Chevrolet to everyone to attend this grand showing and view the cars of today with the design of tomorrow.

Pro-Annexation Committee Make Final Plea For Vote

Forward-looking citizens of Marion Township, taking all angles into consideration, have decided that the brightest future for their community lies in annexation to Columbus, proponents of annexation claimed yesterday.

A Community Committee For Good Government is supporting an intensive pre-election public information campaign to provide voters facts and figures on how much better it would be to annex to a "going" city than to try to establish a new, costly and separate village.

The committee, in newspaper advertisements and brochures, explains:

"We are a joint group of fellow citizens of Marion Township and representatives of industries. We want for this area the best government, the best schools, and the best possible public service. We will continue to give our support to such a program.

The committee is on record in favor of the school bond issue and tax levy. The Columbus Board of Education has passed a resolution promising the following when Marion Township is annexed:

1. To operate its schools as they now are. The changeover will be gradual and orderly, not abrupt and confused.

2. To continue the services of teachers and administrators already employed.

3. To continue to provide free transportation on the same basis as present.

The Committee directed the attention of Marion Township residents to the statements made Sunday by a city council spokesman on "Just a few of the things we stand ready to do:"

"Police and fire protection will go immediately to every area annexed.

"Garbage will be collected just as often as it is in the rest of Columbus.

"Mass transportation will be treated the same as for the rest of Columbus.

"Water lines and sewers will be extended to every area as quickly as plans can be drawn and contracts awarded."

The president of the Columbus Home Builders Association said over the week end:

"The cost of the upkeep of the home will be materially changed if the citizens of the communities vote to annex to Columbus. Reduction in the price of the upkeep of property for those communities who join Columbus will be reflected in decreased property insurance rates, decreased cost for the operation of schools. Many communities outside the city limits pay a higher tax rate for poorer services than those who own property within the city limits."

A folder by the committee advises Marion Township voters to "Choose Not To Lose . . . You have some good examples all around you of areas that are usually in financial trouble because of the problems brought by incorporation. Whitehall is one; Grandview is another . . . Bexley has been helped by some $250,000 a year inheritance taxes. And that source of revenue is rapidly dwindling to a very small amount. As for Marion Township, its yield from inheri-

EYE CATCHER—Mercy, the first of local hospitals to inaugurate a routine free chest X-ray diagnosis on admission of all patients to the hospital, has long been aware of the importance of detecting tuberculosis in its early stages. General hospitals do not treat tuberculosis; such cases are referred to Benjamin Franklin Hospital, the county's excellent hospital which specializes in the treatment of this disease. Mercy supports its sister hospital by displaying a large sign on its lawn urging voters to approve the levy on November 2d.

Enjoy Number Of Extra Activities

The fourth grades at the Scioto Trail School visited the Industrial Exhibit at the State Fairgrounds on Friday, Oct. 15. On Oct. 8, the second grade, Mrs. Snyder's room, visited the Marion Township Firehouse. The firemen showed the children the masks and extinguishers which the firemen use. They took one of the fire engines and the emergency squad car outside so that the children could see them better. This experience helped the children to understand the work which the firemen do as important community helpers.

The Gadabout

Good morning, friends, here's looking "achoo." Yep, we're on the "cold" bandwagon too, like the rest of the population. (We acquired the sniffles while attending South's football game, incidentally.)

The major portion of today's news seems to be about other ailing folks, folks with REAL illnesses, so we'll hope they are on the road to recovery by now. Some of the "not-so-perky" South Siders are Frank Leonard, S. Third-st, who is ill in Mercy Hospital, Dale Creamer, who broke his arm, and Jim Hoptry, who received a broken collar bone a few weeks back; Mrs. Helen Swankhammer and Mrs. Roy Thomas, whose address is 1409 S. Fifth-st. (A church bulletin is a fine source of news. Any other churches willing to send us a weekly bulletin-)

Another thank-you on the UA Drive comes from Mrs. Reis, 55 E. Hanford-st, a major whose territory extended from Deshler to Welch-av, High-st to Parsons. She phoned and asked that all workers and captains be thanked for volunteering, and that all contributors be told of her appreciation. Glad to oblige, Mrs. Reis.

A fine person has been learning first-hand the routines of sick folks in a hospital, so we hope that the friends of Mary Jane Wood, 833 Gilbert-st, remember her with cards. Mary Jane is a member of Trudeau Guild 17, as well as an active member of the PTA groups. She underwent surgery in Grant Hospital recently.

A happy birthday to Avonell Miller, who was 16 years old on Oct. 26. This South High coed resides at 681 E. Gates-st.

Notes from 'round the square table, or what one hears when the Dishwashers Inc. meet. Essie Buller in charge. Joe Kessler of Moler-st is on the sick list as is Dale Edwards, 66 E. Innis-av. The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eberts, popular druggist, is a polio victim. Mrs. Fox, mother-in-law of Russ Canter, recently underwent surgery. Mrs. Fox is a Morrill-av resident.

Now HERE'S something a little more cheerful to think about: the Turkey Dinner to be held at Gates-Fourth Methodist Church, tonight from 5 to 7:30.

What an exciting way to announce an engagement! South's homecoming queen and court and the football players gathered at the Ryan home (Joyce and Judy, twins, are South students) after the homecoming game Oct. 15, and 'twas then that Nancy Johnson received her ring from Gene Dixon, a 1953 South grad. Nancy was a part of the homecoming royalty. Approximately 40 fellow students witnessed the event. Nice, eh?

Some birthdays occurred recently, so we want to acknowledge them. Donny Wilson is now a full-fledged teen-ager as of Oct. 9. This young lad surprised his mom with roses on his birthday. Wasn't that nice? The Wilsons live at 1624 S. Eighth-st. Norma Jean Cooper, 1856½ Parsons-av, was nine years old on Oct. 10 and by coincidence she spent her birthday at the Wilson home. Her mom and dad were in Cleveland to see the Browns play, but the game was rained out. The Parsons-av folks extended their outing to Canada.

Trudeau Guild 29 has a square dance on its agenda and would love to see lots of folks at Cubbage Corners, Nov. 5, from 8:30 p. m. to midnight. Robert Verbeck is the caller. Refreshments will be available and a cake walk is an added attrction.

Little Bobby Shelton, 399 Southwood-av, became a "big boy" on Oct. 19, for he's now one year old.

A set of adult twins haven't been so hale and hearty here recently. Augusta Cavanaugh is now recuperating at home after undergoing surgery. Cards may be sent to 769 E. Gates-st. Her brother, August Krause, 568 E. Gates-st, has been ailing for quite a while. Get well, twins!

We were sorry to hear that John McGath, well-known South Sider, was considerably shaken up in a recent auto collision.

Time Does Fly, or Prissy, You're Getting Old Department: Jackie Hoffman is visiting relatives after completing his naval "boot" training. We remember him as a three-year-old and it doesn't seem possible that 14 or 15 years could pass so quickly!

Guess that does it for this week, and please remember us when something special happens, won't you? Number to call is HI. 4-1051, and till next week, this has been put your X FOR ANNEXATION! TO COLUMBUS

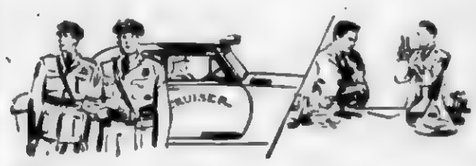
your X for anne X ation means X tra benefits!

To vote FOR annexation is a smart move. It means Marion Township wants to join a "going" concern and not to set up something entirely new and costly. Enjoy the services and conveniences made possible by being a part of a fine, fast-growing city like Columbus.



X tra school facilities

After annexation, The Columbus Board of Education has agreed officially

1. To operate Marion Township schools as they now are, with an orderly and gradual changeover.
2. To continue the services of teachers and administrators already employed.
3. To continue free bus transportation on the same basis as at present.

Your Committee, also, is on record in favor of the school bond issue and operating levy.

X tra police protection

Instead of five capable constables, Marion Township will enjoy the protection of the entire city police department, with its cruisers, emergency squads, detective bureau, crime lab and juvenile detention service.

X tra fire protection

Columbus has taken steps to contract for fire protection for Marion Township. And there's this bonus: If needed, especially in a disaster, Columbus fire equipment will answer fires in your community. This cannot be done now or under incorporation, but only under annexation. Insurance rates go down, too.

X tra home conveniences

Under annexation, Marion Township gets better sewerage and water facilities, thanks to a master plan now being worked on by nine townships and 10 municipalities. You'll also get regular and improved garbage and refuse collection, free. More modern lighting and better-paved streets and sidewalks will be enjoyed.

X tra-low tax rates

Marion Township's present rate is $19.80 for each $1,000 valuation. This will jump to $28.51 in 1955 if the bond issue and tax levy are approved in November. This could go up to $32 in the next few years, according to township experts. Compare this with the current rate of $20 in Columbus . . . a rate that will go up only to $23.60 in 1955 if all issues before Columbus voters are approved in November.

If Marion Township takes on all the responsibilities of supplying its own municipal services under incorporation, the tax burden is sure to increase beyond the budget.

STEPS TO GOD

The Bible says for us not to neglect church attendance, Heb. 10:25. Here we find a family on the way up the steps to an hour of worship. The church is the strongest dyke against corruption and the evil forces that destroy human life. The church is the foe of the penitentiary. Jesus said, "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it," Matt. 16:18.

The church is not perfect... nothing human ever is. Even the Apostles chosen by Jesus had a Judas, but see the success He made of the other eleven. Christ loved the church enough to die for it and that makes it mighty important. Whether people worship in a tent, tabernacle or cathedral, they mean to be on God's side. Church-going people are people of Faith. Do you go to church?

THEY NEED YOU

Because . . .

Only YOUR SUPPORT Can Enable Columbus To — ● Provide for bigger enrollments

When school bells rang in Columbus this fall, 4,000 more children reported for instruction than were enrolled last year.

Four thousand more pupils require more teachers (Columbus added about 100), more classrooms, more instructional supplies, more maintenance help, more maintenance supplies, and more educational services.

YOU CAN'T EDUCATE 4,000 MORE BOYS AND GIRLS WITHOUT SPENDING MORE MONEY.

● Hire and keep better teachers

Nothing influences quality of instruction more than the teacher. Columbus must have good teachers in order to have good schools.

Columbus school officials have difficulty hiring and keeping well-qualified teachers because: (1) there is a diminishing supply of teachers, and (2) Columbus teachers are paid from $125 to $850 less annually than teachers in Ohio's six other largest cities. (figures as of July 2, 1954).

THE COLUMBUS TEACHERS' SALARY SCHEDULE MUST BE IMPROVED IF WE ARE TO COMPETE SUCCESSFULLY WITH OTHER CITIES FOR WELL-QUALIFIED TEACHERS

● Meet pressing school-finance problems

The job of the Columbus Public Schools has grown faster than the revenue available to do the job, because the Columbus tax duplicate has failed to increase as rapidly as school enrollments.

Columbus CAN make a greater financial contribution to the education of its children.

DURING THE 1952-53 SCHOOL YEAR, THE REVENUE THE COLUMBUS PUBLIC SCHOOLS RECEIVED FROM LOCAL SOURCES AMOUNTED TO ALMOST 50% LESS PER CHILD THAN THE AVERAGE FOR OHIO'S SEVEN LARGEST CITIES.

Marshall's Candidacy Has Endorsement Of Several Prominent Ohio Citizens

George B. Marshall, candidate for Common Pleas Judge, has had in his campaign the support of a Citizens Sponsoring Committee, which includes the following prominent persons: Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler, Dr. Edward S. Chapman, Dr. Alfred B. Garrett, Mrs. Raymond D. Goller, Rev. Charles F. Jenkins, Charles A. Jones, William A. Loar, Dr. James H. McCreary, A. Fullerton Miller, Harland Randolph, Norman M. Spain, Dr. Victor L. Steffel, Dr. J. W. Wilce, and Mrs. Joanna Woods.

Robert W. Newlon, United States Commissioner, who is serving as Marshall's general campaign chairman, made the following statement in accepting the appointment:

"I have known George B. Marshall since high school days. His reputation has been one of honesty, industry and fair dealing with all, both as a lawyer and as a leader in our community. He served Franklin County with distinction in both branches of the state legislature, has given much assistance in many fields of youth activity and is a good citizen of whom we all may be proud. I am happy to serve with many of Senator Marshall's friends on this committee and earnestly solicit the support of all for his election as a Common Pleas Judge."

Metropolitan Committee Endorses 8 Bond Issues And Operating Levies

Teamwork, provided by the Metropolitan Committee, has made possible many improvements in Columbus and Franklin County.

Citizens working in small groups for civic improvements were defeated so frequently in bond issue and levy elections that this community was lagging far behind similar cities for two decades before World War II ended.

The Metropolitan Committee, representing 100 civic organizations, dedicated to "jobs and progress", was organized in 1945, and in that same year all 16 bond issues supported by the Metropolitan Committee were passed. In 1951, cooperation again paid off in jobs and progress. These two successful campaigns have provided more than eight million man hours of labor and long-overdue landmarks of progress.

Eight bond issues and operating levies on the Nov. 2 ballot have been recommended by the Metropolitan Committee as essential to more jobs and greater progress.

Five of the proposals are for issuance of bonds for construction projects, while three call for operating levies to maintain growing facilities.

These proposals will be offered Franklin County voters:

1. A $1 25 million bond issue for completion of the Veterans' Memorial, the county's only assembly hall. This building is complete in many respects. The proposed funds will be used for finishing the interior, equipping and completing all portions according to original plans.

2. Engineering and design of the city-county expressway system will require a $1 million bond issue. Work on several phases of this program has been started. The project can qualify for federal and state funds as soon as the engineering plans and surveys are completed. This bond issue will permit rapid progress on new roads.

3. A renewal will be asked for the .65 mill levy for the TB hospital. This county operated TB hospital derives almost half of its support from this levy. Its record in the fight against TB is one of the nation's finest. To continue the fight and help additional TB patients, a renewal of the levy is essential.

4. The operating levy (.5 mills) for child welfare and poor relief will provide funds for continuing this work. The population increase has thrown a heavier load on these welfare departments, requiring added operating funds.

In addition to the four issues above, these four proposals will be on ballots in the city of Columbus:

1. A $5 million proposal for urban redevelopment projects will permit city purchase of blighted areas, razing and reselling. The cleared land will become sites for modern planned communities. Federal funds and resale of razed land will return over $4 million of city's investment for use in other areas. Redeveloped areas will pay for themselves through increased taxable valuation.

2. A $2 million bond issue is proposed for elimination of grade crossings on streets which carry an average traffic load of more than 24,000 vehicles a day. The railroads will share part of this cost.

3. The $1.5 million bond issue for recreation is asked as the second part of a long-range program to help the city provide recreational facilities to match its growth in population. New play areas, with year-round activities, are planned for all sections of Columbus.

4. The 1 mill operating levy for Columbus public schools is necessary to equip and maintain new schools built from past bond issues. The 42 per cent increase in school enrollment has created an immediate need for 100 more teachers.

These bond issues and operating levies represent eight big steps forward in a continuing campaign for more jobs and greater progress, the Metropolitan Committee maintains. A vote for these questions is a vote of confidence in the future.

Sextet Of Legislators Seeking Re-Election

The Franklin County Republican delegation to the Ohio House of Representatives, composed of the six members who are now up for re-election, has contributed materially to the record of accomplishment of the legislature which has been hailed in many quarters as one of the most productive and outstanding legislatures in the state's history. Several Ohio dailies have lauded the accomplishments of the 100th general assembly.

John J. Chester, Jr., was chosen by newspapers as one of the two outstanding first term members. Samuel L. Devine is chairman of the House Un-American Activities Commission. Golda May Edmonston was influential on the Public Welfare Committee. Kline L. Roberts served as majority leader of the House. Horace W. Troop was chairman of the Industry and Labor Committee, while Lytle G. Zuber, who made the first draft of the Uniform Municipal Courts Act, was chairman of the Municipal, Mayors' and J.P.'s' Courts Committee of the House Judiciary Committee.

PREPARING FOR ELECTIONS IS HUGE, TEDIOUS TASK

The county board of elections has a big task of preparing the local ballots; having them printed in accordance with the law; hiring and instructing their precinct workers; and making provisions for all of the supplies to be used on election day. The work of carrying out elections is not done in one day or one week it is planned and executed the entire year.

The fact that there are more than 11,000 polling places in Ohio and approximately 130,000 persons employed in the administration of elections on election day, makes Ohio's election system one of the largest in the nation.

County Bar Assn. Gives Edge To McClelland In Probate Court Contest

Members of the Franklin County Bar Association, voting on their choices among candidates for various judicial offices up for election in the approaching Nov. 2 balloting, gave Probate Court Judge Cloys P. McClelland 352 votes against 248 for the opposing candidate, Roscoe Walcutt, according to official announcement of the barristers' group.

Approval of Judge McClelland's re-election was signified by more than 58 per cent of the Bar Association who voted.

"Endorsement by a substantial margin of Franklin County's attorneys amounts to a complimentary testimonial in favor of the incumbent's (Judge McClelland's) record of capable sincere service during the past 23 years of his tenure on the probate court bench," declared Ernest A. Gabriel, general referee and inheritance tax clerk.

A television program entitled "Meet Judge McClelland" will be presented over WBNS-TV at 8 p.m. Monday, election eve. Emphasis will be placed on Judge McClelland's campaign slogan, "There is no substitute for judicial experience."

His 19 years of law practice have found him in every kind of court including the Supreme Court of the United States. RETURN

Judge William C. Bryant
To The Common Pleas Court

William C. Bryant is seeking to be returned to the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County to the judgeship to which he was appointed at the death of John R. King.

During the twenty-one months which he has served as Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio he has shown that he has all the qualifications for this position. He brought to this position a background of having served in the Prosecuting Attorney's office of Franklin County and in the office of the Attorney General of the State of Ohio where he rendered a great service, both to the county and to the state in these respective positions. He has done the same as Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, Ohio.

He has shown himself to have judicial ability and an appreciation of the position that a judge has in the deciding of matters between those parties who appear before him. Judge William C. Bryant has shown himself to be fair, impartial, courageous, and well learned in the law.

The people of Franklin County can rest assured that, if Judge William C. Bryant is reelected as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio he will continue to render to them the same fine type of service which he has rendered to them in all of his public offices. He is the type of judge before whom any citizen may come without fear and know that the judgment which he renders will be fair.

I heartily recommend to the citizens of Frankin County William C. Bryant to be returned to the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio.

VITAL TO COLUMBUS EDUCATION

Voters Asked To Continue Support Of Sound Schools Here By Levy Approval

Columbus voters are being asked to continue their support of a sound program of instruction in the Columbus public schools when the Columbus Board of Education seeks approval of a one-mill levy at the Nov. 2 election.

According to Superintendent N. G. Fawcett, Columbus schools face two critical problems at the present time, and neither can be solved without the money a one-mill levy would raise.

First, Fawcett said, the Columbus system is finding it increasingly difficult to staff and equip the additional classrooms which must be organized each year to accommodate greater enrollments.

"When the Columbus Public Schools swung open their doors this fall," he pointed out, "nearly 4,000 more pupils reported for classes than were enrolled a year ago.

"Obviously, when a community assumes the responsibility for educating an additional 4,000 children, it requires more teachers, more classrooms, more instructional supplies, more maintenance help, more maintenance supplies, and more educational services in general." The superintendent added:

"It all boils down to this—you simply cannot education 4,000 more boys and girls without spending more money."

At a time when Columbus must employ more teachers, school officials have difficulty hiring and keeping well qualified instructors. This is the second big problem facing the board of education.

Fawcett said this problem exists because there is a diminishing supply of teachers and because Columbus teachers are paid from $125 to $850 less annually than teachers in Ohio's six other largest cities. He commented:

"Teachers leave Columbus for better-paying school jobs elsewhere and for more lucrative callings in business and industry."

Fawcett emphasized that the quality of the teaching staff largely determines the quality of a school system's program of instruction.

"We want to give the boys and girls of Columbus a good start in life," he said. "The better the teacher, the better the start. The teachers' salary schedule in this city must be improved if we are to compete successfully with other cities for good teachers."

The money the schools must have to expand the teaching staff, purchase more supplies, provide more educational services, and improve teachers' salaries isn't available under the present millage rate.

The increase in the tax duplicate has not kept pace with the rapid upsweep in enrollments, Fawcett explained. He added:

"When you're confronted with the situation we face, there are only two things you can do. First, inform the public fully of the nature of the situation. And then, recommend a solution.

"After studying these problems very carefully, the Columbus Board of Education decided that the only way to continue our high standards was to submit a one-mill levy to the people.

Board members and school officials are confident that the public will support their "modest request" as it has approved other school issues since World War II.

"The people of Columbus have shown a tremendous interest in their schools and school problems," Homer Trantham, president of the board of education declared. "They also have shown a keen understanding of the situation we have been in since the war ended and have supported our requests in a gratifying manner."

Trantham pointed out that through the wisdom of Columbus voters, the Columbus public schools have made enviable progress in meeting serious school-housing and financing problems in the past few years.

"Whether we continue to meet our expanding obligations successfully depends on the people of this community."

Scrimger Pledges All His Time As Commissioner, Hits 'Stagnant 24 Years

Leslie G. Scrimger, Democratic candidate for County Commissioner, yesterday charged his opponent with "24 years of virtual stagnation while the county has nearly doubled in population."

"With this growth the problems have increased in number and complexity," Scrimger declared. "My opponent has failed to keep pace with them. He has done little or nothing in the way of a constructive program. He has failed to look ahead, to plan or to solve any of the major questions facing us today.

"The county is a huge corporation with 500,000 stockholders," Scrimger said. "Running such an enterprise requires initiative, varied experience and willingness to study each and every problem on its own individual merits or demerits. It requires a commissioner who will devote full time to the job as I intend to do if elected on Nov. 2.

Harter Hopes Re-Naming To Common Pleas Bench

Joseph M. Harter, a candidate to succeed himself as a Common Pleas Judge, became a judge first in 1950 when he was elected to an unexpired term following the death of Judge Charles A. Leach. This has been Judge Harter's only public office, following nearly a quarter century of general law practice.

Since becoming a judge on the Franklin County Common Pleas Court, Judge Harter has been called upon to decide his full share of widely publicized, controversial cases; to name a few of the more recent ones: he upheld the Columbus ordinance against pinball games; he presided when four Communists were found guilty of contempt of the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission; he heard the Eloise Notz case when she acted as her own attorney in attempting to justify her real estate activities against criminal charges; a year ago, he was the judge during the North American Aviation Company strike.

GOP Candidate Walcutt Offers Voters Long And Varied Public Life Role

Roscoe R. Walcutt, Republican candidate for probate judge of Franklin County, offers voters the experience of long-time residence and varied public experience in Franklin County. His name will appear on the non-partisan judicial ballot at the general election on November 2.

Walcutt's No. 1 pledge if elected is that he will conduct the office with fairness to all, clients and attorneys alike, in such a way as to avoid all suspicion of gain or favoritism for relatives and close friends. Still residing in Mifflin Township within a few miles of his birthplace, Mr. Walcutt attended public school in Sharon Township, graduated from Columbus North High, then enrolled at Otterbein College.

Active in the Methodist church, he is an officer in Parent-Teachers' Association, school board, and Boy Scout Council, and is widely known as a leader in Rotary.

Representative of Franklin County in the Ohio Senate for five years, Walcutt was minority leader of the upper house in 1949-50 and majority leader in 1951-52. In 1951 he was chosen a member of the board of managers of the Council of State Governments. Married, he has four children and eight grandchildren.

Miss McGuire Seeks Seat At State Representative

Miss Catherine G. McGuire, attorney and public accountant, is a Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Ohio in the election on Nov. 2.

Miss McGuire is a graduate of Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and History; a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the College of Law; and graduate study in Administrative Law, Taxation and Accounting. She has been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Federal District Court of the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio, and the Tax Court of the United States.

Before entering the practice of law, Miss McGuire was associated with the Lasalle and Koch Company of Toledo, and later with the State of Ohio. Now associated in the general practice of law with Robert E. Fast under the firm name of Fast and McGuire, she formerly maintained an office of her own. She was a member of the Women's Army Corps in WWII.

Auditor Fred C. Dunn Hopes To Succeed Himself

Fred C. Dunn, is a Republican candidate to succed himself as Auditor of Franklin County in the election Nov. 2.

He attended the Columbus Public Schools and graduated from the College of Chemical Engineering of Ohio State University in 1915 as well as the Franklin University Law School in 1932.

His qualifications for the post to which he is seeking reelection lie in his business background as Vice President of Dunn Taft Company, and as owner and operator of Dunn's, Inc. from 1941-51, and his 11 years of service as County Auditor.

Taxpayers! Vote NO
Against $5 Million Bond Issue for Slum Clearance
AND URBAN RE-DEVELOPMENT
This is the first step in a plan which will cost you millions more. On August 11, 1953, you voted two to one to kill an ordinance that would have decentralized slums. Do you want them now? Money borrowed must be repaid. Do you want your taxes, assessments and rents raised? Throughout the United States this issue was voted down in 80% of the elections. DON'T BE FOOLED!

An Open Letter from Your Congressman
John M. Vorys

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Friends:

I want to thank you for your past support. Serving as your congressman for 16 years in war and peace has been a great honor, a heavy responsibility.

Most of the time I have been in the minority. The last two years I have been a part of the Republican team. It has been a great experience. We have eliminated controls, cut costs, stopped inflation, reduced taxes, wiped out corruption, outlawed Communism, increased Social Security; the Korean war was stopped; 1953 and 1954 have been the best years economically that America has ever had.

We are midway in the Eisenhower administration. Much remains to be done on our program of peace, progress and prosperity without war. We still face the grim and deadly Communist threat. As the ranking member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, I work constantly on that world wide problem.

My experience in Congress helps me in working on projects for this district and the individual problems of its people.

I hope that I have proved worthy of your continuing confidence and ask the opportunity to serve you, this district and my country again in the next Congress.

Sincerely,
John M. Vorys

tance taxes has been about $500 a year."

On the subject of taxes, the committee said:

"Your present rate is $19.80 for each $1,000 valuation. This will jump to $28.51 in 1955 if the bond issue and tax levy are approved in November. In the next few years, according to township experts, this could go up to $32.

"Compare this with the current rate of $20 in Columbus — a rate which will advance to only $23.60 in 1955 if all issues before Columbus voters are approved in November. That's $5 less than the Marion Township rate.

"It stands to reason that if you and your neighbors take on all the responsibilities of supplying your own municipal services, the cost will be so great that your tax burden is sure to be drastically increased."

The voters were advised to search out what small group is pushing incorporation and why. It was added:

"When you vote for annexation, it's like joining your community to a 'going' business. That's much wiser and more practical than trying to set up something entirely new. And it certainly will cost you less money.

"What you decide now will determine the future of your community and everyone in it not just for a few months, but for all the years ahead."

pens if the operating levy is approved and the township is then annexed. The answer, offered by Supt. Harold W. Boles, is that after the annexation is accomplished, the tax rates for school operation would be equalized between Columbus and the township.

Voters are assured that if they want new schools in the area and want all their schools properly supported they should vote for the bond issue and the operating levy now, regardless of how they vote on annexation and incorporation.

HOMECOMING

20 Key Workers Pass Literature For School Issue

A group of about 20 key people and their helpers have undertaken house-to-house delivery of a booklet entitled "Why the School Levy and Bond Issue?" intended to acquaint voters of Marion Local School district with the need for t' bond issue and operating levy on which they will be asked to vote N . 2.

These people are members of the Public Opinion Panel, a citizens group which meets monthly to discuss school problems. The group, which has been meeting since February 1953, attempts to act as liaison between the board of education and the community at large. School problems are presented to the group by the administrative staff which in turn discusses the problems with other people in the community in order to get wider sampling of public opinion than can be gotten by members of the board of education in face to face contacts.

It was this group which last winter started discussing the question "How can We House Marion Local Pupils in 1955-56?" and who early in the spring recommended to the board of education that a bond issue be submitted to the voters.

Schiller Offers Weekly Kids' Swimming Class

Schiller Recreation Center has begun weekly swimming classes for beginning swimmers. Classes are held every Monday at 4 p. m. The children will meet at Schiller Park.

Only children of school age who do not now know how to swim should come. Needed are suits, caps for girls, and six cents for a towel. If parents wish to accompany their children, they are welcomed. It would be especially appreciated if the parents could drive the child to the pool; otherwise, bus fare will be needed. This is a good opportunity for children to learn to swim under qualified leadership. The progress made during the summer months can be continued so that the fear of water can be overcome quickly. Enroll your child now, for his health and safety.

Commissioner Vigor Seeks Another Term

Harry T. Vigor, Republican candidate, is seeking to succeed himself as county commissioner of Franklin County, Ohio, at the election on Nov. 2.

A graduate of East High School, his business knowledge is derived from the ownership of a retail meat stand on Central Market and his 24 years of service as county commissioner of Franklin County, O.

Vigor has gained training and experience for the office which he seeks through carrying out his duties as County Commissioner in years past, as well as operating his own business, the principles being the same as those required for application to the duties of county commissioner.

Barrett Dedication Brought Old Friends Together As 800 Attend

The dedication of the new wing of Barrett Junior High School on Thursday, Oct. 21, was attended by more than 800 persons from the South Side. That many persons were in the building, going through the halls, visiting the classrooms, attending and taking part in the auditorium program, enjoying coffee and cookies in the cafeteria, and meeting old friends, as well as making new ones.

Novice G. Fawcett, superintendent of Columbus Public Schools, made the address of the evening. He pointed with pride to the building and to its teaching staff. He pointed out the place of teachers in a democracy, and the need for Columbus to meet the challenge of neighboring communities in procuring trained teachers. There was included a plea for support of the one-mill levy at the coming election. Fawcett's developed content and dynamic delivery had the usual fortunate effect on his hearers.

Herbert Germain, director of the Barrett Orchestra, and Miss Ernestine Bibler, directing the Boys' Glee Club, were important parts of the evening program, while the Columbus Mannerchor represented the community.

The Southeast Lions gave the school an RCA movie projector, complete with stand and carrying case, for use both for education and entertainment. George Loudermilk made the presentation for his organization. The Barrett Parent-Teacher Association gave the school an electrically operated basketball scoreboard. Mrs. Fischer made the presentation for the PTA.

Barrett's principal, Robert L. Nash, accepted both gifts in the name of the school and its pupils. Rev. Paul C. Kaefer and Rev. Ray W. Huff represented the ministerial group of the South Side in offering the invocation and the benediction.

Floral pieces from the business people of the South Side and the downtown area added greatly to the occasion.

Shoemaker Seeks Seat In Ohio State Assembly

Fred J. Shoemaker, an attorney and senior partner in a Columbus law firm, led the field of 12 candidates by a substantial margin in the recent Democratic primary. His friends believe he has an excellent chance of election as a state representative next Tuesday.

Active in community affairs, he is a director in the Linden Lions Club, a vice-president of the Franklin County League of Young Democrats, a member of the Linden Church of Christ, Moose Lodge, Columbus Bar Association, Columbus Jr. Chamber of Commerce, Linden VFW Post, Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, Linden Businessmen's Association, and Raymond Scott Post of the American Legion. He is a life-long resident of the Linden community.

FACULTY FROLICS

On Oct. 13 the faculty of Scioto Trail School had a picnic at Darby Dan Farm, owned by an uncle of Miss Betty Davis, one of the teachers. Opportunity to inspect the grounds and hike was followed by a picnic supper, songs and games.

Trivia

From THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Gaizy Gordon

A newspaper's editorial policy, especially that of a family weekly newspaper is a strange thing. When there is a clear-cut difference between right and wrong, it is the community weekly's obligation to take a stand in its EDITORIAL COLUMN. When issues are not clearcut, it is best for the editor to remain silent

However, this does not mean that our NEWS columns will ever be closed to the other side. Fact is, when we do take an EDITORIAL STAND on an issue involving the welfare of this community, you can be sure we'll bend over backwards to present both sides of the issue in our NEWS columns — fairly, impartially and accurately

Of course we can't give the "other side" an even break in our NEWS columns if its proponents don't submit NEWS for publication.

Please pardon a slight gramatical lapse, needed to make one thing clear "We're not mad at no body"

The Leader naturally doesn't have the large news-gathering staff a huge daily can boast So, we're forced to rely a good bit on what is submitted to us. Charges or other allegations by the "other side" will be used and credited to their source (as long as these statements are not libelous, and fair and impartial treatment will be given to all concerned. Of course that doesn't mean we're willing to mix EDITORIAL COMMENT in the NEWS ACCOUNTS of your organization That we refuse to do'

First off, our backshop is one of the fastest-growing, best-equipped and busiest in the city It really does print everything from calling cards to a newspaper. In fact, we sometimes print as many as seven newspapers in one week, in addition to numerous pamphlets, signs, handbills, etc

Here's my point. The very success of the firm means that "organization" is the keynote to the operations. I have to get "page dummies" back to the printers on a pretty tight schedule

It helps us help you if you can bring or send as much of your material as possible into the office on Thursday, Friday or Saturday morning for the next Thursday's paper. That'll make it possible for us to get pages "rolled" and out of the way early in the week, leaving us more time to concentrate on doing the best possible job with news that comes in later or that must be written immediately prior to publication

And this is a personal note: It'll help us to avoid those midnight candle-burning hours and to spend more time with our families.

The South Side Leader is YOUR paper, with news about YOUR doings, YOUR civic hopes, YOUR churches, YOUR clubs and organizations, YOUR schools, YOUR business firm YOUR problems

If YOUR (supply the proper noun) doesn't have someone specifically charged with the responsibility of getting the news of YOUR (again supply the same noun), make a motion at your next board meeting to have someone named I refuse to use the term "publicity director," because what we're really interested in are the very concrete accomplishments and activities of YOUR

Citizen's Group Vows To Carry Fight Against Move To Courts

With the entire of Marion Township committed to incorporate as the village of Marion Park as a result of a 1252 to 1210 margin vote in Tuesday's election the fledgling governmental body found itself already in hot water Wednesday morning as a group of residents indicated they would oppose final approval of incorporation through court action

Columbus suffered a five-year setback in its efforts to annex the whole of the township in the unfavorable vote on the issue The count was 1191 for annexation to 1385 against Under current statutes Columbus itself cannot institute another annexation move in the township for five years

Most Columbus dopesters on the election found themselves at a loss to explain what happened to the expected deaths on incorporating the entire township They were also at a loss to explain the lack of success of the extensive public relations campaign aimed at showing the voters what they would gain after annexation

The campaign among the hot est in the county on the annexation incorporation issue was played for large stakes with the rich industrial area going to the winning government's tax dominate It was expected by some that the weight of the endorsement of the annexation issue by several leading South Side industrialists would swing the vote

One resident is still in the hospital as a result of violence in the bitter struggle between the various factions He is a Jaycee solicitor, who was beaten up while canvassing in favor of annexation

South Side Bell Ringer

By Tom Sharp

Remember once before that I said that any time I mention food it would still be up to you to judge it? Well, this week I tried Caito's spaghetti And every time I eat it, it gets better I am not Italian, but sometimes I sure wish I were and could get spaghetti like that whenever I wanted it Well, I guess I can anyway, just by stopping off at Caito's, 1957 Parsons av, and eating my fill

I talked to a lady on the phone today whose work really interests me. She is Betty Yoakum, 343 Sycamore-st. Betty owns and operates a gift shop and all during the year she works making items that would please any connoisseur in beauty and craftsmanship in hand-sewn items.

Many other items are featured on her racks that have been made either by her or for her to provide to shoppers caring to stop out. Drop in on her aand tell her the Bell ringer sent you

Something new is coming Color TV at the B F Goodrich store' Watch this paper for the announcement very soon I will let you in on a little secret. This Motorola is a 19 incher and should be a honey Watch for it'

Also with something new, is Moores, located at 1340 Parsons-av. A new floor is being installed this week, but business is going on as usual and jovial Langley is there to wait on you with the greatest of courtesy and the best of service. Ask for Langley and tell him I sent you.

If the items you want aren't on hand he will try to get them for you. Appliances are the store's line and appliances are what they provide in many lines and types Stop in and look around

Grumley Jewelers, the little Jeweler at 1615 S Fourth st has a good line offered in his ad this week namely a Waltham watch at a good price. This is only one of the many features offered by this fine organization Watches, jewelry, silverware, and watch repair are some of the services Fine people with a conscience would be a good statement for the Grumleys. Good people to do business with and they are always interested in customer satisfaction. Good things come in small packages and this is one of the good things. Dew drop in and say hello.

Last, but surely not least on my list this week is another gift shop, offering some of the finest items in gift ware that I know of. Deer in all shapes and sizes are one of the specialties of this enterprising firm You can recognize the place by the many fine deer statues displayed in the yard at 2643 S High st Henn's Gift Shop is the name, and it's one you'll want to remember Now, don't forget, when shopping with these people, tell them the Bell Ringer sent you'

Off again, on again but always the same thought comes to my mind when ending this column If you live on the South Side, be sure to shop on the South Side.

'HOME IS WHERE THE . .'

If the expression "Home is where the heart is" rings true then we've started one whale of a lonely hearts column in our want ads We're referring of course, to the new Real Estate Section in the classified department of this newspaper where scores of lovely, but lonely homes are yearning to become soulmates with happy families

Spectacular success of the Real Estate Section in its brief existence to date is based on that universal longing every one seems to have these days to own their own homes The 32 000 families that faithfully read the want ads in this newspaper constitute a select market for real estate sales And more and more of them are finding they can advertise for the house of their dreams and find it through these miraculous little ads

Whichever side of the fence you're on — would be home seller or would be home-buyer — why don't you try the want ad method of making your want come true Call HI 4 9262 or Jo 7331 for assistance in the best wording of your ad

Wood were united in marriage. The double-ring ceremony was performed on Sept. 26 at 2:30 p.m. with Rev. Howard W. Buckley officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Warga of 3523 Lockbourne-rd. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Pennoky Wood of San Francisco, Cal.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Lewis Warga, the bride wore a gown of imported hand-clipped chantilly lace over satin, designed with a low portrait neckline. The long tight sleeves ended in points over the hands and the bouffant skirt was edged in tiers of accordion pleated tulle, extending into a wide cathedral train.

A matching half-bonnet of lace trimmed in sequins and pearls held her circular fingertip veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid surrounded by shattered carnations and streamers.

Mrs. Phillip Brown was matron of honor and maid of honor was Miss Joyce Halterman, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Rita Ross, Miss Marlene Massie and Mrs. Robert Wheeler.

The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of silk crystellet designed in princess style. The fitted bodices were fashioned with low V-necklines and the extremely full skirts, worn over short hoops. The honor attendants wore bronze and the bridesmaids, gold. They carried colonial styled bouquets of bronze and gold mums and pompons and each wore a matching headband of baby mums.

Mr. Donald Spriggs of Portsmouth served as best man. Seating the guests were Mr. Robert Wood of Circleville, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. Robert Berkemer, Mr. Jack Raver and Mr. Robert Wheeler.

Mrs. Warga chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece navy blue silk shantung suit and a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Fiesta Club. Hostesses were Mrs. Ray Roy, Mrs. Jack Raver, sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Featherston and Mrs. Lewis Warga, aunt of the bride.

The new Mrs. Wood is a graduate of Hamilton Twp. High School and is employed by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Wood is a graduate of Southeastern High School in Chillicothe. He attended Ohio State University, where he was a member of the Theta Chi fraternity and served four years with the U. S. Marines. He is now associated with the Asbestos Service Co.

Following a trip to Mexico, the newlyweds are residing at 660 E. Town-st.

The Gadabout

Think I'll start a new fad . . . green teeth and lips! You see, the Tomboy got real fancy in popping corn, and added cake coloring. The coloring changed the corn very little but it did an excellent job on the dentures and lips.

Some October birthdays we just heard about, so we'll pass them on. All four birthdayites are Kemmerlings, so belated greetings to Sheila, as of Oct. 13; to Mrs. Rita Kemmerling, as of the 23rd; to David as of 24th, and to Donald as of the 28th.

We were so sorry to hear of Frank Leonard's death, and we were doubly pained that we didn't hear of it until after the funeral had already taken place. The family friendship had gone back many years, practically across the Atlantic as a matter of fact. His birthday and my mom's were on Feb. 26 and Mrs. Leonard's and my pop's natal days are on Dec. 15. Both the Februarians are no longer with us and are greatly missed

Bernie and Ida Lachowsky are once again South Siders and are anxious to renew old friendships. After a stint spent at Buckeye Lake the L's are making their home at 766 Gilbert-st and the phone is HI. 4-3955. Ida faces a hospital trip on Nov. 15, so give her a buzz won't you? It will make the time pass more quickly.

Nancy Seemueller, 462 Stanley-av, thinks life's an interesting thing these days and why not? She just had a new little brother come to her house, and her second birthday will be an event of Nov. 17. We'll add a congratulations to Mom and Dad Seemueller, along with Nancy's greetings.

A Columbus couple and a Wellston couple had a grand time recently when they made a trip to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leffler, 643 Thurman-av, with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trucker of Wellston were the foursome and in addition to visiting Florida, they spent time in Alabama and Mississippi. They returned Oct. 23.

Late October birthdays include those of Grace Black and Mary Mason. Mrs. Black's natal day was on the 24th, while Mrs. Mason's celebration was an event of the 29th.

We were sorry to hear that Dorothy Jolly of S. High-st, is listed among the ailing members of the community. She recently underwent surgery in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

A hefty nine-pound boy is the youngest member of the Franklin Woods family. Mrs. Woods and "sonny" should be home by now from White Cross Hospital.

Two little neighbors on Siebert-st add another year to their tiny ages very shortly. Wayne Koeptner will be three years old on Nov. 8, and Liesa Tabor will be two years old on Nov. 15. Master Koeptner has 555 for a street number and Liesa's home address is 560

The 14-day leave from the Great Lakes Training Center is fast drawing to a close, but we're sure that lots of visits and good times have been crammed into that short time by Michael Frederick Ward Ruh. His South Side address was 481 Marion-rd, though more recently he lived at 2085 Ferris-rd.

We received a list too late last week to include in that week's column, but since we're so short on items, we hope you won't mind reading of something that happened several weeks ago. This is the list of South High students who attended the party held at the home of Joyce and Judy Ryan after the homecoming game, Oct. 15. Candidates Carol Weber, Glenna Dean, Janis Reese, Nancy Johnson, Ben Weakley and Queen Caryl Coverdale.

Others were Jim Ferrell, Pat Brusca, Chuck Canny, Dannie Holtz, Pattie Allen, Helen Moser, Jeanne MacAhoy, Larry Myers, Carlene Conrod, Kay Schaefer, Larry Newberry, Ed Boquist, Kenney Webb, Kitty King, Adam High, Gene Dixon.

Jim Bope, Janet Vance, Annette Brodt, Pat Hutter, Terry Miller, David Houston, Judy Ryan, Joyce Ryan, Stanton Webster, Carolyn Henry, Bob Winebar, Marty Greeno, Judy Rust, Paul Stein, Herbert Ulz, Dean Duros, Pete Smeries, Bob Shatz and Sharon Groves.

A small-fry party was the order of the day on Oct. 30, at the Morrill-av home of Pam and Jonny Leist. To properly welcome the spooks and ghosts on that day, the Leist children had the help of these little friends, Phillip and Peggy Ikehorn, Cecil and Mary Puskas, Larry Dixon, Chuckie Neice, Ricky and Mike Butz, Debby and Winnie Czompi, Jean Hendricks, Paul David Quickel.

She told us herself, so we know she won't mind us passing this chuckle on: Wilma Barton, Barrett's PTA prexy, generally wears an older pair of shoes while driving, taking her better shoes along. Came the Barrett open house and she did per usual and was walking around for "ages" before remembering she hadn't changed shoes. To quote her "There I was, corsage and all, meeting all the local celebrities and in those OLD shoes!" We know it's "old shoe" (or hat) to repeat, but won't you call us at HI. 4-1051, and give us your news. 'Tis hard to run down news, so help us get a more nearly complete South Side coverage won't you? 'Tisn't a "closed circuit" in any way; we want YOUR news. Till next edition then, this has been

Clarfield School Teachers Hold Wiener Roast In Blendon Woods

TEACHERS PLAY, TOO!

With the coming of fall come the calls of the out-of-doors. One of the most clarion of these calls is that of cooking food over the charred remains of a huge log fire. Wieners, baked beans, salads and coffee just seem to taste better when the chill of fall evenings nips at fingers and toes!

Last week a number of Clarfield School teachers and their families and friends enjoyed such outdoor cooking when they journeyed out to Blendon Woods and prepared the traditional "goodies" of the familiar wiener roast. At the termination of the "meet" the teachers summed up the evening with these words: "It was real fun."

CAFETERIA REMODELED

Noon-time is exciting at Clarfield School this year. When the cafeteria opened this fall, its soft, clean yellow color and improved preparing and serving arrangements pleased the children, the ladies preparing the food, and the teachers. Getting the noon-day lunch at Clarfield was just easier, quicker and more pleasant for everyone.

Just a few days ago, the remainder of the permanent equipment arrived. New cabinets covered bare walls, new serving tables replaced make-shift ones, and everyone got excited all over again!

The remodeled cafeteria and additional equipment were really needed to serve children efficiently and well while providing a nourishing and balanced lunch.

SCIOTO TRAIL SCHOOL

Halloween was celebrated on Friday, Oct. 29. Ghosts and goblins who had invaded the school paraded from room to room; room mothers furnished cider, doughnuts and candy. Games were played and enjoyed by all.

The instrumental music program at Scioto Trail School now includes 45 pupils. Thirty-seven are beginners, of whom 18 play trumpets, 14 clarinets, and three flutes. Among the eight advanced students are three on trumpets, four on clarinets, and one on flute. The grade having the largest percentage of pupils enrolled in this program is Mrs. Alice Willis' fifth grade with nine out of 31 participating.

St. Leo's Receives Gifts From Lions

Queen JoAnn Dennis Reigns At Homecoming Game With Mifflin

HOMECOMING GAME

The 1954 Football Homecoming Game was played Oct. 22, at Hamilton High School against Mifflin High School.

The queen and her court were introduced before the game. The float was sponsored by Johnson's Restaurant. This year's float was green with silver, and had gold writing. It was about 30 feet long and 12 feet wide. A 1954, gray Mercury which was driven and owned by Phil Metter pulled the float.

The beautiful mums carried by the Queen and her court were given by GAA. Hamilton's queen, JoAnn Dennis, was dressed in a charcoal suit on which the mums showed up very beautifully.

Immediately following the game they had a round and square dance in the school auditorium. It was one of the largest homecoming dances Hamilton has ever had.

GAA VOLLEYBALL

The Girls' Athletic Association of Hamilton Township seem to be racking up the points in their volleyball games with other schools. From each grade, ninth through 12th, a volleyball team is selected. After that a still better team is made up of the best players from these four which is called the all-school team. The freshman team captain is Mary Graham, the sophomore captain is Christina Thompson, the junior captain is Beverly Richards and Mary Young is the senior captain. Verla Haynes is the all-school team captain.

Each of these teams played a similar team at Gahanna Lincoln on Monday, Oct. 24. The freshmen and sophomores last their games and the junior and senior teams won. The all-school team also won on Thursday, Oct. 28. These teams went to Marion Franklin and every team lost except the seniors and they won two out of three games. They plan to play other teams in the future.

BASKETBALL DOINGS

Hamilton Township's basketball team will be seen in new warm-up suits this season. The suits which are very sharp," have pants and jackets that are green with gold stripes. The suits cost about $300 which was raised by selling Ranger sweat-shirts. Anyone wishing to purchase one of the sweat-shirts should see Mr. O'Dell. They have a gray sweat shirt and a white T-shirt on sale now.

JUNIOR CLASS MYSTERY

The junior class of Hamilton Township High School is going all-out on it's production of the mystery-comedy, 'Arizona Dude Ranch' to be given in the high school auditorium on Friday, Nov. 19, at 8 o'clock. Mysterious sounds, costumes, and properties are seen and heard at strange times and places in and around the school.

It has been reported that long distance telephone calls have been made to Arizona in the interests of authenticating some details of the play. But as it is all a mystery this reporter may have confused this with a Texas call made in the interests of the play. Factual evidence, however, can be seen in a plate painted with an Arizona Dude Ranch scene that is on display at the school. This was done by Ralph Seymour, one of the actors, and a member of the art-publicity committee.

HONOR SOCIETY

Hamilton Township High School Honor Society had a meeting the fourth period, Oct. 25. Mr. Straubaugh, their adviser, talked to them about going to college. He gave them their pins. These are key-shaped with the words, "Service, Scholarship, Leadership and Character" on the outer part and "Franklin County Honor Society" on the inner part.

The club has decided to make money by doing something educational for the school. They are going to have a meeting the first Monday in every month. The next initiation for the school will be in February of 1955.

WHO'S READING?

It seems the kids of Hamilton Township High School have taken a sudden interest in library reading. Last year's circulation for September was 394 fiction books and 89 non-fiction. LIFE AND DEATH
By Charles W. Widmaier

Life is worthwhile and for all to enjoy,
There is one thing of which we're certain.
And tho we enjoy life at its best;
Death someday will ring a final curtain.

We need not fear or be afraid,
If we try to do what is right.
Life was not given as a scare,
Nor was death as a fearful fright.

Life was created only to give
All a fair and equal chance for
Heavenly gain or heavenly loss;
It is up to us to fail or score.

We have ourselves only to blame,
If we choose to fail our goal.
In knowing, and doing wrong or right,
Will determine where we send our soul.

St. Paul's To Observe Its Fourth Anniversary

St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church will celebrate the fourth anniversary of the new church Sunday morning at 10:30, with special services.

The choir, under the leadership of Paul Berger, with Mrs. Claire Freeman at the organ, will present special selections. The pastor, Rev. Paul C. Kaefer, will preach the anniversary sermon and all organizations of the church will attend and present special offerings to help pay off the debt.

A special effort will be made next year to burn the mortgage on the fifth anniversary. The public is cordially invited to this service.

Marion Local Board OKs Series Of Health Texts

Among actions taken at a recent Marion Local Board of Education meeting was one to extend the definition of residence for school pupils, authorization for the clerk to sign the petition for sewer and water facilities in Hamilton and Marion Townships, and adoption of the county-approved health series of textbooks.

Mrs. Virginia Jones, teacher in the high school, was granted a leave of absence beginning Jan. 21, 1955, and it was decided that Fred H. Manning, Ralph Gauvey, and Walter Shott should attend the Citizens Education Project Workshop sponsored by Columbia University at Hamilton, on Oct. 19 and 20.

It was decided that both Ohio State University and Capital University should be requested to enter into contracts for training of student teachers in Marion Local Schools. General contractors for the high school building were given a list of specific items that are not completed to the satisfaction of the board and were given until Nov. 1, 1954 to complete these items.

NOVEMBER

November is the twilight of the year,
A solemn hush before the night descends.
Cold winds blow through the forest, dark and drear;
A chill pervades the air as autumn ends.
The icy breath of coming winter lends
A welcome cheer to firesides' ruddy glow.
This is the question season, when good friends
Should meet and let their happy friendships grow
Before the night locks all the earth with snow.

CURTAIN TIME

You are in a show,
My lovely feline.
You are a star,
So brightly shine.
Turn on those charms
As you turn them on me
And I'm sure, proud darling,
A champion you'll be!

Dorothy M Thompson.

Dorothy Thompson (Mrs. Gilbert Thompson. 1472 W. 6th-av, Columbus) is a member of the Publicity and Ticket Committees of the Winter Cat Show to be held in the ballroom of the Southern Hotel, November 13 and 14. Hours are from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. Sponsors of the show expect 250 cats of all kinds, from near and far, according to Dorothy's letter. This will be the 34th Championship All-Breed Cat Show of the Ohio State Persian Club, Inc. There will also be two specialty shows of the American Tabby and Tortie and Windsor Solid Color Cat Clubs. Dorothy, a long-time good friend and popular Columbus author, will enter her own gorgeous Persion, one Mari-Sand. Dorothy says Mari-Sand eats olives! For further information about the show, call Dorothy (evenings) and she will be happy to talk with you and you'll love talking with her.

In Passing — A ten-year-old of my acquaintance heard a news commentator tell about the Crosby boys running away because they didn't like their nurse. His comment was "They're too old for a nurse anyway. I don't blame them, I'd run away too" . . . They are wonderful—the conversations carried on by a certain six-year-old and her ten-month-old brother. She is the only one who can understand his lingo; if she sometimes muses his part of the conversation to lose something in the translation, it is always to her advantage, and that's all right with the adult members of her family. For instance one time she told us with a straight little face that the baby said he'd like to have a Halloween mask, a coloring book and a drumstick. For the information of the uninitiated, a drumstick is a hard brow.. cone of some apparently edible substance, topped with chopped nuts and filled with ice cream. Prior to that particular day, we had always thought a drumstick came with a turkey or chicken. Naturally, when the mask, coloring book and drumstick were purchased, it was decided the little fellow was too young to enjoy them, so big sister very graciously took them off our hands. Grandparents can be pretty stupid about such important things as drumsticks, but maybe given a little time and patience, we'll learn . . . The six-year-old mentioned above has lost four teeth and the ten-month-old V. I. P. has found four, so a little neighbor thinks maybe the fairies found the four teeth under the six-year-old's pillow and simply transferred them to the ten-month-old's mouth . . . The man who invented Venetian blinds should have to clean them . . . Had just decided to write the astounding news that telephone advertising had died down a bit, when somebody called and wanted me to have somebody's furnace installed.

Mail—From Portland: "The kid is somewhat apprehensive about her up-coming grade card. She says her Latin teacher is most incompetent. That is a common comment these days among the high school set. Of course they don't really mean that—it's just their cute way of warning us parents that their grades might not be as high as all concerned could wish for. Her Latin seems to be 'amo, amas, amat Tom, Dick and Harry,' but we love her and we think she is the brightest child in her class" . . . From Thornville: "The first hard frost has come to Honeycreek. We were off to the hills the other day and found lots of the largest wild grapes I have ever seen. Their tang just suited my taste. I am a man of the hills. They have a strength, and that something that satisfies me" . . . From Columbus: "Robert Louis Stephenson once said 'Give me health, a modest competence, and O Lord, give me friends.' These last are true wealth of life in youth or age. Possessing true and tried friends, no man is poor. Lacking them, the richest are in penury" . . . From a ten-year-old in Toledo: "The moms on our street are going to take us out begging on Beggar's Night. We are going to give the pennies we get to the children of the U'N. Kids in lots of towns are doing that. Are they in Columbus?

From somewhere—An engagement: A period of urge on the verge of a merge . . . A man had gone repeatedly to doctors about his feet. They were purple, and he was worried. After a series of shots, pills, etc, it was discovered the cause of the deep rich purple feet was non-fast-color socks . . . From "Breaks — Unintentional laughs by tired newspaper men and others": He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital for treatment, but left there this morning with no bones broken . . . He was terrified. There was the tiger crouching, ready to bounce . . . Eleven hurt as muses collide . . . Dr. Blank says color-blindness occurs most often in people of high intelligence. Only one per cent of the women examined were found to be color-blind . . . At seven-thirty the choir will give a scared concert . . . She flew from New York to Washington during a severe election storm . . . the marriage was a very quiet affair and was unattended by brides' maids and bridegrooms . . . All the shops are closed, the streets are decked with flags and at night the village squire is illuminated . . . George Smith is the proud possessor of a brand new Chevrolet sedan and also a new wife, having traded in the old one for which he received a liberal allowance . . . For Mother's Day, send Mother a gift of hardly ever-blooming rose bushes . . . Prof. Smith visited the school room last week and lectured on Insect Pests. A large number were present . . . By an unfortunate typographical error we were made to say on Tuesday that the departing Mr. Blank was a member of the defective branch of the police force. Of course this should have read, "The detective branch of the police force."

CD SURPRISE ALERT TO AFFECT COMMUNITY

Civil Defense will hold a surprise alert during the week of November 8. The alert will probably take place between the hours of 11 a. m. and 3 p. m.

"Operation Quick Kick," the name of this alert, will be limited to 10 minutes of public participation. Traffic will be stopped when the sirens sound the warning signal. All industrial, business, and public concerns are urged to hold 10 minutes of drill before the week of the alert.

For the purposes of foreseeing the problem, Civil Defense officials are imagining that Columbus will be hit with a 5X bomb, which is equivalent to 100,000 tons of dynamite.

WHAT IS A RECREATION CENTER?

Famous Recreation Authority Offers Inspiring Definition

A recreation center is a symbol of the American way of life. Recreation buildings and equipment, fields and courts, budgets and statistics, programs and schedules—these are material things, but a recreation center is symbolic. It is a symbol of the American Way as manifested in our play and recreation.

The recreation center is a symbol of FREEDOM — freedom to choose the kind of recreation which pleases us best and in the company of congenial companions. Regimentation, compulsion, coercion, and rejection, have no place in the recreation center. One may come and go as he pleases, be a performer or observer, join with others or hold back—in short, be himself as he wills himself to be. Here he is, of all places, a free agent.

The recreation center is a symbol of achievement. Here one may experience the thrill of development beyond the record of yesterday and in comparison with the achievement of others. Much of the thrill of recreation is derived from social comparison and competition. Everyone should be permitted to excel in something or in some manner. It is not necessary that everyone becomes a champion. It is sufficient for self-esteem and respect of others to excel in a small circle one's years. The art of leadership in the recreation center is to discover and plan ways in which everyone can excel.

The recreation center is a symbol of security. One feels secure when he has sympathy, understanding, and loyalty of others who can sustain him in his weakness, and who can reassure him in his doubts. To be secure one must belong. One achieves this sense of security often in his play or hobby group; hence, at the place or center of his recreation where he finds congenial, understanding acquaintance. If today, the neighborhood is merely a subdivision of land with houses, the recreation center may supply what has been lost namely, an agency to which one can belong and have allegiance.

The recreation center is a symbol of quality in recreation. Elsewhere boys may be exploited in sports for the sadistic satisfaction of audiences or monetary gain of managers. In the recreation center sheer fun and achievement for recognition, if not for self-gratification, are the motivating forces. In the arts, beauty is sought; in the dance, grace; in music, harmony; in sports, efficiency and form; and in all activities, good manners. That which degrades the character, profanes the manners or destroys the body does not belong in the recreation center.

The recreation center is the symbol of leadership—leadership of trained professionals who are as well prepared for this service as members of other professions; a symbol of leadership also of many volunteers who contribute their part in countless ways, such as group leaders, committee members, monitors, attendants, coaches, managers, score-keepers and hostesses. The volunteer aids in a recreation center are themselves a team with highly differentiated duties. Their captain is the professional recreation director. Their usefulness and influence reflect the qualities and inspiration of the recreation director.

MATCHES—SMOKING

Chief cause, not only of home fires but of all fires, continues to be matches and smoking—as it has been for years. To prevent such fires, the National Board of Fire Underwriters advises these simple safety precautions:

1. Provide plenty of big ashtrays—the kind that won't tip over easily—and use them!
2. Never throw a cigarette or match from a car window. Use the car ashtray instead
3. Never smoke in bed!
4. When emptying ashtrays, be sure that every match and butt is out.
5. Never toss a lighted match away. Hold it for a minute after blowing it out, then put it in an ashtray
6. Before going to bed, especially after entertaining, inspect the living room or game room to be sure no butts are smoldering under cushions or on tables.

EXPLAINED

Policeman — Excuse me, sir, but your lights are out

Motorist — Thanks, but it does not really matter.

Policeman—By the way, do you have your license?

Motorist — No; I never had one.

Policeman —How are your brakes?

Motorist—Rotten.

Policeman—That's three violations. I'll have to arrest you.

Motorist's Wife—Oh, don't pay attention to what he says, officer. He always talks that way when he's drunk.

Mart Motorists Enjoy Same Law, Insurance Rights

Motorists who frequently use the local shopping centers may well have been concerned over the recent report that such private areas have no official protection of any law against violations of stop signs and traffic violations by more careless motorists.

However, their fears, if any, have been put to rest by a statement made early this week by Robert French, executive secretary of the Central Point Business Association, who said that all such private shopping centers, including Central Point and the new Great Western Mart, are policed by a privately employed staff for that purpose.

French stated that in case of an accident, these deputies call the police who have jurisdiction over the area in question, who, in turn, may make an accident report, the same as on public property, in order that the motorists involved may present their claims to their insurance companies.

If the case concerns a flagrant violation, such as drunken driving, the deputies can file an affadavit for arrest with the police department which has jurisdiction.

Increased Caution Among School Pupils After Dark Called For In AAA Posters

With the early hours of evening darkness now upon us, the Columbus Automobile Club has alerted school children of the area to be extra careful when traveling the streets and highways after dark.

In the third of a series of monthly traffic safety posters being distributed throughout schools here, the auto club advises youngsters to "wear white after dark" to stay alive in traffic.

Russell H. Campbell, general manager of the Columbus Automobile Club, said the school safety poster for November being placed in school classrooms and corridors starting today points up that children can protect themselves from danger by wearing clothing which makes them readily visible along roadways at night.

The poster design, which won a first place in the elementary school division of the 10th national AAA safety poster contest last spring for Caryl Williamson, a 14-year-old student at the Tappan School, Detroit, Mich., shows a great white owl looking down on a scene in which the headlights of an automobile are picking up two youngsters dressed in white at the side of the road. "Its lesson, which we hope will be communicated to every child who sees it, is a good one," Campbell commented. "Parents, too, should bear it in mind and offer their children the example to follow in forming good traffic safety habits."

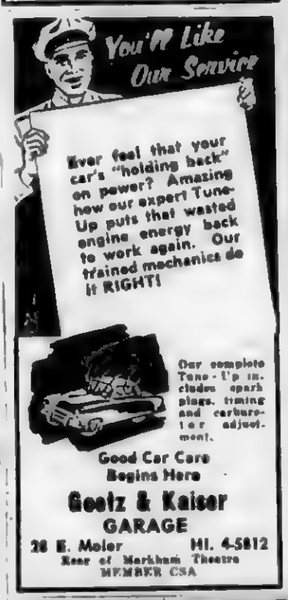
FRIDAY IS PLAYDAY

"No school Friday!" is a happy sound to the ears of Central Ohio youngsters.

Novice G. Fawcett, Superintendent of Columbus public schools, announced early this week that classes would be suspended Friday, Nov. 5, in both elementary and secondary schools, to enable teachers to attend the annual meeting of the Central Ohio Teachers' Association.

The morning session of the meeting will be held in the Coliseum at the Ohio State Fairgrounds with author and celebrity Bennett Cerf as the featured speaker. Luncheon and afternoon meetings, following the first session, will be held throughout the area.

Study Reveals How Kids Perish In Home Fires



Child deaths resulting from fire are increasing!

Latest estimates indicate that today fire claims the lives of some 3,000 youngsters under 14

A study of newspaper clippings of hundreds of fires shows an alarming number of children die trapped in burning homes. Commenting on this fact, the National Board of Fire Underwriters stressed the need for these important safety precautions:

YOUR BRANCH LIBRARY

Parsons Avenue Branch Acquaints Its Readers With Latest Volumes Acquired

The Parsons Avenue Branch Library wishes to acquaint its patrons with some of its new non-fiction books.

"Formosa Beachhead" by Geraldine Fitch, who is an intimate friend of the Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-shek. The author is able to give a vivid, close-up picture of all aspects of Chinese life on Formosa. She answers many of the questions that all of us are asking about the Nationalist government.

The "Age of Suspicion," by James A. Wechsler, is a discussion by a prominent newspaper writer of the methods being employed today in our fight against Communism.

"McCarthy and His Enemies" by William F. Buckley, Jr., and L. Brent Bopell, both of whom have chosen to study and take sides in the intellectual brawl that has evolved around McCarthy. They have studied the man and his record and have decided that the ultimate felony of reason has been committed, not by McCarthy, but by McCarthy's opponents.

"India and the Awakening East" is a new book by Eleanor Roosevelt. In this book, Mrs. Roosevelt opens a door on the East. With her awareness of people and their problems and with a sense of humor ever near the surface, she has combined a lively account of her personal experiences with an analysis of the social and economic difficulties facing the Eastern nations.

"Now Frontiers for Freedom" by Ervin D. Canham, who is the distinguished editor of the Christian Science Monitor. This book is a description of the American system in answer to Marxism. Mr. Canham analyzes and presents the lessons national experience has taught us and presents our system of private enterprise and voluntary organization as a means of transmitting our meaning to the world.

"Struggle for Africa," by Vernon Bartlett, is the first comprehensive survey of the continent's vast range of tremendous problems—economic, political, social and cultural. And they are discussed with deep concern and human compassion but also with scholarly detachment and scrupulous fairness toward all sides involved in the struggle.

"The Real Americans" by A. Hyatt Verrill, seeks to convey a better knowledge and understanding of the Indians of the United States, to tell of their lives, customs, arts and industries, their psychological and mental reactions, their religious myths and legends. In short, the volume seeks to show their human characteristics and not the shell they assume when in the presence of strange white men.

"Decorating on a Budget," by Elizabeth Ogg, is a practical guide and invaluable whether you are redoing an existing home or furnishing your first niche. The emphasis throughout is on dynamic, flexible settings that will give long-term use and real satisfaction.

"Growth and Development of the Young Child." by Rand, Sweeny and Vincent, is the fifth edition, which has been planned and rewritten to utilize new knowledge of development of children, their needs and the environmental influences affecting their development. A very complete book, it discusses every phase of child development, including physical, intellectual and emotional phases of the problem.

Mrs. Edey presents a charming picture of her childhood in the gay nineties. It is an account of the growing up of a brother and a sister on a farm some 65 miles from New York City. Mrs. Edey, now seventy years old, relives her childhood as if the yesterdays were still today, vivid and excitingly uncertain in the wonders they offer.

South Side Y Marion Township Club Opens New Gymnasium

The South Side YMCA Marion Township Clubs opened their season programs on Wednesday, Nov. 3. The clubs meet every Wednesday night from 7 until 10 in the gyms of Clarfield, Smith Road, Scioto Trail and Fornof Schools.

Club memberships are open to all Marion Township young people who are in the seventh grade or over. No top age is designated for girls' participation.

Young men 18 years of age and older are not eligible to participate in this club program, unless they are still attending high school. However, a club program for young men, 18 years of age and over, is available if enough interest is shown.

The following volunteer advisers are meeting with the various clubs: Smith Road—George and Wilma Fisher; Scioto Trail—Joe DiGioia and Shirley Aisel; Fornof—Tillie Houghton; and Clarfield — Herman Kuehn.

Any person interested in this program should contact the club adviser or call the South Side Branch YMCA at HI. 4-2151. Also, additional advisers could be used.

Smart Shoppers Joining The Trend To South Side

The trend is to the South. Yes, nowadays many people are realizing that the items carried up the uptown stores are also carried by their local merchants and usually at the same prices. By shopping close to home, smart buyers are able to complete their shopping jaunts and still not have the headaches provided by going uptown. Uptown headaches are free but many shoppers would just as soon do without the headaches and shop at home. Follow the trend and turn south.

Many S. Side Merchants Ponder Parking Problems

Parking on the South Side has always been a headache. But now there are quite a few parking lots open to the public with no charge for parking in anyone of them. This is one feature that beats uptown with its outlandish parking costs. No parking problem today when you shop on the South Side.

South Side Settlement Staff Members To Study Needs Of Facility's Users

These first cold days with snow in the air will send more children to South Side Settlement as soon as school is out. In order to meet the increasing demands for a varied program, the staff is busy in its spare time developing and exploring new project activities. Saturday, Nov. 6, an all-day workshop will be held at the Settlement for staff members only, so that they may be better able to help the children later on.

A questionnaire has been given to some of the children of Reeb Avenue School to determine the need for a school lunch program at the South Side Settlement after January 1. This service was discontinued two years ago, but if there is a real need it is hoped to resume it. Parents receiving the questionnaire are asked to cooperate by filling it out and returning it to the school. This week the Settlement is starting to organize the All Star basketball team and train it for the city tournaments.

Settlement children are planning a Thanksgiving program to be given at the settlement on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 24.

There will be no activities at South Side Settlement on Friday, Nov. 5, either afternoon or evening. The Settlement House will also be closed Veterans's Day, Nov. 11.

Schiller Reports Large Attendance At Party Co-Sponsored By Council Of South Side Orgs.

Costumed children and interested parents filled Schiller Recreation Center last Saturday evening, when Schiller held its annual Halloween party in cooperation with the Council of South Side Organizations.

A crowd of approximately 1,000 parents and children took part in the activities of the evening. Movies, costume judging, puppet shows, a "Cadaver Castle," and refreshments were the main events to delight the many young ghosts and goblins.

Costume judging was perhaps the most spectacular event. Jerry Fedderson was master of ceremonies and Mrs. H. A. Bowman, Mrs. Schmitt, and Mrs. D. T. Crawshaw were the judges for this event. Awards were given to boys and girls in their respective age groups, six years and under; seven, eight and nine years, 10, 11 and 12 years.

Winners for the funniest costumes were Stanley Harrison, Micky Jepsen, Dale Vogelseng, Linda Lewis, Martin Mitchell, and Bonnie Husse. The wierdest costume winners were Ronald Nordman, Ellen Sells, Denny Nordman, Caroline Baum, Richard Goldel, and Carol Sells. For the prettiest costumes, prizes were given to Michael Shinner, Mary K. Milligan, Randall Butler, Patti Crawshaw, Bill Hoffman, and Judith Park. Prizes for the most original costumes went to John Dury, Dee Ann Riegel Ralph Lemon, Mary Ann Vandereyder, Tom Reich, and Maureen McCoy.

JOSEPH NEFF, son of Mrs. Rita Neff, 667 Lathrop-st, and Mr. Wayne Neff, 852 Carpenter-st, received his navy boot training at Bainbridge, Md. Now on leave, he will return to Bainbridge where he will receive further assignment. He is now seaman apprentice.

Schiller Pre-Season Basketball Leagues Now Going At Full Steam

The pre-season basketball leagues at Schiller Recreation Center began last week with all five leagues having a full schedule. More teams are needed for the Senior Independent League, which plays its games on Thursday night.

The Young Adult League on Monday night had a complete set of games. The first game between the Trojans and Dick's Marathon, went to the Trojans by the score of 30 to 21. Ray Roehrenbeck paced the Trojans with 13 points. Wilson Avenue Christian Church defeated the Union Co. in the second game 25 to 22. Black of Wilson's and Wooten of the Union scored 12 points each. The third game was the closest played of the evening, with the Marion Independents winning out over the Black Knights by the score of 40 to 38. Mel Haws took scoring honors with 16 points for the Black Knights with John Harkless of Marion Independents closely following with 14 points.

The Senior Church League on Wednesdays with a full schedule saw St. John Evangelical and Reformed defeat Central Community Church in the first game 37-19. Schatz and Port paced St. Johns with 15 and 13 points respectively. In the second game of the evening Wilson Avenue Christian Church defeated South Methodist by the score of 31 to 25. Callahan of Wilson's paced the scorers with 12 points. St. Leo's won by forfeit over Gates Fourth Methodist in the third game.

The Senior Independent League on Thursday, with two games scheduled, had only one game played. In that game the Black Hawks defeated the Golden Eagles 29 to 20. Tom Richards and Ron Jockell led the Black Hawks with 12 and 10 points respectively. The second game of the evening was a double forfeit, with neither team showing to play.

There were two games in the Junior League on Friday. In the first game St. Leo's No. 2 team defeated Corpus Christi 18 to 10. Reis of St. Leo's scored eight points. St. Leo's No. 1 team defeated the Ramblers in the second game by the score of 17 - 8. Jasurski of St. Leo's topped the scorers with 13 points.

The Intermediate League also had two games last week. The first game between the Golden Eagles and Wilson Avenue Christian Church saw the Golden Eagles come out on top by the score of 29 to 12. Quillian and Crabtree of the Eagles held scorers with 12 and 11 points respectively. The second game was a closely contested game with St. Leo's defeating Corpus Christi 30 to 28. Sekinger of St. Leo's scored 15 points, while Harris and D. Bauman of Corpus came next with 13 and 12 points respectively.

The girls' league games to be played at Schiller Recreation Center will begin next week. Any girl interested in being a member of a team should contact Jane Hil. at Schiller Center. A meeting of coaches and directors of the girls' teams will be held this evening at Schiller Center at 7:30. At this time a schedule will be set up and general rules discussed.

South Side Bell Ringer

"For Whom The Bell Tolls"

By Tom Sharp

Now is the hour. Well, not quite the hour but still it is time for you to start thinking about Christmas shopping. Two stores are opening their toylands this week end — B. F. Goodrich and Hoermle's.

I can't say more for one than the other because both stores are offering toys that any child would be delighted to have. Yes this Christmas can be quite interesting to some little tyke if his parents and bond relatives just shop with the stores advertising their wares in the Leader.

Changing the subject a bit, let's talk about lay-away plans. Many stores have this convenient service, but six cooperative merchants have banded together to advertise this fact. Their ads will be a constant reminder to you that lay-away now and be prepared for tomorrow" is a smart idea. Look through this issue and see the lay-away ad.

Another new merchant to participate in constructive advertising with us is United Roofing Co. of Lockbourne-rd. Look for this firm's ad this week and see the specials offered in roofing. They're really the tops.

CAPSULE ADVICE

Watch for Eichhorn's new market to open soon . . . Watch for something special to happen at Foodtown . . . Shop with merchants sponsoring the Christmas Jubilee . . . Look for color televising at Goodrich . . . Hunting licenses are sold at H&S Hardware.

And last but not least, be sure that you "Live on the South Side, SHOP ON THE SOUTH SIDE." Tell the merchants you saw their ad in the Leader.

Many South Side Recreational Facilities Slated To Expand And Improve Following Bond Issue's Passage

SOUTHEAST LIONS DELIVER THE GOODS—Shown above are members of the southeast Lions Club last week as they delivered new bicycle racks to St. Leo's School. Club representatives also made a formal presentation to the parents' organization at the group's first meeting of the season held in the school's new assembly hall. The racks will be placed on the playground and will accommodate both boys' and girls' bikes. The Southeast Lions Club also furnished various rhythm band instruments for the first grade. Lion William Hoermle made the presentation on behalf of the club and a short acceptance speech was made by Charles Carter, eighth grade pupil. Pupils in the above picture, left to right, are Rosemary Ebelberger, Joy Snyder and Charles Carter. Lions from left are Ray Phillips, first vice-president; Dave Wood; George Miller, Ezra Cook, William Hoermle; George Loudermilk, project chairman, and Henry Barry. Present for the ceremony, but not shown, was Frank Neubeck.

Schiller Center's Renovations To Cost An Estimated $32,000

The $1.5 million dollar recreation bond issue passed by Columbus voters on Nov. 2 will enable the city recreation department to expand and improve recreational facilities throughout the South Side, according to an announcement yesterday by department officials

All South Side playgrounds will be generally improved through the purchase of new equipment, the construction of wire fences as safety measures, and the addition of new facilities.

Schiller Recreation Center, one of the oldest and heaviest used recreation buildings in the city, will be remodeled and expanded at an estimated cost of $32,000 This project should enable Schiller to meet the increased program needs in the annexation decisions South Side on a year-around basis. In 1948 Schiller was extensively remodeled, but the increase in the quality and quantity of the recreation program has warranted the enlargement of the building, a spokesman for the recreation department declared

Another major project will be the construction of a playfield at Deshler playground. This playfield will include lights for baseball, softball, and football, and will also include seating facilities. Land is being acquired in the Deshler area and with the cooperation of the board of education, a lighted playfield at Deshler will be created.

In addition to the above projects, the bond issue will allow for the following improvements in the South Side

1. Construction of multiple use hard surfaced playareas on Lincoln and Schiller playgrounds
2. Construction of wading pools or spray pools on Southview Playground
3. Repairs and improvements to existing playfields which include baseball, softball, and football facilities at Southview and Lincoln Playgrounds
4. Construction of tennis courts at Deshler and Lincoln Playgrounds
5. Developing day camp facilities at Southview Park
6. Developing picnic areas at Lincoln Park
7. Construction of lighted shuffleboard and horseshoe courts at Lincoln and Livingston Playgrounds.

In addition to the above improvements, approximately $25,000 will be spent on the remodeling of the ground floor of Memorial Hall for a recreation center for senior citizens, and $35,000 will be used to remodel Indian Village Camp Both of these projects will benefit South Siders although they are not located in this area

The accomplishment of the recreational improvements will largely depend on how soon the Metropolitan Committee approves the issuance of bonds and how many bonds they will issue at any one time. This committee will govern the release of all city bonds passed in the last election, so that the tax rate will not be increased to a very large degree.

Commissioners Approve 326.9 Acre Annexation

Franklin County commissioners last Friday approved the annexation of two tracts of land in Marion Township, totalling 326.9 acres, to the city of Columbus.

The first one, a petition for the annexation for a tract of 44.9 acres, had Frank Alibrando, 1350 Lockbourne-rd, as agent for the petitioners.

The second petition, however, was bitterly contested on grounds that not enough signatures were contained of the resident freeholders in the 282-acre tract. Roy McCloud, 1281 Fairwood-av, and the attorney for those seeking annexation, Harrison W. Smith, Jr., showed to the satisfaction of the officials that 146 valid signatures were on the petition while only 135 were needed.

Commissioner Koontz moved that both areas be accepted and the other commissioners agreed.

In their action Friday, commissioners upheld their pre-election declaration that regardless of the Nov. 2 election result, they would not consider it a factor in future

Linden McKinley Pours On Power, Racks Up 32-0 Win Over South

By Jerry Dover

Linden McKinley kept in city league contention Friday night at South despite the absence of star Fullback Larry Haase and Speedy Halfback Byron Riffle by running roughshod over the Bulldogs, 32-0.

Haase sprained his ankle earlier in the week and Riffle was out with pneumonia. Linden cannot win the city league title, but can gain a tie if South can knock off East tomorrow night and Linden can beat Central.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but Linden came on fast in the second quarter, scoring two touchdowns. After an 80-yard sustained drive, Dick Southall sneaked over from the one-yard line. John Campbell converted. A Southall-to-Al Garey pass was good for the second TD, from 11 yards out, which made the score 13-0 at half in favor of Linden.

The Panthers struck again in the third quarter when Reggie Williams intercepted one of Bobby Hart's passes and returned it to the Linden 46. On the option play Jerry Whitacre pitched out to Jack Spicer, who scooted 51 yards to the South three yard line, where Whitacre took it over on the next play.

The final two scores for Linden came in the fourth quarter on a 19-yard run by Jack Spicer and a two yard buck by Jim Moss.

The deepest penetration that South made into Linden Territory was in the first quarter when the Bulldogs reached the Panther 34-yard line. However, the locals were forced to punt because of the rough five-man line of Linden.

The Panthers made 14 first downs compared to seven for the Bulldogs and completed four of eight passes. South completed five of its 12 heaves.

The Bulldogs close their season tomorrow night by being host to the league-leading East High Tigers.

'Confederate Money' Jackpot Could Mean $59 Today For Leader Readers

South Siders seemed unable to crack last week's $49 jackpot and neither did any of our readers present any of the $1 insignia at the South Side Leader Office. Consequently, the currency behind the six undiscovered insignia is added to this week's jackpot, raising the amount to $59!

In addition to the $5 insignia, five more $1 insignia will be in circulation again this week. You have six good chances of becoming a winner, so why not check through the advertisements of the paper you are now reading.

If you are the holder of one of this week's lucky copies of the South Side Leader, the insignia will be plainly stamped on one of the advertisements. Be sure to follow the simple instructions printed in the box shown here to collect your "Confederate" currency, which can be redeemed at any of the business establishments advertising in this issue of the South Side Leader

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper, take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av (before Friday at 5 p. m.). It will be redeemed for $59 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

HOT DOGS, SEZ AD-USER

After spending $30 advertising elsewhere in an attempt to find homes for 11 puppies, Eleanor Holloway of 2167 Bristol-rd placed a want-ad in this newspaper last week. And every doggone one of the loveable rascals was sold in very short order.

"I started getting calls early Thursday morning and they're still coming in," reported the pleased advertiser, who is now a solid booster for the power of these little miracle salesmen.

For similar startling results with your selling problem and to carry your message to more than 32 000 select families, why don't you follow her example? It's easy. Simply call HI. 4-9262 or JO. 7331 for courteous assistance in the best wording of your personal salesman.

Today's Citizens Assn. Meeting Commemorates 2 Solemn Holidays

The November meeting of the Marion Township Citizens Association will include a variety of interesting features today at 8 p.m., when the group convenes to commemorate two solemn November holidays.

Group singing, an address by a prominent member of the House of Representatives, a talk by a Marion Township minister and a drama produced by several male students of the Marion-Franklin High School will develop the two themes of Thanksgiving Day and Veterans Day.

The meeting to be held in the auditorium of the Marion-Franklin High School, has been planned with the cooperation of Harold Boles, Marion Local School superintendent, and other members of the faculty.

John Chester, Jr., a member of the House of Representatives and navy veteran, will deliver an address dedicated to the veterans being honored on the Nov. 11 holiday.

Rev. William A. Roberts, minister of the Hope EUB Church in Marion Township, will give the invocation and a talk entitled "The Pursuit of Happiness."

The play will be presented by a cast made up of male students who are members of various armed forces reserve units, and will be directed by Walter Schott, also a member of the reserves. The presentation has been written by the students and is entitled "Tribute to Veterans."

Granville Thomas, another faculty member, will lead the group in patriotic songs at the opening and closing of the meeting.

Granville Thomas, another faculty member, will lead the group in patriotic songs at the opening and closing of the meeting

Superintendent Boles has stated that the auditorium has a seating capacity of 785, but as yet has never been filled on any occasion. Well-wishers are hoping that Marion residents will respond to the invitation to attend and exhibit their community spirit by turning out in large numbers.

South Side Masonic Lodge 692 Dedicated In Traditional Rites

In traditional Masonic form, South Gate Lodge, 692, F&AM, was dedicated on Saturday, Oct. 30, before a large assemblage of members and visiting brethren. Ed W. Kuns, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, was the presiding officer.

Following an organ prelude beginning at 1 p.m., the colors were posted at 1:30 by a color guard from Mt. Vernon Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar.

In the interval before the entrance of the Grand Lodge, visiting brethren were recognized by Worshipful Master Don Kocher, who also expressed his thanks to his committee for the splendid job it had done in the preparations for the afternoon.

Upon the entrance of the Grand Lodge, grand honors were extended by the Grand Master, and the members of the Grand Lodge were introduced by the Grand Marshal. Joe's contribution is outstanding for this semester although other contestants are also doing an excellent job. Joe's classmates in this picture are representing Room 207, which won the home room prize in the same contest. Left to right are Gallie Brewer, Mary Ann Yetter, Mary Sue Biesedell, Joe Rike, Dan Branten, Miss Helen Fetner, Mrs. Miriam Hubbard and J. H. Shevlin.

Councilman Seeks To End Water-Sewer Service To Areas Spurning Columbus

City Councilman Albert B. Gregg clearly included Marion Township in his plea before council Monday night to discontinue water and sewer service to areas that rejected Columbus' bid for annexation and decided at the polls either to incorporate or join other municipalities.

Councilman Joseph R. Jones asked City Attorney Chalmers P. Wylie to rule on how soon water and sewer rates can be raised in suburban areas. The city attorney's ruling will largely determine the "punitive action" of City Council in next week's meeting.

H. Boyer, Ex-Sheriff, Succumbs At Age 82

H. Walter Boyer, who served as Franklin County sheriff in 1924 and 1925, died Monday after an illness of two years. He was 82.

Mr. Boyer died at the home of his son, Marion L. Boyer, 1795 Franklin Park South. The founder and operator of the Boyer Supply House, a restaurant supply firm at 272 S. High-st, he retired two years ago. He was a member of the Morgan Memorial Methodist Church.

Surviving besides his son are two grandchildren, a niece and a nephew. Services will be at 10:30 a. m. Thursday from the Leach & Son Funeral Home. Burial will be made in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Steelton Merchants Association Decides To Obtain Trash Barrels

At the last regular meeting of the Steelton Merchants Association held at St. Ladislaus Church, several things of importance were decided that will help all South Siders.

Otto Meier reported for the Christmas Lights committee that the lights will probably be installed in plenty of time for the approaching holiday season.

Also reported at the meeting was the fact that after many years of association and citizen effort street lights are now in the process of being placed on Parsons-av. This progressive step will be applauded by residents of the South Side and several members of the Steelton Merchants deserve credit for never relaxing in their efforts on this matter.

Another big step was taken when the trash container committee gave its report and described containers used in other parts of town, which could be used on the South Side

Members voted to acquire 20 of these receptacles and place them at advantageous places along Parsons-av, in an attempt to keep trash and rubbish off the streets.

The Steelton Merchants membership expressed hope that everyone will use them instead of throwing paper along the community's main thoroughfare.

Plans were laid for the annual banquet to be held in the near future and a nominating committee was appointed to prepare for the coming elections.

Because only a limited number of members was present, it was suggested that everyone attending call on another member and bring him along.

Next meeting to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 7.

The "reasonableness of incorporating Marion Township" will be the subject of a suit to be filed within 10 days of the Nov. 2 election, Attorney Harrison W. Smith, Jr., announced last Saturday.

Smith said his clients would question among other things the ability of such a community to remain financially solvent, the tactics of incorporation proponents prior to the election, and the lack of law and justice in the community.

Schiller Reports Large Attendance At Party Co-Sponsored By Council Of South Side Orgs.

Costumed children and interested parents filled Schiller Recreation Center last Saturday evening, when Schiller held its annual Halloween party in cooperation with the Council of South Side Organizations.

A crowd of approximately 1,000 parents and children took part in the activities of the evening. Movies, costume judging, puppet shows, a "Cadaver Castle," and refreshments were the main event: to delight the many young ghosts and goblins.

Costume judging was perhaps the most spectacular event. Jerry Fedderson was master of ceremonies and Mrs. H. A. Bowman, Mrs. Schmitt, and Mrs. D. T. Crawshaw were the judges for this event. Awards were given to boys and girls in their respective age groups, six years and under; seven, eight and nine years, 10, 11 and 12 years.

Winners for the funniest costumes were Stanley Harrison, Micky Jepsen, Dale Vogelseng, Linda Lewis, Martin Mitchell, and Bonnie Husse. The wierdest costume winners were Ronald Nordman, Ellen Sells, Denny Nordman, Caroline Baum, Richard Goldel, and Carol Sells. For the prettiest costumes, prizes were given to Michael Shinner, Mary K. Milligan, Randall Butter, Patti Crawshaw, Bill Hoffman, and Judith Park. Prizes for the most original costumes went to John Dury, Dee Ann Riegel, Ralph Lemon, Mary Ann Vandereyder, Tom Reich, and Maureen McCoy.

Sekinger of St. Leo's scored 15 points, while Harris and D. Bauman of Corpus came next with 13 and 12 points respectively.

The girls' league games to be played at Schiller Recreation Center will begin next week. Any girl interested in being a member of a team should contact Jane Hil, at Schiller Center. South Side Bell Ringer

"For Whom The Bell Tolls"

By Tom Sharp

Now is the hour. Well, not quite the hour but still it is time for you to start thinking about Christmas shopping. Two stores are opening their toylands this week end — B. F. Goodrich and Hoermle's.

I can't say more for one than the other because both stores are offering toys that any child would be delighted to have. Yes this Christmas can be quite interesting to some little tyke if his parents and bond relatives just shop with the stores advertising their wares in the Leader.

Changing the subject a bit, let's talk about lay-away plans. Many stores have this convenient service, but six cooperative merchants have banded together to advertise this fact. Their ads will be a constant reminder to you that lay-away now and be prepared for tomorrow" is a smart idea. Look through this issue and see the lay-away ad.

Another new merchant to participate in constructive advertising with us is United Roofing Co. of Lockbourne-rd. Look for this firm's ad this week and see the specials offered in roofing. They're really the tops.

CAPSULE ADVICE

Watch for Eichhorn's new market to open soon . . . Watch for something special to happen at Foodtown . . . Shop with merchants sponsoring the Christmas Jubilee . . . Look for color televising at Goodrich . . . Hunting licenses are sold at H&S Hardware.

And last but not least, be sure that you "Live on the South Side, SHOP ON THE SOUTH SIDE." Tell the merchants you saw their ad in the Leader.

Many South Side Recreational Facilities Slated To Expand And Improve Following Bond Issue's Passage

SOUTHEAST LIONS DELIVER THE GOODS—Shown above are members of the southeast Lions Club last week as they delivered new bicycle racks to St. Leo's School. Club representatives also made a formal presentation to the parents' organization at the group's first meeting of the season held in the school's new assembly hall. The racks will be placed on the playground and will accommodate both boys' and girls' bikes. The Southeast Lions Club also furnished various rhythm band instruments for the first grade. Lion William Hoermle made the presentation on behalf of the club and a short acceptance speech was made by Charles Carter, eighth grade pupil. Pupils in the above picture, left to right, are Rosemary Ebelberger, Jay Snyder and Charles Carter. Lions from left are Roy Phillips, first vice-president; Dave Wood; George Miller, Ezra Cook, William Hoermle; George Loudermilk, project chairman, and Henry Barry. Present for the ceremony, but not shown, was Frank Neubeck.

Schiller Center's Renovations To Cost An Estimated $32,000

The $1.5 million dollar recreation bond issue passed by Columbus voters on Nov. 2 will enable the city recreation department to expand and improve recreational facilities throughout the South Side, according to an announcement yesterday by department officials

All South Side playgrounds will be generally improved through the purchase of new equipment, the construction of wire fences as safety measures, and the addition of new facilities

Schiller Recreation Center, one of the oldest and heaviest used recreation buildings in the city, will be remodeled and expanded at an estimated cost of $32,000. This project should enable Schiller to meet the increased program needs in the annexation decisions South Side on a year-around basis. In 1948 Schiller was extensively remodeled, but the increase in the quality and quantity of the recreation program has warranted the enlargement of the building, a spokesman for the recreation department declared

Another major project will be the construction of a playfield at Deshler playground. This playfield will include lights for baseball, softball, and football, and will also include seating facilities. Land is being acquired in the Deshler area and with the cooperation of the board of education, a lighted playfield at Deshler will be created.

In addition to the above projects, the bond issue will allow for the following improvements in the South Side

1. Construction of multiple use hard surfaced playareas on Lincoln and Schiller playgrounds
2. Construction of wading pools or spray pools on Southview Playground
3. Repairs and improvements to existing playfields which include baseball, softball and football facilities at Southview and Lincoln Playgrounds
4. Construction of tennis courts at Deshler and Lincoln Playgrounds
5. Developing day camp facilities at Southview Park
6. Developing picnic areas at Lincoln Park.
7. Construction of lighted shuffleboard and horseshoe courts at Lincoln and Livingston Playgrounds.

In addition to the above improvements, approximately $25,000 will be spent on the remodeling of the ground floor of Memorial Hall for a recreation center for senior citizens, and $35,000 will be used to remodel Indian Village Camp. Both of these projects will benefit South Siders although they are not located in this area

The accomplishment of the recreational improvements will largely depend on how soon the Metropolitan Committee approves the issuance of bonds and how many bonds they will issue at any one time. This committee will govern the release of all city bonds passed in the last election, so that the tax rate will not be increased to a very large degree.

Linden McKinley Pours On Power, Racks Up 32-0 Win Over South

By Jerry Dover

Linden McKinley kept in city league contention Friday night at South despite the absence of star Fullback Larry Haase and Speedy Halfback Byron Riffle by running roughshod over the Bulldogs, 32-0.

Haase sprained his ankle earlier in the week and Riffle was out with pneumonia. Linden cannot win the city league title, but can gain a tie if South can knock off East tomorrow night and Linden can beat Central.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but Linden came on fast in the second quarter, scoring two touchdowns. After an 80-yard sustained drive, Dick Southall sneaked over from the one-yard line. John Campbell converted. A Southall-to-Al Garey pass was good for the second TD, from 11 yards out, which made the score 13-0 at half in favor of Linden.

The Panthers struck again in the third quarter when Reggie Williams intercepted one of Bobby Hart's passes and returned it to the Linden 46. On the option play Jerry Whitacre pitched out to Jack Spicer, who scooted 51 yards to the South three yard line, where Whitacre took it over on the next play.

The final two scores for Linden came in the fourth quarter on a 19-yard run by Jack Spicer and a two yard buck by Jim Moss.

The deepest penetration that South made into Linden Territory was in the first quarter when the Bulldogs reached the Panther 34-yard line. However, the locals were forced to punt because of the rough five-man line of Linden.

The Panthers made 14 first downs compared to seven for the Bulldogs and completed four of eight passes. South completed five of its 12 heaves.

The Bulldogs close their season tomorrow night by being host to the league-leading East High Tigers.

Commissioners Approve 326.9 Acre Annexation

Franklin County commissioners last Friday approved the annexation of two tracts of land in Marion Township, totalling 326.9 acres, to the city of Columbus.

The first one, a petition for the annexation for a tract of 44.9 acres, had Frank Alibrando, 1350 Lockbourne-rd, as agent for the petitioners.

The second petition, however, was bitterly contested on grounds that not enough signatures were contained of the resident freeholders in the 282-acre tract. Roy McCloud, 1281 Fairwood-av, and the attorney for those seeking annexation, Harrison W. Smith, Jr., showed to the satisfaction of the officials that 146 valid signatures were on the petition while only 135 were needed.

Commissioner Koontz moved that both areas be accepted and the other commissioners agreed.

In their action Friday, commissioners upheld their pre-election declaration that regardless of the Nov. 2 election result, they would not consider it a factor in future

Steelton Merchants Association Decides To Obtain Trash Barrels

At the last regular meeting of the Steelton Merchants Association held at St. Ladislaus Church, several things of importance were decided that will help all South Siders.

Otto Meier reported for the Christmas Lights committee that the lights will probably be installed in plenty of time for the approaching holiday season.

Also reported at the meeting was the fact that after many years of association and citizen effort street lights are now in the process of being placed on Parsons-av. This progressive step will be applauded by residents of the South Side and several members of the Steelton Merchants deserve credit for never relaxing in their efforts on this matter

Another big step was taken when the trash container committee gave its report and described containers used in other parts of town, which could be used on the South Side

Members voted to acquire 20 of these receptacles and place them at advantageous places along Parsons-av, in an attempt to keep trash and rubbish off the streets.

The Steelton Merchants membership expressed hope that everyone will use them instead of throwing paper along the community's main thoroughfare.

Plans were laid for the annual banquet to be held in the near future and a nominating committee was appointed to prepare for the coming elections

Because only a limited number of members was present, it was suggested that everyone attending call on another member and bring him along.

Next meeting to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 7. .

Councilman Joseph R. Jones asked City Attorney Chalmers P. Wylie to rule on how soon water and sewer rates can be raised in suburban areas. The city attorney's ruling will largely determine the "punitive action" of City Council in next week's meeting.

There will also be two specialty shows, the American Tabby and Tortie Club and the Windsor Solid Color Cat Club shows. Entries include short-haired domestics, Persians, Siamese, Manx and Burmese. The Gadabout

Bob Meinrod, 1366 Oakwood-av, merits our get-well wishes, after a "cutting" trip to Grant Hospital. We hope this edition finds him on the mend.

A standard joke about husbands is the "dead" letters in their coat pockets, and we finally heard of such a case. Mary Jane Wood wrote cards to her Trudeau Guild 17 comembers, giving them to friend hubby to mail. The Guild met, sans notification, however, so there's only one conclusion to come to.

Eber had a good reason for forgetting, though, since Mary Jane was in the hospital for an operation.

While we're thinking Trudeau 17, we'll tell you about the candy they're selling. They have a supply of white mints, peanut brittle and coconut brittle, and why not think of laying in your Christmas supply? The person to contact is Margaret Krause at HI. 3-4166.

Madeleine Oakley has her share of worries these days, seems like. Son George acquired a broken foot while playing, and then her dad was rushed to a Cambridge hospital desperately ill. The Oakley residence is at 333 Frebis-av.

A couple of birthdays loom large to two South Side "younger fry," so happy cake and ice cream day to Fritzie Wiechers, 236 E. Moler-st, on the 21st of the month, and to Nancy Rothwell, 370 S. Fifth-st, on Nov. 16.

The Art Castle combo will be entertaining the patients at Benjamin Franklin Hospital tonight, and we think they deserve a "thanks" for this good deed.

The Marion-Franklin Boosters Club will meet Monday evening, Nov. 15, at 8 o'clock, at the high school. The group is sponsoring a progressive party on Dec. 4. Tickets may be obtained from any of the Booster Club members at 50c a ticket. As an added attraction for the children, movies will be shown at the same time. Price for this is a nominal 10c.

The Itskin trio spent last week in Mercer County, deserting good old Franklin County for a few days. The time was spent visiting relatives.

Our deepest sympathy to the Reeb family, on the death of their daughter. And belatedly, to the Don Morris family, who also lost a daughter.

Three males of our acquaintance have November birth dates, so our usual wishes to Lou Whitacre, Harry Ruden and Larry Rumsey.

Ailing members of the community include Joe Spiker, 67 Southwood-av, and Mrs. Cary Gray. Get well soon, peoples.

Columbus friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fagley, formerly of 874 Ebner-st, will be happily surprised to hear that there's a new little Fagley in the family group. His name is Robert Ebson, and he arrived on Nov. 2. Congratulation cards may be sent to 6361 Robinson, Allen Park, Mich.

A young gentleman had an unexpected hospital trip when his appendix started acting up. The lad is Keith Bradley and he's a Southwood-av resident.

Roosevelt Junior High is having a fall festival tomorrow night, from 7:30 to 10:30. We plan to be there, analyzing handwritings. There will be lots to do and to eat, so put it on your "activity" list. You won't go wrong, we know.

We hope Elaine Smalley is on her way to health by now. She's been a mighty sick girl for nearly a month, and her friends would like to be assured that she's feeling better.

A gal named Mary must like coolish weather. She took some of the members home from a club meeting and instead of turning on the heater she gave them the air conditioner action instead! Husband John discovered it next morning, when he piled into the car, preparing to drive it to work! We heard it was supposed to be a cold, cold winter, so there's nothing like getting used to it early, hm?

Penny Heilman, 421 Siebert-st, had a nice celebration for her 13th birthday. She had some of her girl friends in for a "slumber" party and we hear they had a fine time. The young ladies who helped Penny to celebrate were Grace Welker, Donna Green, Linda Estep, Kathy Essig, Kaye Hussey, Gloria Leupp, Carol Fiscus, Jane Baldwin and Debby Didrick.

It won't be Millie Claar much longer. It will soon be Millie Meadows. Millie, of 640 Lathrop-st, and Charles Meadows of Chicago, Ill., are all set for wedding bells, and we want to wish them many, many years of happiness.

The Marion Township Firemen's Auxiliary will be having a bake sale at the S. High Kroger Store this Saturday, Nov. 13.

Harold Leonard has to admit he's not as spry as he "usta" be. He bent over and couldn't straighten up! It's a painful situation and we hope he's feeling better by now, indeed. We imagine Harold's brother, Buss, will be leary about accepting any more of Virginia's invitations to eat out. He did, and had to pick up the tab for the entire family!

That about does it for today, so we'll say adieu until next week. Till then, this has been

Christ In The Home

By

By JAMES H. LYON

May I take you to that home in Bethany, where Christ loved to go for a rest of body and refreshment of soul? That Bethany home possessed three types of personalities. These are revealed in John's beautiful reference: "Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus." (John 11:5).

Martha you will recall, was the active, energetic type. "Busy about many things" as Jesus once told her. Mary, her sister, was of the quiet thoughtful type, who sat at the feet of Jesus and talked with Him, for mental and spiritual refreshment. Then there was Lazarus, who makes us think of the suffering type, for Christ told His disciples of the sickness and later of Lazarus's death.

What gave that Bethany home lasting beauty and greatness was "The love of Christ was there." He was always the welcomed guest. The three types of persons living there loved Him, and John — the disciple who lived so near to the heart of Christ — noted this, and wrote: "Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus."

John's statement reveals to us that the love that radiated from that Bethany home fits every condition of personality, and every home, and makes a difference in our outlook and living. From that Bethany home let us remind our true selves, that despite the changes and sorrows that may come, the "Love and fellowship of the risen Christ can be ours" for going on, as it was there.

Are you the active type of person, Martha-like? His companionship will beautify and strengthen you in your daily activities.

If you are the quiet thoughtful type, Mary-like, Christ enhances such with His fellowship which makes the difference for daily living.

Has sorrow come to you, or are you bearing a cross, Lazarus-like? Then let Christ come and share life with you. He will make the difference for your tomorrows.

That which made the Bethany home so beautiful to recall is, "The love of Christ was there." If welcomed in ours, we will find "Christ in a home makes the difference."

Think again on John's statement, "Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus" and you find these lives live on, and that Bethany home lives on, because Jesus was welcomed there.

ON this Armistice Day, the crisply lettered words, "Parade Rest," symbolize armies of many countries on the watch. Of course some of us were lucky enough to pay for the war in toil, some in taxes, but it required the giving of life itself for many a man. It brought sorrow and heartache for others. It would be well for us on this Memorial Day, to become ambassadors of tolerance and spokesmen for Democracy which makes every man our brother and gives to him the freedom that we demand ourselves. In every church service or patriotic assembly on this memorable day, may we in honor of our heroic dead, pledge ourselves to the cause of lasting Peace.

Delco Pizza Co. Sets Up Local Office For State

The Delco Pizza Co., with distributing headquarters in six states ranging from coast to coast, has established an office at 122 S. Terrace-av. the distributing center for the state of Ohio.

The revolutionary idea behind the development of the company is the wholesaling of small ovens, especially designed for the baking of pizzas, together with all the ingredients and supplies necessary for its preparation and baking.

The company deals mainly with taverns and restaurants which wish to serve pizza as a side line. Its service is especially adapted to such needs, for with the new, small-scale pizza ovens it states that it can put any tavern or restaurant in the pizza business in five minutes. Among the several Columbus establishments already using the service is the PX at Lockbourne AFB.

Local distributing managers for the company, Irving Homer and Joseph Steinberg, stated that in Philadelphia, alone, 3,000 dozen Delco pizzas are sold each week. Both men, natives of Philadelphia, will move their families to Columbus in the near future.

50th Annual TB Society Christmas Sale To Start

Rows of children holding hands and dancing around a Christmas tree adorn the 1954 Christmas Seals to be distributed during the annual Christmas Seal sale of the Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County.

Jorgen Hansen, a native of Denmark, designed this year's seals, which postmen will be leaving in 200,000 Franklin County mailboxes before Nov. 22, official opening date of the Christmas Seal Sale.

This is the 50th anniversary of the first Christmas Seal. Einar Holboell, a Danish postal clerk, first thought of using a special seal for Christmas mail to raise money for tubercular children in Denmark.

Hansen's design follows the Danish Christmas Eve tradition of the gay family joining hands, dancing around the Christmas tree and singing carols.

For the first time, there are two co-ordinated seals. One has a red, the other a green background. The redseal shows a girl and boy dressed in holiday best on each side of a lighted tree. On the green seal are two boys and a perky blonde with braids. The outstretched hands of the children meet at the edge of the seal, giving the effect of long rows of youngsters among the lighted Christmas trees.

Hansen, originally an architect, came to the United States in 1947 and is in partnership with Danish designer Jens Thuesen.

The seal sale continues until Christmas. Annually it provides funds for the year-long program of finding and preventing tuberculosis, carried on by the Tuberculosis Society, 503 Oak-st.

Les Redifer, Inc., To Unveil All-New '55 Plymouth Model Cars On Nov. 27

VEILS COME OFF the new 1955 Plymouth on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at Les Redifers, Inc. Lower, wider and more than 10 inches longer, the new Plymouths have either Power-Flow Six or Hy-Fire V8 engines.

Plymouth's bigger and more powerful 1955 model cars will be displayed by Les Redifer, Inc., 1200 Parsons-av, beginning Wednesday, Nov. 17.

The 1955 Plymouths are entirely new, both in styling and engineering detail. They are lower, longer and wider than previous Plymouth cars.

They are the most powerful cars Plymouth ever built. The 1955 engines are a 117-horsepower Power-Flow six, a 157-horsepower Hy-Fire V-8 and a 167-horsepower Hy-Fire V-8. The latter engine also is available with a four-barrel carburetor and special manifold which increases its horsepower to 177.

Plymouth offers as optional equipment a full range of automatic and power assist devices. They include PowerFlite fully automatic no clutch transmission, a new design coaxial full-time power steering, power brakes, power-operated front seat adjustments, power-operated window regulators, and adjustable speed electric windshield wipers. Air conditioning by Airtemp also is available as special equipment.

The 1955 line is made up of 12 models, including for the first time four-door versions of the Plymouth Suburban, the all steel body "station wagon" type car which Plymouth pioneered in 1949.

Plymouth's 1955 styling is the creation of a design team headed by Virgil M. Exner, director of styling. It is based on the premise, Exner says, that styling must first be conceived as a unity. Ornamentation is then used to accentuate existing highlights rather than to create new ones.

A new Full-View wrap-around windshield, with swept back corner posts, at top and bottom, has 16 per cent more glass area. It is contoured to eliminate distortion and to give the driver maximum vision at eye level. The new models have push button door handles. They operate with a new rotary latch which maintains the automatic self-tightening characteristics of Plymouth doors.

Color styling and fabrics of 1955 models are new. They also are trend-setting, in the confident belief of Plymouth designers who made use of new methods of analyzing color preferences and cycles of color popularity. The 14 new exterior colors in the new models, for example, were chosen in a series of eliminations which started with 90 different colors.

One of the novel features of the interior is the design of the instrument panel, which reflects sports car influence. Instruments are positioned to provide balance and eye-appeal. The "Flite-Control" gear selector for Plymouth's Power-Flite transmission is positioned on the instrument panel instead of the conventional mounting on the steering column. This is the first change positioning of a drive selector lever since gearshifts were moved from the floor board to the steering column. It is exclusive on Plymouth in the lowest price field.

Many driver conveniences are available as optional equipment.

Standard wheelbase of the new models is 115 inches. An increase of one inch. Among the chassis advancements are symmetrical idler arm steering on V-8 models, three-tooth roller steering gear on manually-steered cars, new wider rear springs, a new front suspension in which Oriflow shock absorbers are mounted within the coil springs, new longer and wider frame, an increase in the number of body mounts for increased rigidity, bigger brakes on V-8 models to accommodate the increased weight and performance, and new brake and clutch linkages.

Another entirely new feature is a compact heating and ventilating unit mounted on the dash. It takes in outside air from the cowl vent at the base of the windshield. This arrangement eliminates the need for space-hogging air ducts through the engine compartment. It also helps keep dirt and fumes out of the car. Larger fans and motors, and improved design of the unit, permits more even distribution of heat inside and better defrosting of the windshield.

An improved Airtemp car air conditioner is also offered on the 1955 Plymouth for the first time.

1st Edition Of School Newspaper Printed On Mimeograph Machine

The first edition of "The Ranger Speaks," Hamilton Township High School's newspaper, appeared Thursday, Nov. 4. It has nine pages consisting of school news about sports, clubs, classes, assemblies, and other activities.

BIOLOGY FIELD TRIP

Mr. O'Dell's biology classes of Hamilton Township High School went on a field trip Thursday, Nov. 4, to the Columbus Zoo. The classes studied the habits, structure, and environment of the various kinds of animals. Tour participants left at 9:30 a. m. and returned at 2.15 p. m. Although the weather was threatening, everyone reported an enjoyable time.

PEP MEETINGS END

The last football pep meeting for this season took place on Nov. 4, in the auditorium at Hamilton High School. It started with the school song and a cheer for the reserve cheerleaders. Paul Sprague represented the team with a short speech. Mrs. Sherman also gave a talk.

The senior boys on the team were then introduced by the coach, Mr. DeCenzo, and Mrs. Belcher introduced the senior cheerleaders. The reserve cheerleaders led the school in a cheer for the seniors. Later, the varsity cheerleaders conducted a contest to see which section could yell the loudest.

MAY GO TO WASHINGTON

The Hamilton Township High School Band has been invited to play in the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. on March 31, 1955.

The band would participate in the parade which is a traditional part of the festival. People from all corners of the country will be there to participate in this parade. Trophies will be awarded to the band, floats, and marching units. Every band entrant wins something in friendship, good will, and national attention.

It is hoped that the Hamilton band will be able to participate in this festival.

South Side Woman In Critical Condition Following Burns On Most Of Her Body

A Reinhard-av woman, burned on 80 per cent of her body Sunday night, was in critical condition in Mt. Carmel Hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. Goldie Towner, 58, was cooking supper for her invalid husband in their second floor apartment at 232 Reinhard-av when her clothes caught fire.

While her crippled husband, Melvin, looked on horrified and unable to help much, his wife beat out the flames with her hands, then calmly called a taxicab to take her to the hospital.

Mrs Towner was able to tell hospital doctors she had gone into an unlighted pantry at the apartment for a can of food. She said she struck a match, but dropped it into some paper on the floor. The flames caught the hem of her skirt.

While she beat at the flames with her hands, her husband threw a pan of water on her but was unable to help further. Towner was injured in an auto accident many years ago and suffers from arthritis. He has poor eyesight and is hard of hearing.

Mrs. Towner has been working in the laundry of Mt. Carmel Hospital for the past four years.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
From the Bible

To whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required.—(Luke 12,48.)

When, through devout prayer and righteous living, we are filled with God's wondrous love, His guidance and help and thereby are so richly blessed and strengthened, we are doing wrong if we do not share this blessing with others. This we can do through deeds of kindness and charity, in unstinting measure.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Throughout the past month I have been very grateful for perseverance and enthusiastic efforts of all United Appeals workers in Marion Township to raise funds in our area to help support the many worthwhile agencies participating in the Franklin County drive. I have looked forward to expressing my deep and sincere appreciation for their part in the campaign. I would like to direct the remainder of these remarks to those workers.

I can now admit that when our quota was first announced, doubt reared its ugly head, and I was filled with anxiety. Maybe you felt that way too, a little. Nevertheless you set out to do the job you had undertaken, with the conviction that you were going to do your best.

It was this philosophy which played such a large role in the attainment of our quota this year.

Our quota, as were all others, was set by increasing last year's figures 11 per cent to provide for the increased population and expanded services rendered in Franklin County. By going OVER THE TOP, it is interesting to note, we raised more funds than have ever been raised in Marion Township before.

In addition to the satisfaction derived from work of this kind, you may now have the added assurance that comes from knowing that your efforts have been a definite success.

It was the small contributions which put Marion Township Over The Top. Without the many small donations, we never could have achieved our quota.

Many, many thinks for your splendid cooperation. And may I thank the members of this community for their most generous and warm response.

Very sincerely yours,
Joel R. Snyder,
Chairman, Marion Township

POLLUTION HALTING PLANNED

Polution abatement, as it applies to wildlife, will get a shot in the arm sometime between Dec. 1, 1954, and Jan. 1, 1955, according to Charles A. Dambach, chief, Ohio Division of Wildlife.

A chemical laboratory is now being constructed at the Delaware Reservoir, headquarters of the division of wildlife, and will be ready for full operation about Dec. 15. A chemist and biologist will be in charge of the laboratory to be assisted by two men, each with a mobile laboratory at his disposal.

George Herbert.

QUAIL STUDY REPORTED

At a recent meeting, held in the Columbus offices of the state division of wildlife, representatives of the League of Ohio Sportsmen, Izaak Walton League, the Ohio Conservation Congress, Naturalist Clubs, Audubon Society, and Bird Dog Clubs were brought up to date on the state-wide quail study being conducted by field personnel of the division.

Although the quail is now considered a game bird in Ohio, it is "protected" by an act of the legislature and may not be shot. Many sportsmen claim quail are more numerous in Ohio than for many years but a severe winter could materially reduce the population. In answer to this and many other questions, the Ohio Division of Wildlife is conducting a comprehensive study of the quail problem.

Proposals Accepted On Links Improvements

Announcement was made this past week that sealed proposals for furnishing the equipment, material and labor necessary for the remodeling, rehabilitating, and construction of additional buildings to the Raymond Memorial Golf Course will be accepted by the Columbus Recreation Commission until noon, Tuesday, Nov. 16.

The 214-acre, city-owned course was opened to the public last July 31, with grand opening ceremonies on its site at Trabue and Wilsonrds.

Your son or daughter will be proud of you when they know you have been to the Red Cross blood bank. You will be glad you went, too, and some one in a hospital will be grateful to you forever. Call your Red Cross blood bank for appointment. Call FE. 5541.

South Gate Lodge—

14th District and Albert E. Immel, District Deputy Grand Master of the 13th District and a group of Past Masters of South Gate Lodge.

Following the dedicatory rites Kuns made a short talk telling of his activities in his first two weeks in office.

Kuns then introduced Rev. Paul Kaefer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church. Rev. Kaefer is a member of South Gate and was acting Grand Orator for the occasion. In his talk he said he had witnessed 26 of the 30 years of the growth of South Gate and said that both Masonry and the church was in a golden age of great membership and material wealth. He urged the assemblage to review and renew their obligation and said that the principles of Masonry help them to get more out of life.

At the conclusion of the rites, refreshments were served by the Maree Club of Southernway Chapter, OES, in the spacious basement dining room of the Temple.

On Friday, Nov. 5, at 6:30 p. m., South Gate was open to confer the sublime degree of Master Mason on three members.

Trivia

From
THE EDITOR'S DESK
By Gaizy Gordon

GARGANTUAN TASK: Like most other election fans, I scooted between the TV and the radio Tuesday night, trying to figure out the trend of the local elections. And like everyone else I was pretty frustrated at the slowness of the local returns.

On Wednesday morning, however, I called up Charles E Davies, county election clerk, hopeful of obtaining the few strictly-local results I needed for our paper; and then I found out the score. Charlie sounded haggard, harrassed, and beat. And he was.

Gerald Willey, our circulation chief, agreed to go down to the election board to dig out the necessary totals. He did and phoned them to me just as rapidly as he could locate and record them. When he returned to the office, he suggested that the entire election force deserved a pat-on-the-back for even coming up with a count at all. As Willey put it, "I've never seen such a job of paperwork before. All the special issue and levies, and bonds, and questions had to be tallied separately and each constituted a separate head ache."

STILL LOOKING: We had a wonderful response several weeks ago to a front page appeal for upcoming celebrants of Golden Weddings and even langthier periods of happy wedded life. But lately, it seems we've had a falling off in this department. We're still looking for them and anxious to accord them via our columns all the homage and honor they deserve for their inspirational example. Give us a call at JO. 7331.

REAL THOUGHT-PROVOKER is a feature contained in the Nov. 2 edition of Christian Science Monitor. Entitled "We Revived the Lost Art of Calling" and written by Grady Johnson, the piece points to the decline of sociability in today's hurried world. It asks the question, "Why should you force your friends to visit you by appointment only, when casual acquaintances living near you are given the privilege of dropping in on you at anytime — leaving if they find you busy, visiting for hours if all parties concerned are having fun?" It tells of the genuine pleasure the author and his wife had once they determined they'd quit making social appointments, take their kids and drop in on their friends whenever they wanted to. Even the startled hosts and hostesses seemed to enjoy the revival of the lost art of informal friendship.

Ask the man who use. them and he'll tell you want ads are tops.

YOU CAN'T LOSE

Six Local Merchants To Give $1000 In Prizes To Thrifty 'Jubilee' Shoppers

Thrifty local shoppers will appreciate the efforts of six South Parsons-av merchants who have banded together to give to readers of the Leader and any one shopping with them a chance to win approximately $1,000 in prizes in an exciting "Christmas Jubilee."

These merchants, who are making a great effort to prove that "it pays to shop locally", are Hoermle's, Leeds Credit Jewelers, Schottenstein's, B. F. Goodrich Store, Foreign Grocery and R&S Dime Store.

Advertising in a special half page ad each week, the six merchants are offering a variety of merchandise at truly startling bargain prices. In addition, they are adding a festive element to the "Jubilee" with the exciting contest in which the rules are simple and uncomplicated. All participants must do to avail themselves of entry stubs is to patronize these merchants.

The week before Christmas "Santa Claus" will make a drawing each night for six nights. Each one of these nights the drawing will be held in one of the participating stores. Eleven prizes will be given away each drawing.

The prizes include a 21-inch Motorola TV deluxe bicycle, electric rotisserre, Poloroid camera, Sunbeam Mixmaster, Westinghouse roaster oven and cabinet, 30 baskets of groceries and 30 turkeys. Each night one of the grand prizes will be given away, plus five turkeys and five baskets of groceries.

You may enter from as many stores as you like and each ticket you put in the container actually gives you 66 chances of winning. Don't delay: shop today with the merchants who are cooperating in this huge Christmas Jubilee. Look elsewhere in this issue for the advertised specials of this week.

The prizes will be on display soon in the lobby of the Ohio National Bank, Steelton Branch. Stop in and see these prizes. You might be the lucky winner of one or more of them.

Remember you may enter as many times as you wish and in as many stores as you like. For doing what comes naturally, namely shopping at home, you will be able to shop easier, cheaper and receive many chances on valuable prizes. Don't delay—shop today on South Parsons-av.

South Side Bell Ringer

By Tom Sharp

As I sit here and muse over what to write this week I look outside and realize that Christmas will soon be here. Gee, do you realize that another year's end has rolled around. This is a good time for everyone to stop and ponder "Just what have I done that was constructive this year?" All over the world, little and big men alike are asking themselves that question. Does your answer turn out favorably to you?

The Businessman should wonder "Have I presented my products in a manner befitting my business and merchandise?" or "Have I provided the customers with what they want?" This is the time for the businessmen to start making resolutions as to what they will do for the customer in the coming year. It is my understanding that if the business man thinks first of the customer and second of his products and thirdly, but surely not least of himself, he will end up with an affirmative answer to any and all questions at the end of the year.

To sit and think is good for the soul sometimes. Sometimes we worry over pressing problems and all we actually have to do to release the burden is to sit down and think them out. Try it, it does work.

Enough of my theories, let's get down to business. The people want to shop now, and the hour is upon us when the businessmen must meet the needs of the shoppers. If you have something to sell the place to advertise it and let the people know that it is ready and waiting is through the pages of The South Side Leader. Your voice, your constant reminder to the residents of the South Side.

Bulldogs Close Season By Loss Of 48-0 To East

By Jerry Dever

The Bulldogs ended one of their worst seasons in the last few years Friday night at Mahaffey Stadium by succumbing to the powerful East High Tigers 48-0. The loss was the ninth straight for the winless Bulldogs.

East didn't waste a bit of time in scoring its first touchdown. On the first play of the game Phil Robinson heaved a 48-yard pass to Al Long and the score. East kept right on scoring in the first period when Tim Blalock bucked over from the two-yard line and Webster hit Ferguson on a touchdown pitch. The second quarter started with East stealing the show when Dave Lynch scooted 65 yards for a TD, and Robinson scoring his first touchdown of the night on a 72-yard run. The score at halftime showed South losing very sadly, 30-0.

East came right back in the third quarter scoring twice, one on a 32-yard run by Calvin Ferguson and the other on a four-yard buck by "Bubbles" Banks. East's final score came in the fourth quarter on a 34-yard run by Phil Robinson which made the final score 48-0.

One of the most unusual things of the night was that East scored eight touchdowns and didn't make a single extra point. The Tigers led in first downs 16 to 11 and outgained the Bulldogs 254 to 139 net yards.

The seniors on the Bulldogs squad who played their last game of their high school careers Friday night were Ron Huiss, Jack Cheek, Dick Shurey, Ed Boquist, Kenny Webb, Dave Strauss, Wilbur Egnew, Payton Black, Dan Holtz and Bobby Hart. It was also the last game for two seniors who were not playing because of injuries, Larry Myers and Pete Smerles.

Special Program Marks Clarfield School Rites On Veterans Day, Nov. 11

By Mrs. Virginia Kessler

Some of the "regular" school work at Clarfield served a special purpose on Wednesday, November 10, as teachers and children tried to discover the meaning and significance of Armistice Day, now designated as Veterans Day.

Stories were read of war, war heroes, and of man's hope for peace. Reports were written on the deeds of valiant men and on the meaning of citizenship in a great democracy — a meaning sometimes so deep that it requires the life of a man. Songs of the marines, army, navy, and air force reverberated through the halls as the children went to and from music classes. Drawings appeared upon the walls when the children tried to interpret on paper their ideas of Veterans Day parades.

Consolidation Of Two Local Meat Packing Firms Announced

Consolidation of the J. Fred Schmidt Packing Co., 253 S. Kossuth-st, and the Schmidt Beef Packing Co., 750 Buchanan-av, under one operation was announced this week by George L. Schmidt, president of the two companies.

Operation of both companies, Schmidt said, will be continued under the name of the J. Fred Schmidt Packing Co. The company merger became effective Nov. 1 without change in the present management of either company. The entire personnel of both packing houses will be retained under the new organizational setup.

Reason for the merger, Schmidt explained, is to provide increased efficiency, eliminating dual sales efforts and overlapping distribution between the companies. Use of only one name will aid in avoiding confusion where both companies are operating in similar capacities.

Oldest of the two companies is the J. Fred Schmidt Packing Co., founded in 1886, and packers and distributors of specialty meats such as bacon, wieners, lunch meats and fresh pork products. The Schmidt Beef Packing Co. was established

Southeast Lions Club Gives 'Mountain Of Music' To Lincoln Park School Kids

MOUNTAIN OF MUSIC—Surrounded by a mountain of music making machines is little Carol Myers of 494 E. Moler-st, a first grader at Lincoln Park School.

Perhaps she is thinking about all of the fun she will have listening to music on one of the four high fidelity record players or a program on one of the four portable radios given the school by the Southeast Lions Club.

She may even, in time, take her turn playing the beautiful blond piano given the school by the Lions Club in 1952.

The musical equipment was presented at the Lincoln Park open house Oct. 28 by Lion Mike Mileusnich.

The president of the Lions Club, Herbert L. Germain, reminded the audience that Friday, Dec. 3, will be the date of the sale of the "Southeast Lions Roar," the annual paper published and sold by members of the Lions Club. All of the money collected will be used for projects such as the equipment shown with Miss Myers.

Germain urged the friends of Lincoln Park to open their doors that night to the Lion 'newsboys" and to give for a better Southeast Community.

Your Luck, With Average Eyesight, Could Yield You $69 Leader Jackpot

You'll be $69 richer if the paper you are now holding in your hands contains in one of the advertisements a $5 Confederate money insignia like the one in the box accompanying this article.

Not a single soul showed up last week to claim the $59 jackpot at the South Side Leader office. And the five $1 insignia went unclaimed, too; hence the rise of the jackpot this week to the fantastic level of $69. In addition to this, there will also be given five $1 prizes.

Whether you are a "Johnny Reb" or strictly a Union man, you have an equal chance in this exciting "Confederete Money" contest sponsored by the Leader in cooperation with local advertisers.

Spot the insignia they'll be in plain sight in some ad—and then bring the one you've found to the leader office, where it will be redeemed for coupons that will be honored at face value in the stores of merchants advertising in this paper.

That's all there is to it. Nothing to buy! No hidden gimmicks. All you need is lots of luck and average eyesight. That jackpot would just about solve your Christmas shopping problem, wouldn't it? At least it would help Santa to carry a much fuller pack thar was otherwise planned.

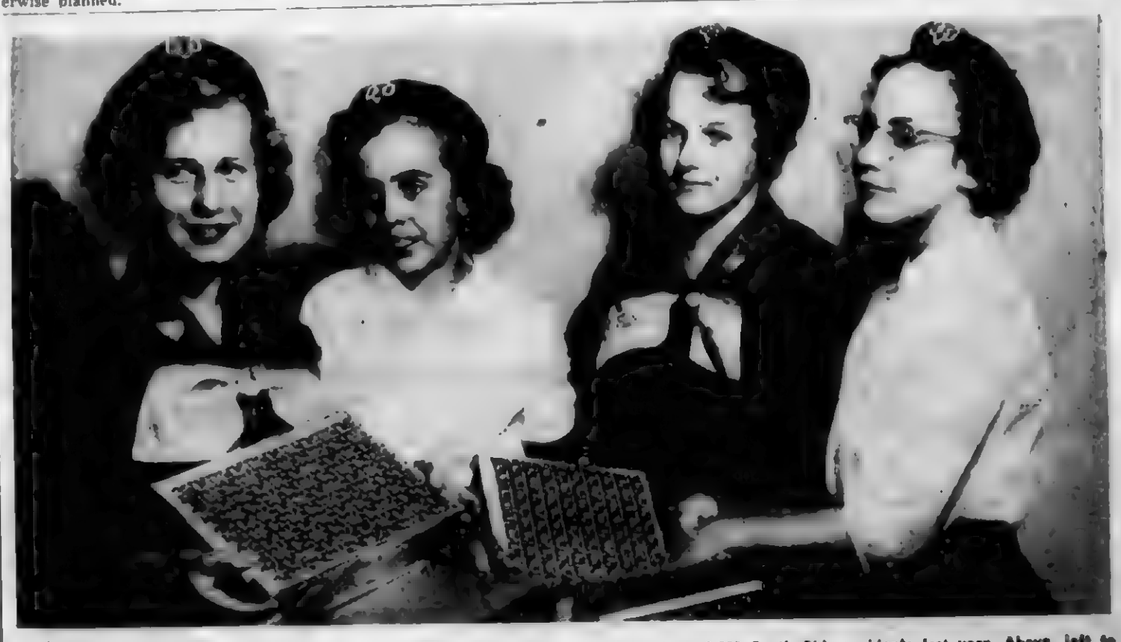
ACTION IS EYE-OPENING

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hays of 787 Wiltshire-rd really had their eyes opened by the tremendous action and results a small 3-line Want Ad in this paper brought. They placed this tiny wonder-worker in the paper last week:

Wanted — Mature woman to care for children, afternoon only at our home. RA. 4750.

Shortly after the paper was delivered, the Hays' were receiving phone calls from all parts of the city and soon had just the type of person they wanted. Needless to say, these good folks had their eyes opened by these results and are solid believers in the wondrous work of classified ads.

You too can achieve such startling results if you need help or have a selling problem, by letting the classified pages carry your message to over 32,000 families. It's real easy. Just call HI. 4-9262 or JO. 7331 and a courteous want-ad taker will help you in the best wording of your own message.



Here's What To Look For

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av (before Friday at 5 p. m.). It will be redeemed for $69 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

Hello:

The lines of little brown pottery turkeys on our shelf reminds me that Thanksgiving is really near. Incidently, the turkeys filled with either plants or bright pompons would be an excellent hostess gift. Do plan on having cut flowers on your table to add to the festiveness of the occasion. They are as much a part of Thanksgiving as the turkey that is served. Pompons are $2.00 for a generous bunch, Carnations are $3.00 per dozen, Roses, $3.00 and up per dozen. We also have snapdragons and large mums.

A happy birthday to little Cathy Toth, who is celebrating today, and a belated birthday greeting to Tom Sharpe of The Leader office. Tom and his wife are enjoying their new home, as are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Santo who have just moved into their new home at 1233 Medford Road.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Keyes who have just celebrated their 55th, and greetings also to the Clarence Duffys. The Bob Theils are the proud parents of twin daughters, the Sherwood Peres have a new baby daughter. The Lawrence Kellers, Bob Doersams, Don Falters, and the Toppings have husky little sons. Congratulations to them and to the Robert Halls who have a new baby — we're not sure if their wee one is a boy or a girl.

Get well wishes to Francis Jordon, William Curran, Virginia Findlay, Mrs. Robert Sayre, Betty Evans, Mrs. Annie DeWees, Jacob Jauch, and Jack Fillinger.

The Gadabout

"Gifts for Orient" is well under way again, for two groups have told us they'd like to participate in this charitable project. The Sunday School class of Mabel Tope, Southwood Church of Christ and the Room Mothers and Barrett Executive Board are the two groups who have volunteered to start the ball rolling.

The Gadabout phoned Dr. Kirk at Orient, and he was very happy that his patients were going to be remembered again. Fifteen hundred gifts found their way to Orient last year, thanks to the generosity of the readers of the South Side Leader, and we're so in hopes that we can equal that goal this year . . . maybe even surpass it!

We've received permission to use the Leader office for a collecting point for the gifts, so anyone who'd like to donate even a single gift, feel free to leave it at the Leader office, won't you? Margie and Ray Speakmon are co-workers in this project, so call us at any time . . . we'll be hoping to hear from lots of you.

November is a birthday month for Gregory Absten, his grandmother, Mrs. Faye Beedy, and his aunt, Joan Comp. Gregory, 50 E. Innis-av, will be a year old Nov. 28. Mrs. Beedy had a Nov. 16 birthdate and Joan celebrates her birthday tomorrow.

Pete and Dorothy Kessler of Moler-st, celebrate 23 years of married life tomorrow, and our heartiest congratulations to the amiable couple. The Kesslers were all set to travel to Florida when son, Joe had to have an emergency appendectomy a few weeks back, so the trip is still a thing of the future. We're happy to report that Joe is mending nicely and hope he continues so.

Mr. Nash, principal of Barrett Jr. High, is about ready to receive the degree of "OFD" . . . we think. At the Barrett Room Mothers Tea, he had a real good time figuring out how to open the folding doors in the cafeteria. He called in someone else, and the two still couldn't do it. The second gentleman he asked for assistance did it, so methinks they now are ready for the "Opening Folding Doors" degree. (Only funning, Mr. Nash.)

The passing of "Doc" Swoyer will be felt all around this fair city of ours for he certainly was a fine man. He was so helpful to all the writers of the city. Many a time Ye Gadabout would go to the porch and there discover papers and things of interest that "Doc" had come across and thought we could use. We gather he did that to quite a few of the columnists around town. The average person just doesn't take so much effort to be helpful and we truly appreciated his kindness.

Another Kemmerling has an autumn birthdate on Nov. 14. (The rest of the family had October birthdates.) Ronald is the Kemmerling who prefers a different birthmonth and the home address is 836 Mohawk-st.

Chalk Dec. 2 as one day the family range may stay unlit. That's the day the boys of Troop 77 have their annual flapjack dinner. Price is 50 cents for all the flapjacks you can eat and time is from 5:30 to 7:30 in the St Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church recreation hall.

My co-workers on the Orient Gift Drive have a celebrating spree this time of the year. Ray Speakmon was a year older on Oct. 31. Ray and Margie celebrated their anniversary on Nov. 4, and their youngest son, Allen, will be two years old tomorrow.

Mrs. Roy Thomas, 1409 S. Fifth-st, is now recuperating at her home after a visit to St. Francis Hospital. The "flu" bug had one unwilling victim in the person of Frank Woods, 1451 S. Fourth-st. Another candidate for a get-well card is Mrs. Ola Bailey, who is in University Hospital, Room 1091.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Spiker, who became grandparents once more. The date was Nov. 5, and the little one is a girl.

What a lovely party the Southwood teachers gave Miss Chapman, the new principal! Mrs. Max Evans invited Miss Chapman to see the Evans' new home at 1574 Wilson-av, and when the two arrived Miss Chapman discovered it was a ruse to get her to attend her own surprise party. The get-together was an event of Nov. 8. Fancy ice-cream and beautiful red roses made the party a real festive affair.

Just a reminder that the Marion-Franklin Boosters Club will be holding a progressive party on Dec. 4. Price 50 cents. The affair starts at 8 and movies will be available for the children, for a thin little dime.

A funny way to have an accident happen, but so help me it did! A gal got her arm all cut up because she walked through a glass door. She didn't know it was there because it was so clean! So you housewives take warning and don't be so "spanky clean."

The Mothers Club of Bethel 5 will be meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. Ralph Robins, 1056 Stanley-av. The group will assemble at 8 p. m. Lady Jane candy is being sold by the women, should any of the readers like to order for Thanksgiving or Christmas.

Three birthdays occur on Nov. 10, all relatives, Eugene and Sandy Knapp, of 496 E. Morrill-av, and Robert Rothwell of S. Fifth-st, are the celebrants.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kochensparger are the parents of a little girl born Oct. 31 in St. Ann's Hospital. The new miss will answer to the name of Jayne Ellen, and "home" is 1057 City Park-av.

An uncle of the new Kochensparger baby, Bob Kochensparger, would love to hear from friends and acquaintances. His home address is 363 Stewart-av. His mail reaches him addressed Pvt Robert Kochensparger, U. S. 52355139, 595 Transport Company, APO 211, New York, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Endres are rightfully proud of their two new grandsons born miles apart but within a short time of one another. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Straquadine of Bedford, O., had their son on Oct. 24. Folks wishing to send congratulations to the former Mary Endres and spouse may address them 109 Bedford-dr, Bedford, O.

The Endres other daughter, Delores Bellamy, and husband, William, became parents on Nov. 6. Their home address is 660 Ocala-av, Puente, Calif. Mrs. Endres, 1105 S. 22nd-st, visited Delores and Bill in October, but had to hurry home to help watch Mary's other children while she kept her stork appointment.

We do want to remind you of the "Gifts for Orient" again—you'll be hearing about it from here on in. Till next week then—

IT is God who "healeth all my diseases." At the divine touch of the "Great Physician," a man who was born blind was "able to see." He saw a new world for the first time... he saw good and bad.
How much can you see? Your vision may be 20-20, but can you see the order and beauty of the universe in the star-lit sky?
Can you see Him in the bursting rosebud and the ripening grain? Can you see the church on the corner? Can you always see the difference between right and wrong? Can you? If the scales have started to form over your eyes, if your vision for good things is getting blurred, you better stop in at church this week. You'll be able to see.
You In The Church... The Church In You— Form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be a faithful worker. Attend every service.

Roosevelt Jr. High Student Explains TB And Christmas Seals' Role In Fight

Editor's Note: The following article on the importance to the community of the success of the current Tuberculosis Society Christmas Seal Drive was prepared by a 9B student at Roosevelt Junior High School who is an honor pupil at the school.

By Nancy Winton

What do you know about tuberculosis' Would you know the symptoms if you came in contact with them?

Do you know that TB is the first cause of death in the United States between the ages of 18 add 35? That TB is the eighth cause of death to any age anywhere? That in 1953 692 cases of tuberculosis in Franklin County were found? And in the same year 60,480 chest X-rays were taken by the Columbus Tuberculosis Society in 45 neighborhood., 40 industries, and 23 schools and colleges. Out of these X-rays came 2507 chest abnormalities with 1,806 people suspected of having tuberculosis.

Since TB strikes all ages, all parents should feel obligated to know the symptoms of TB. Various symptoms include chronic cough, loss of weight and appetite, expectoration of blood, early exhaustion, afternoon fever and night sweats.

All citizens should take X-rays at least once a year, although they not think this is necessary. But do they know that the average rates of TB treatment, hospitalization, aid to the family, and restoration to normal life once more, may total up to as much as $15,000? About .96 per cent cannot afford to pay this amount. These costs are borne by taxes. That makes tuberculosis as much of a community responsibility as police protection.

The disease is spread through the air by means of the TB germ (tubercle baccilus) on almost microscopic droplets that are coughed, sneezed, or even sprayed through the air through conversation. These in turn, are inhaled by someone who doesn't suffer from the disease. Each undiscovered case of TB will eventually infect nine others. Through X-rays, the Tuberculosis Society is trying to find and isolate TB victims to protect others.

So, remember to buy Christmas Seals, now in their 50th year of sale. Their popularity is steadily increasing. Through X-rays supported by Christmas Seals, our nation will become healthier and happier. Our nation leads the world in a lot of things, why not healthy, happy, tuberculosis-free lives?

TAKES SOUTHERN THEME
By Susie Workmaster

South High School's marching band presented a strictly "South of the Border" halftime show last Friday at the South-Linden football game.

After the blaring trumpets finished the fanfare, the band did a complicated dance step to "La Cucuracha." Later the band went into a large sombrero formation while playing "South of the Border." The brim of the hat revolved to "Mexican Hat Dance" as the band members did a "congo" step.

Next came a large fan formation as the band played "My Shawl." A Mexican cart came next to the tune of "Lady of Spain," while the wheel and spokes went around

The "South of The Border" theme was concluded with an upraised right hand in a salute and a shout of "Oh Leigh'"

An "LM" for Linden was then formed. Last, but not least, came the traditional revolving "S" and then the South High alma mater.

The pre-game show honored the parents by forming a "Mom" while playing "I Want a Girl" and honoring dad with a "Pop" to the tune of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The opener also featured "potential band members of 1964"—three to seven-year-old sisters and brothers of the band members — who marched in front of the band with the majorettes.

9-B Class Makes Clean Sweep In Election Of J-R

The 9-B's from Barrett Junior High made a clean sweep of the elections in the J-R Club at Schiller Recreation Center. Hazel Erb was elected president; Jerry Rhea, vice-president; Linda Estep, treasurer; and Ardella Rhea, secretary. Sandy Fee and Ralph Alfred were named Schiller's representatives to the city-wide Teen Council.

This year's activities began with a Halloween party for the club members. Ardella Rhea, Carol Zimmer, and Joe Talbott did a fine job of decorating the club room at the center for the party.

On Nov. 13, a group of 27 members had a picnic at Indian Village Camp and enjoyed informal activities such as hiking, games, and singing around the campfire. The teen-agers were accompanied by LeRoy Wise, acting director of Schiller, Rita McNally, club advisor and Bill Wells, a policeman who has shown a very active interest in the program at Schiller.

Coming plans for the J-R club include preparations for the Thanksgiving dance and a skating party to be held soon.

GIDEONS PRESENT BIBLES—The Gideons, International, a Christian Business Men's Association, formally presented Mercy Hospital with a beautiful copy of the St. James edition of the New Testament for each patient room. Accepting the Testaments from Gideons, Lenton A. Wood and L. A. Landgrave, is C. B. Beard, the hospital's superintendent.

Sherick Studio To Start New Class Next Wednesday

Jack Sherick announces a new class in Jitterbug, Foxtrot, Waltz and Charleston, for teenagers on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 6:30 p.m. in his South Side Dance Studio, 1118 S. Parsons-av.

Sherick says the one thing that makes some dancers appear to be better than others is attention to such details as posture, smoothness, relaxation, and rhythm. He insists these points be given special effort in all of his classes.

Besides the latest dance steps students learn such ballroom deportment as how to make introductions, how to act as a host or hostess, how to ask for a dance, and how to accept or refuse graciously. Enrollment can be made for this class by calling the main studio.

HAMILTON TOWNSHIP HIGH NOTES

Basketball Cheerleaders Chosen In Pep Session Of Entire School

Basketball cheerleaders were chosen by the Hamilton Township High School student body on Wednesday, Nov. 10. Named were — Varsity, Waleka Adams, Karleen Wikoff, Beverly Roof and Nina Smith and reserve, Norma Tolliver, Sharon Bond, Eleanor Dieble, and Virginia Obetz. Each contestant appeared before the student body individually and presented two cheers. Following the tryouts, in the gymnasium the students returned to their homerooms to cast their votes.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

The seniors of Hamilton Township High School were kept busy the week of Nov. 7, chasing around for the various advertisements for their annual "The Hamiltonian." The money which came from these advertisements will help pay for the annual. Students who participated were Shirley Archer, Jim Hoon, Mary Griffith, Jack Cummins, Bob Cramer, Phyllis Helsel, Verla Haynes, Carl Mercer, Paul Ellis, Dean Jacobs, Karlene Wickoff, PhyHis Donahue, Mary Young, and Dick Beightler.

The "ad hunt" this year was successful because of the large sum of money the students received from the different places of business.

The seniors of Hamilton Township High School are eligible to have two volunteer girls to take the test of the Daughters of American Revolution, to be given Jan. 15, 1955. The selection has not yet been made.

TRY-HI-Y INDUCTION

The Tri-Hi-Y of Hamilton Township High School held a meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 8, at which it was announced that the annual induction service will again be joined with the Hi-Y. It will be held on Sunday, Nov. 21, in the Obetz Lutheran Church at Obetz. After the induction ceremony the parents and the students will go to the parish hall for refreshments.

Seniors of the Tri-Hi-Y will furnish the cookies which will be made at one of the girls homes on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21. The Hi-Y will furnish the punch, various kinds of nuts, and the different colored mint candies.

Mr. Strausbaugh, Mr. Heisel, and Mr. Glaze Thompson, the secretary of the YMCA, will be the speakers of the evening.

VOLLEYBALL GLEANINGS

On Monday, Nov. 8, the all star volleyball games started at Hamilton Township in the gymnasium. The freshman and junior teams played with the juniors winning by a large margin. The following Wednesday the sophomores and seniors played. The score was seniors 21, and sophomores 14. After these two games, another was played to determine the champions. The seniors won again with a score of 36 to 22. The game was filmed by the school camera.

MUSIC IN THE AIR

The new music teacher, Miss Morgan, is doing a fine job of conducting her music classes and picking music that all the students like to sing. Two of her classes, consisting of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors, are working on Christmas music and also songs for the junior class play which is to be presented Nov. 19.

Another musical group will be two girls' ensembles of nine girls each. They, too, are doing excellent work and have several good songs ready to sing whenever needed.

Miss Morgan also gives voice and piano lessons to several girls after school on different nights. In all, Hamilton students should be proud of their music abilities.

Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary: "If our agreement (the nine-power defense pact) is not ratified, I know of no other way of creating a system in which Germany could be fitted to the mutual benefit of all concerned."

MARION LOCAL EDUCATION NOTES

Board Okays Drafting Of Plans For New Heimandale School

The Marion Local Board of Education met in adjourned regular session recently, with session participants including four members, Local School Executive Harold W. Boles, and Joseph Baker of Joseph Baker and Associates, Architects.

The architects were authorized to proceed with drafting of plans and specifications of the Heimandale School from the previously approved preliminary designs.

The clerk was authorized to proceed with the processing and sale of bonds, after which the board adjourned.

WHY STUDENTS LEFT SCHOOL
By Ray Dailey

Marion-Franklin, as many other secondary schools, is plagued with a transient problem that accounted for better than 60 per cent of the drop-outs during the 1953-54 school year.

From 178 withdrawals during the first school years, 111 were the result of traveling or moving. Most of these 111 students moved to Marion-Franklin during the year and then moved out.

The second greatest cause for withdrawing is students obtaining work permits and going to work. Forty students applied for and received work permits during Marion-Franklin's opening year. Grade levels from which the students applied for permits are as follows: Seventh grade 2; eighth grade 9, ninth grade 15, tenth grade 11, and 11th grade 3.

In reference to the work problem, Marion had four students go to work because they had reached the age of 18 years and quit school.

That ever popular love-bug accounted for 15 drop-outs in our first year. Fifteen students, ranging from the eighth to the 11th grades, quit school last year to be married. Grade levels at which this occurred are as follows:

Eighth grade 8, ninth grade 5, 10th grade 1, and 11th grade 4.

Only one of these students who married was a boy and he married one of the 10th grade girls at Marion-Franklin.

Personal illness was to blame for four withdrawals. Illness in the family claimed two persons.

Marion-Franklin can feel proud of the fact that from 178 withdrawals, only two were juvenile cases. Although a low number, we must admit this is two too many.

The withdrawal report was based on an enrollment of 680 students at the close of the first Marion-Franklin school year.

SMITH ROAD NEWS
By Miss Mary Mico

A treat for needy children overseas has been one result of a project recently carried out by fifth and sixth graders at Smith Road School. The boys and girls, under the guidance of their instructor, Miss Georgia F. Bodle, wrote letters and each child carried a letter to friends and neighbors during the Halloween season, asking for small sums of money to enable the class to send CARE packages to needy children in other countries. This is a project the class has carried out at Halloween for three years. The children collected $82.15 in this year's project.

Local Deaths

Former Local Twins Die At Mission Post, India

Death has ended the missionary work of former Columbus twins Miss Dora and Miss Eva Beach, both 78, who left here for India more than 40 years ago.

As missionaries, the two sisters instigated the building of a school and orphanage on the mission compound, Sultanpur. There they ministered to the native children and families.

In July of this year, Miss Eva died while in the hills near Sultanpur, and was buried there. Just three months later, Miss Dora died after several weeks' illness at the compound and was buried in the church yard, relatives here have learned.

Before leaving Columbus, Miss Eva was a member of the Livingston Methodist Church and a teacher at the Beck Street Elementary School. Miss Dora attended the Third Street Mission and worked in a candy shop.

The twins were the sisters of Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard and Miss Caroline Beach, both of Columbus.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Nov. 15, 1954

Editor,
South Side Leader
1542 Parsons Ave.
Columbus, Ohio

It has been brought to my attention that in connection with the recent annexation-incorporation issue in Marion Township, my name was listed in a paper entitled "Incorporation News." I wish to publicly state that neither was permission asked nor consent given for the use of my name in that paper. I do not know who published the paper nor do I subscribe to many of the statements in it. Especially do I resent the use of my name along with any who would take part in, or sanction violence such as occurred during the election campaign.

It is no secret that I did not, nor do I now, favor annexation. In my opinion a vote for incorporation was the only way to vote against annexation under the circumstances at this election. My stand was entirely in the interest of the children of our schools. I felt they would best be served by voting against annexation in order that we might get new school buildings under way at once. I doubt this would have been possible under annexation. A new school building is already under way and bonds are being advertised. The immediate need of our children is being taken care of.

SOUTH HIGH NOTES

Marching Band Ends Season With Surprise Honoring Of Director

By Susie Workmaster

The South High Marching Band, under the direction of Randall W. Near, played its last performance of the season last Friday night on the South High field.

The band formed an "R N" to the tune of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" to honor a surprised Randall Near, band director.

The concert band plays concerts throughout the school year and enters the state contest in April. Currently it is practicing for the "South High Show Boat," a variety show which will be presented on Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the South High auditorium.

Members of the band will make up a girls' and boys' chorus line. Other contributions from band members will also feature in the show. Bob Dean will be master of ceremonies. The show will be presented by both the vocal and instrumental departments of South High School.

CHRISTMAS CARDS
By Jo Williams

Christmas card sales by the GAA girls started Nov. 4 and will end Nov. 18. Cards may be purchased from any member of GAA.

CURTAIN GOING UP
By Annette Brodt

The senior class of South High School will present its annual play, "George Washington Slept Here," written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, in the school auditorium tomorrow night at 8:15.

The play is a modern comedy which takes place in an old farmhouse in Bucks County, Pa., where George Washington was supposed to have slept.

Leads are Newton Fuller, Bob Winebar, Annabelle Fuller, Carol Weber, and Mr. Kimber, Stan Webster.

Tickets can be purchased from any dramatics or radio student for 50 cents.

VETERANS' DAY

"Yellow Butterflies," a story which was read by Carol Weber, was the theme of the Veterans' Day program presented at South High School Wednesday, Nov. 10.

The orchestra played an appropriate number to open the program. Ed Boquist led the Pledge of Allegiance and the prayer was led by Lila Babbert.

Paul Stein spoke about the changing of Armistice Day to Veterans' Day.

Other speeches were given by Suzy Webster, who told about the unknown soldier in Arlington, and Carlene Conrad, who gave the views of the wife of an unknown soldier. Louie Bauer gave a probable answer from an unknown soldier to his mother.

The Glee Club and choir provided the vocal music for the program.

Jim Damewood guarded the tomb of the unknown soldier, which was projected on the curtain, and Ilea Alexander stood before the tomb as a mother of an unknown soldier.

Caroline Fleischman made a speech about "War" to conclude the program.

The program was presented by the fourth period speech class under the supervision of Miss Anna Lentz.

Y-TEEN PIGSKIN FROLIC

South High Y-Teens have been named to coordinate all publicity for the annual Columbus Y-Teens "Pigskin Frolic."

The frolic is to be held at the YWCA ballroom on Saturday, Nov. 20, from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight. The event will be a sports dance, with casual clothes to be worn by participants. The price is $1 per couple and a name band will play for the dance.

Football's captains of winning city teams and their dates will be presented. A candidate from each school will be selected and one girl and her escort will reign as king and queen of the all-city affair.

Helen Maser is publicity chairman and Patti Allen is her co-chairman. The committee assisting them is the Y-Teen cabinet of South High.

STAGING CHRISTMAS JUBILEE

Six South Parsons Ave. Merchants Will Play Santa Claus To Lucky 66

Six South Parsons-av merchants are playing Santa Claus this year in a spectacular way, for they are co-sponsoring the huge "Christmas Jubilee", a Yuletide contest to be climaxed by giving away to thrifty local shoppers a total of approximately $1,000 in prizes.

The six merchants, Hoermle's, Leeds Credit Jewelers, Schottenstein's, B. F. Goodrich Store, Foreign Grocery and R&S Dime Store, are not only offering the 66 valuable prizes because they are brimming with the natural Christmas spirit which floods all our hearts at this time of year, but also because they wish to prove that "it pays to shop locally," a contention with which the 66 lucky prize winners are sure to agree heartily.

How can you become one of the chosen 66? Very easily. You won't even need your rabbit's foot. Here is the way this fabulous drawing will work:

Each night for six nights during the week before Christmas, "Santa Claus" will make a drawing from entry stubs submitted by customers at any of the six afore-mentioned stores. Each night prizes will be given away to the owners of the first 11 stubs drawn. The drawing will take place in a different one of the six participating stores each night.

Prizes include a 21-inch Motorola TV, deluxe bicycle, electric rotisserre, Polaroid camera, Sunbeam Mixmaster, Westinghouse roaster oven and cabinet, 30 baskets of select groceries, and 30 turkeys. Each night one of the grand prizes will be given away, plus five turkeys and five baskets of groceries.

Anyone is eligible for the drawing and you may enter from as many stores as you like. Remember, each and every ticket you put in the container actually gives you 66 chances of winning!

The valuable prizes to be given away absolutely free in this gigantic jubilee are now on display in the lobby of the Ohio National Bank, Steelton Branch. Why not stop in and take a look? You might be the next owner of one or more of them.

Although not everyone entering this colossal contest will be a winner, there are no losers. The merchants sponsoring the prize-packed drawing are also offering a variety of merchandise at truly startling bargains throughout the weeks preceding the festive "Christmas Jubilee."

South Side Settlement Officials Report Calls For Chistmas Aid

South Side Settlement officials report this week that seasonal requests for help, quilts, clothing, and food have already begun, now that the Christmas season is approaching.

Mrs. Kenneth C. McCandless, settlement director, explained that while her agency attempts to meet such varied needs in the community as recreation, counselling, referral to other agencies and like services, it is not primarily a relief agency.

"When an emergency need arises," she continued, "we do try to help the individual or family obtain help from the particular agency set up to give that help. If after contacting that agency we feel we can do something we will do it. Regarding Christmas baskets—we work in close cooperation with the holiday planning committee of the Council of Social Agencies and we register all families whom we plan to care for.

"If a family is registered from another agency then we do not care for that family. This makes for a much more equitable distribution of Christmas help. It is not our policy to give out names of families to individuals or groups.

"If children are invited out for Christmas parties, through the Settlement, notes will be sent to the home to the parents as to the time and place of these parties."

In spite of Christmas plans regular activities continued as usual this past week at the Settlement. The athletic committee of the Columbus Federation of Settlements held a meeting at Friendship House Nov. 17 and approved having three basketball leagues among the seven settlement houses in the city. The age limits in the leagues are 13 through 15 years—16 through 18 and 19 years and older. South Side Settlement is getting teams in condition for the league tournament games.

31 Pupils Hurt In Crash of Bus On Lockbourne

What has been described as a "freak" accident changed a homeward-bound Marion-Franklin High School bus, full of laughing and chattering youngsters, into a twisted barque of pain and tragedy when it swerved off its route and struck a tree at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday.

According to Sgt. Al Huff, Franklin County investigator deputy sheriff, the bus, driven by Harold C. Fetter, 33, 2073 Refugee-rd, had traveled only about a quarter mile from the school and had not unloaded any of its 57 passengers when Fetter lost control on Lockbourne-rd, 100 yards south of Koebel-rd, as he attempted to grab a musical instrument that was tipping toward the wheel.

Thirty-one of the students were injured in the collision, at least five seriously. Described as one of the most serious cases was Shirley Ferrell, 16, of 2281 S. High-st, who was pinned between a seat and the tree. The teen-age girl suffered head and internal injuries and fractures of both arms. She was reported in "fair" condition at Children's Hospital Wednesday, where she was to undergo surgery.

Others who were among the more seriously injured were Owen Johnson, 14, 2724 S. High-st, skull fracture and multiple lacerations, good condition; Diana Slyh, 12, of 130 Lakeview-blvd, possible fracture of back, fair condition; Carol Daniels, 13, of 2420 S. High-st, skull fracture, fair condition; and Jimmie Keckley, 15, of 98 Alcott-rd, head injury and fractures of both legs, fair condition.

All except young Keckley are in Children's Hospital. He is at Grant Hospital. Twenty-four children were treated at the scene and later

Only One Winner Finds Valuable Insignia In Week

With a stack of Confederate bills amounting to $69 awaiting some lucky South Sider last week, we are sorry to report that we only had one $1 winner.

The one lucky lady of the week was Elda Berger of 1302 Parsons-av. She discovered her $1 insignia, an exact replica of the one shown here, in the Moore's Appliance ad.

With only $1 missing, the giant jackpot jumps to a spectacular $78 this week, every crisp dollar of which could be yours, if you present this week's $1 insignia at the South Side Leader office.

The rules are just as easy to follow as they sound in the box shown here. There's no trick at all! The insignia are plainly printed on some ad. There are six to look for each week, one is in each copy of six separate papers. All you have to do is settle back in your easy chair for five minutes and scan the ads where the insignia regularly appear.

What a Christmas present you could give yourself in return for five minutes relaxation with your South Side Leader!

Here's What To Look For

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper, take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av (before Friday at 5 p. m.). It will be redeemed for $78 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue.

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

Last Season's Hoopsters Help Equip Members Of 1954 Team

By Lewis Taylor

South High's 1953-54 state runner-up basketball team helped to provide this year's team with new uniforms. Six new basketballs, new socks, new trunks, new shoes and new sweat pants are included in the equipment. The Bulldogs also have a new coach.

CHANGE OF COLORS
By Jerry Zeltzer

A change of colors was in line as the South High Varsity cheerleaders last week astonished everyone by changing the colors of their uniforms. At an assembly on Thursday, Nov. 18, they appeared in white sweaters with blue stripes and blue bulldogs on the back. This change was a contrast to the past colors of gray sweaters supplemented by blue skirts.

When head cheerleader Beverly Weakly was asked about the change in colors she remarked, "The basketball team does, why can't we?"

LANGUAGE CLUB PARTY
By Jo Williams

The Language Club of South High School, consisting of French, Spanish, and Latin students, is planning a Christmas party with songs in each of these languages. Topping the program will be a colorfully-decorated pinata which will be filled with gayly wrapped candies.

As another feature, each department will tell the Christmas custom of their respective language homeland.

SHOWBOAT TIME

Schiller Teen-Agers Strive To Make Friday Dance Best To Date

All the teen-agers at Schiller Recreation Center are combining their efforts to make this year's Thanksgiving dance, to be held Friday, Nov. 26, the best yet. The dance will be from 8 until 11 p. m. in the center auditorium.

Decorations, entertainment, and refreshments are going to be Dogpatch style since this is an informal Sadie Hawkins dance. A duo, Margie Hoffman and Jenene Hopkins, will be a new singing attraction for the intermission. Another popular group composed of Hazel Erb, Bonnie Wood, Phyllis and Paulette Schoenholtz will also be featured.

Decorations will be the combined project of the various clubs. Among those who will help fix up the auditorium are Art Erb, Mike Pherr, Hazel Erb, Barbara Woodward, Ardelia Rhea, Ron Slaughter, Bob Baer, Paulette Schoenholtz, Elaine Yetter, Phyllis Schoenholtz, Grace Howard, Peggy Glaze, Joyce Angus, and Elizabeth Howard.

Refreshments in the form of "Kickapoo Joy Juice" will be available. There is no admission charge.

Teensters are invited to "get your Li'l Abner or Daisy Mae costumes ready and come join the crowd at Schiller to dance to the music of Jim Dowr and his combo this Friday."

ST. MARY'S DINNER SET

St. Mary's Parish will serve a roast beef dinner in the school cafeteria, Sunday, Dec. 5, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m.

As an innovation for the larger families, the first three children will be served at half price and the fourth one will be served free. This is the first in a series of monthly dinners and is sponsored by the A B C members of St. Mary's. Mrs. Rita Burcsu is chairman.

Ohio Avenue EUB Marks 40th Anniversary Sunday

The 40th anniversary of Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church will be celebrated on Sunday, Nov. 28, at the church,

Dr. E. F. George

1013 S. Ohio-av, just north of Whittier-st.

First pastors of the church will be honored guests and speakers for this occasion. Dr. W. S. Gamertsfelder, now the retired dean of Ohio University at Athens, O., the church's first pastor, is planning to be present for the day. Dr. Edwin F George, retired professor of Old Testament at the Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Ill., will also be present and bring the main address at the Sunday morning service to begin at 10:30.

Dr. George was pastor of the nearby Immanuel Lutheran Church at the time Ohio Avenue Church was started.

There will be a noon covered dish dinner which former members and friends as well as the present congregation will attend. This will be followed at 2 p. m. by another less formal service of memories.

At the afternoon service three laymen of the church who represent periods in the development of the church will speak. Chris W. Metzger, who was a member of the original congregation, will speak on "Early History." Fred Lucas, long-time member and former president of the board of trustees, will speak on "Debt Reduction Campaign." Robert Stevens, present president of the board, will speak on "Present Situation and Future Outlook."

Dr. George and Dr. Gamertsfelder will also reminiscence at this service. A vocal duet by Mrs. Hollis Logue and Chris Metzger will also be featured in this afternoon service. Both were members of the original congregation.

Former ministers will be invited back to have a part on the program and former members and friends will be recognized. A reunion of former members will be held. Plans call for special tables representing the various stages of development of the church at which guests representing the various stages in growth will be seated.

At the 10:30 a. m. service the pastor, Rev. Howard W. Buckley, will preside and the senior and junior choirs of the church will sing.

The church began in a humble way in a small frame building on the back of the present church lot with about 35 people in that first congregation on Nov. 29, 1914. This building was soon outmoded and outgrown and a new brick building replacing it was dedicated in 1918.

In 1925 the third stage of building growth brought the addition of the sanctuary unit, which is now part of the present building. This was made necessaary because of the merger of the Immanuel Evangelical Church located at 434 E. Main-st, with the Ohio Avenue Church.

This past year a new parsonage has been purchased for the minister and family and the present parsonage next door to the church has been used for overflow Sunday School facilities and fellowship activities. The committee has had many meetings and has worked hard to make this a great day in the ongoing life of the church, according to Fred Lucas, general chairman of the 40th anniversary committee. The committee has been divided into several parts as follows:

Publicity — Mrs. Hollis Logue, chairman, Donald Phillips, Hollis Logue and Doris Johnson; invitations — Clark Moore, chairman; Mrs. Clark Moore, Mrs. Stella Andrix, Homer Valentine and Mrs. Florence Munk; dinner—Mrs. Robert Stevens, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Long; program—Rev. H. W. Buckley, assisted by E. A. Weis; and history—Chris W. Metzer, assisted by Mrs. Laura Fitch.

Those desiring such prints must specify the date of the issue in which the picture appeared. Telephone inquires concerning this service may be made by calling Mr. Groom at JO. 7331.

Club or organizational officers may obtain special economy rates for those pictures desired for distribution to their members.

Girls Hoop Program Goes Into 3rd Week At Schiller

The girls' basketball pre-season program has entered its third week at the Schiller Recreation Center. Results of games already played find the St. Mary's team leading by a 2-0 default over St. Leo's.

In the intermediate division, St. Dominics took the measure of St. Leo's Aragonettes by 7 to 6; Schiller bowed by 4 to 30 to Corpus Christi; and Schiller rode to victory by a 20 to 8 tally over St. Mary's Blue Ramblers.

In the senior classification, Wilson Avenue leads the class by virtue of a 2 to 0 default win over St. Leo's.

South Side Bell Ringer

By Tom Sharp

"Hinting season" is officially open as of today. Yes, this issue will carry many advertisers' ideas on how to provide the most of the best for the least in Christmas giving. You might very well check items to serve as hints for you and others in your family in buying wisely.

This week loads of advertisers are offering tremendous values for those who shop early. Check the following pages for the many good buys.

The first of many surprises this week is the ad appearing in our pages telling everyone to watch for the grand opening of the all new Eichhorn's Market located on James-rd at Livingston-av.

In the near future Herb will open a store designed to meet any food desire that you might have. Watch for our old friend. He will be back gracing the pages of the Leader with his every-week spe-

Next on my list of lucky people this week is Mrs. Yeakum, better known to her many friends as Betty. She owns and operates a gift shop at 343 Sycamore-st. Betty specializes in Christmas gifts that are handmade. Now everyone knows that a Christmas gift that is handmade seems to add just that extra touch to giving. Why not stop out and see Betty? Tell her the Bell Ringer sent you.

Donato's Pizza Carryout is opening this week and is offering quite a few new features in the pizza field. One, for instance, is Donato's own invention — a hamburger pizza. Sounds good, although I haven't tried it yet, but you can be sure I will. And for a grand opening special he will sell you a large pizza for the price of a small one on the opening days only, namely Saturday and Sunday of this week. Donato's is located at 1323 S. Ohio-av. Give him a call and try one of his good pizzas. Donald J. Potts is the owner and he has been on the South Side for many years so all of his friends should stop out and try his pizzas. Even if you're not a friend now, you will be after you stop in and get acquainted.

Small groups, attention! This is the place for your small get-togethers: Southview Bar and Dining Room located at 809 S. High-st. The dining room is operated by Lyllian McCullough, who is well known here on the South Side. Service for parties from four to 150 in number is their motto. The Southview features a nice quiet, clean atmosphere and prices that are easy on everyone.

Several of the merchants sponsoring the Christmas Jubilee have come up with what I consider some of the best advice of the year. Here it is: "Shop on South Parsons-av, your South Side shopping center. Try it. All your favorite shops are located close together and everything is available at prices you can afford." I'd like to add that you won't even have to worry about parking or transportation.

ENLISTS IN AIR FORCE

Edward G. Guyer, 386 Welch-av, son of Mrs. Andrew L. Guyer and the late Andrew Guyer, enlisted in the air force and left Nov. 17 for San Antonio, Tex. He attended Ohio State University two years.

FIRE LADDIES FIGHT MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY—Billy Starr of 693 Welch-av, stayed home from his second grade classes at Lincoln Park School the other day in order to play fireman. It was for a good reason. He wants to call your attention in order to play fireman. It was for a good reason. He wants to call your attention to the Fire Fighters' March for Muscular Dystrophy, next Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. Billy is one of those who may benefit from your generosity. A South Side fireman, Ben Berry of No. 15 Company, Livingston-av and Wager-st, who is seen helping Billy "steer" the big truck in the photo at left above, is helping in the nation-wide campaign. All the off-duty firemen in Columbus are going to take part in Tuesday's "March for those who can't walk." In the photo at right Fireman Jim Seagle, chairman of the campaign against the disease, talks to Mrs. Starr, mother of Billy, and two other boys, ages nine and 13, all of whom including herself are victims of the disease. In scientific research lies the only hope of finding cause and cure of this medical mystery. Funds collected will go to finance many projects in hospitals and clinics, as well as giving service to needy patients. Contribution envelopes have been sent through the mail. On Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, a fireman wearing a big yellow badge will call at your home for your donation. If you are going to be away, just drop your postage-free envelope in the mail box. It will be credited to the Columbus campaign. Here is a worthwhile way for you to give thanks for the good health of your children. Be ready for your fire fighter when he calls Tuesday evening. He may be marching to fight your battle. Don't let him respond to a false alarm.

Thanks on Thanksgiving
Treasured among the blessings for which we give thanks, are the many friendships made during our years in business on the South Side.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER
By Charles W. Widmaier

Mere words cannot fully express
The thanks in our hearts today.
But sincerely we thank God, each one
In our own true and humble way.

Stopping in quite meditation
We count blessings, one by one.
Surprising just how they all mount,
After we are all done.

Thanksgiving day is a day of joy,
We, in America, should rejoice.
Be grateful and sincere in thanks
To god, in one appreciative voice.

Let us remember, too, be glad each day,
And thankful for His goodness.
That is a debt that we all owe,
In our hearts, our thankfulness.

Quick Action Expected On Implementing of Bond Issue For Recreation

Quick action by the Columbus Recreation Commission has been taken to "set the ball rolling" on recreational improvements authorized by city voters in their approval of a bond issue of $1.5 million for recreation.

At its meeting last Wednesday, the Recreation Commission voted to recommend to city council, assurance of bonds totalling $1,172,000. In recommending this sum it is the commission's estimate that this amount is necessary for the recreational improvements that will be started in 1955.

Monday night the city council approved the hiring of architects for these recreational improvements. In all probability the issuance of the bonds will be approved by city council at its next meeting, Monday, Nov. 29, a spokesman for the commission said.

Among the major improvements for the West Side will be the construction of a gymnasium at Sunshine Recreation Center. General playground improvements will be featured on all city playgrounds. The South Side anticipates remodeling and enlarging of Schiller Recreation Center. Similar plans affect almost every neighborhood in the city.

Many of the improvements out of the bond issue of $1,172,000, it is hoped, will be completed for the 1955 playground and outdoor season.

The Gadabout

The Smith family, 293 Woodrow-av, certainly believe in utilizing just one month as a birthday month. Four birthdays in three generations dot the calendar for the family at this time. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith, their son Arthur and "Grandma" celebrate on these dates respectively: 18, 28, 19 and 27. A big "gobbly" greeting to each of them.

A young father who has had lots of misfortune and ill health is Mr. Price, of Welch-av. Currently he is in the hospital again and we know he'd appreciate cards. A card addressed to the Lincoln Park projects will reach him.

When Millie Claar exchanged vows with her air force husband on Nov. 13, she nearly did so on her mom and dad's 20th anniversary. Mary and Jim Claar had just celebrated that anniversary on the 10th. And how did they celebrate? Mary was co-hostess for Trudeau Guild 10, at Virginia Leonard's home!

Received a phone call from Lyllian McCullough and was glad she called. She's a well-known waitress around Whittier-st and City Park-av. She is now managing the dining room of the Southview Grill and has been there since Nov. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mesi hope that lots of groups consider their dining room for banquets and luncheons. With Christmas parties to be planned right now, why not investigate the offerings of Southview? The Mesis here to attract the groups that are too small to go uptown, but too large for the average meeting place. Meetings may be held in privacy, for there is a separate entrance from the bar portion of the establishment. They'll be open for Thanksgiving dinners too, so if Thanksgiving is going to be a "cookless" day at your house, you could sample the offerings of Southview.

Late November birthdays "up" the ages of two South Side lads. Billy Barry, of Frebis-av, had his "uppance" on Nov. 22, while Bob Longnecker, Reeb-av, must wait until the 28th of the month.

Bill Mitchell, son of Virginia Mitchell, and a resident of Gates-st, is currently home on leave from the naval station at Bainbridge, Md. He's due back on the 26th, so the Mitchells get to celebrate Thanksgiving together. He's looking real fit, we're happy to report.

We're always happy to report the good things that people do, so we'll glow a little while we tell you of the work done by 15 women. They work under the name of Good Neighbor Unit No. 1, of Columbus State School. Not a holiday goes by that they aren't doing something to make it a pleasant one for "their" cottage, Forest by name. Right now they are endeavoring to find a good piano to give to the folks in Forest Cottage, and are hoping to do so through the good will of our readers. Four other cottages would also like pianos, so we hope Mrs. Belcher's phone rings steadily for awhile. Mrs. Belcher may be reached by calling HI. 4-8351.

Louise Thomas, of Whittier-st, has been gravely ill, and we know she'd love to hear from her friends and neighbors.

A reminder of two early December dates previously mentioned. The Marion Franklin Boosters Club progressive party, Dec. 4, price 50c, starting at 8 p. m. and the flapjack dinner, sponsored by Troup 77, St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, on Thursday, Dec. 2, from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m., also priced 50c.

The three oldest McGrew children, Polly, Johnny and Tish, celebrate their Thanksgiving away from home this year, deserting the Buckeye State for the Keystone State of Pennsylvania. They are visiting relatives and we're sure they'll have a grand time. Needless to say, Mommy Jane and Pappy George will be feeling quite lonely without them!

Best Wishes for the fourth wedding anniversary on Nov. 25 of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schneider, Jr. travel to Hermosa Beach, Calif. from Mom and Dad Schneider, 1402 Parsons-av. The junior Schneiders receive the Leader weekly, so they'll be seeing the greetings first-hand.

Looking for a Christmas idea for a relative or friend who's moved away from Columbus? Do as the elder Schneiders did for their family and subscribe to the Leader. A year of pleasure and none of the bother of shopping and mailing packages. Your recipient will have cause to think of you constantly that way, and will appreciate your thoughtfulness, we're sure.

Mary Eichel was a surprised gal on Nov. 17, when nine of her friends trooped in on her at lunch time. Twas her birthday, and the gang couldn't let the day go past without acknowledging it. The silverware was probably missing, and a few other things well-hidden (per usual) but Mary's a good sport and would think something wrong if such tricks weren't perpetrated. Essie Buller got to enjoy more of the air and sunshine than she intended, but she loves walking, so she didn't mind. The characters attending the "Screwballs, Inc." meeting were Glenna Edwards, Marge Hoytry, Sarah Hughes, Mae Dean, Lona Hakin, Evelyn MacLeod, Lucille Hussey, walking fiend Essie Buller, Priscilla Dicke, and Mary Eichel.

Comes that rushed time of year again, when two and three affairs occur simultaneously. Several members of Trudeau Guild 25 plan to attend the guild's birthday potluck at the Onized Club House, on Dec. 1, dash to South High's Variety Show, then finish the p. m. at the Guild affair. This state of affairs is practically imperative for Mae Dean, whose son Bob has been active in the Variety Show at South.

November birthdays that mean a lot to yr Gadabout include those of Geneva Thompson, Bertha Tyack and LaVelle Cobourn. Our best to all three.

Mary Holton Crossmock is in University Hospital, so send her a card if you know her, please?

Margie and Robert Quincel have a new son, Stephen Blake, at their 294 E. Welch-av home. The young lad just missed his daddy's November birthdate by one day.

Robert Wilson had a 15th birthday on Nov. 15. These young friends and neighbors helped him to celebrate: Norma and Ethel Clare, Paul and Albert Quincel, Thomas Wilson, Carol Sharp, Ralph Geiger, Lona Dean, Fred Jerrell and Gary Spellman.

Our little friend, Sue Turner, is once again in White Cross Hospital, so put her name on your Christmas card list, won't you? When a child spend so much time in the hospital, morale is kept up with little things like cards. On our visit there, the girl who had received the most cards was the envy of the other three patients in the ward. Her room number is 405.

Several folks have told us they hope to help on our "Gifts for Orient" and we'll be telling you about it each week until Christmas. For recent readers, Orient is the State Hospital at Orient, O., and not the Far East. Many of the patients are practically abandoned by relatives and receive nothing for holidays, birthdays, etc. There is no organized group working for the institution, such as Twigs for Children's, Trudeau for Benjamin Franklin, Wings for Nightingale Cottage, etc.

Last year was the best Christmas the patients had had, due DIRECTLY to readers of the South Side Leader. Fifteen hundred gifts were distributed and twice that number could be used. It isn't necessary to give absolutely new things, as there is an occupational therapy department, which is able to salvage many things. Gifts are preferred that won't bring injury to the patients, as some are quite young mentally. It isn't necessary to wrap them, but if you'd like, you may include the wrapping so the cottage mothers can do the wrapping.

Anything suitable for youngsters, baby size to 12, is appropriate. Some of the older women like costume jewelry and cosmetics. Suggestions include toys, easy jig-saw puzzles, articles of clothing (not necessarily new but clean), towels, face cloths, soap, coloring books, educational games (not too hard), and so on. As I said last year, when a little fellow wads up a towel and pretends it's a doll when he goes to bed, it makes you want to do something.

Orient patients come from all over the state, so the "caring" parents haven't much chance to organize. If the institution were nearer a large city, chances are that more would be done. If any groups are interested in this project, won't you call us at HI. 4-1061?

Individuals wanting to donate are cordially invited to do so. The office of the Leader is available as a collecting point.

It wouldn't be appropriate to let Thanksgiving pass without taking note of it. This year has been a trying one for ye Gadabout, a heartbreaking one, as a matter of fact. We discovered what wonderful friends we had and they were legion. We want them to know how thankful we are for their proven friendship. So many, many other things we're thankful for, ad infinitum. One of the nicest is feeling close to our South Side neighbors, and being able to sign off as . . . The Gadabout.

To buy, to sell—Use a Want Ad.

GIFT THAT KEEPS ON GIVING—No, the parties in the picture above are not looking at flying saucers. They are looking at something far more substantial, one of two polio projectors purchased five years ago by the Southeast Lions Club for use by bedfast patients. These projectors can be operated with one finger and the page turning device for books is so sensitive that totally disabled patients are able to activate the switch with their tongues. Shown using one of these projectors, made available without charge to totally disabled persons by service clubs throughout the world, are Victor George and Carole Sue Brahm, in bed, both of whom are being treated for polio. Looking on are Lion George Loudermilk and a sister of the two polio victims.

Reading the Leader want ads is a regular habit with Leader Readers.

Bible Survey Is Conducted

The American Bible Society every year at this time has an annual campaign to encourage reading of the Scriptures. In cooperation with this endeavor, Evangelist C. L. Duffield, who is conducting the Faith for Today Campaign for Christ at the Hartman Theatre every Sunday night during this month, is beginning a city-wide survey to find out the ten favorite Bible passages of the people in the Columbus area.

The results of the poll will be announced each week at the Sunday night meetings at the Hartman Theatre and the final results on Sunday, Nov. 28.

Residents of this area who would like to enter this poll may send a card or letter to C. L. Duffield, 3423 Kimberly-av, Columbus 11, listing their favorite Bible text and giving their name and address, so a free booklet can be sent to them, or may call him at LA. 7327 or H. V. Shafer at LA. 4044.

The group making the survey on the South Side includes Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Clark, 495 Reinhard-av; Mrs. Elsie Iams, 1632 S. Third-st; Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Mayes, 604½ E. Livingston-av; Mrs. Pearl Terry, 1430 S. High-st; Gladys Walton, 896 Ellsworth; Mrs. Julia Wilson, 1624 S. Eighth-st.

Story Of South's Basketball Has Been One Of Good Athletes, Good Leaders

Editor's Note: The following is a review of South High School's past basketball performances and a forecast of things to come in this season's basketball race. It is extracted from a bulletin given wide circulation last week to Bulldog students and boosters in the community.

The story of basketball at South has been one of fine youngsters and good leadership. When the school opened, volunteer leadership prevailed, the first paid coach being John McDonald in 1909-10. He was followed by Tom Metcalf, the senior faculty member at present, who reigned from 1912 to 1916.

The first Bulldog title came under Metcalf, with Captain Carl "Smitty" Smith, veteran Starling mentor, Carl Wirthwein, veteran Ohio State coach; Art Isaly, cheese manufacturer; Lawrence Hoddy, prominent farmer, and Irv Yeager, California realtor, leading the way. This 1915 team was unbeaten. Games were played at the old YMCA where the Dispatch building now stands. Wambold of the recreation department, operated the City League and East did not enter that year due to an eligibility hassle. However, a game was arranged which established South as champions as they defeated E. Paul. Chic Harley and company.

Games were later played in the old City Hall, where the Loew's Ohio Theater now is, and, after it burned, in the "little coliseum," a garage area on State Street. All games for all schools were played on Saturday afternoons, followed by a set of junior varsity contests.

Harold Dunlap and G. Peabody followed Metcalf with fair success, then Herb Bash, who later built Indian Springs and Berwick Golf Courses and now operates Olentangy Driving Range, coached from 1920-7.

South twice won the title during this time, and one year conquered all four sports. All games were played at the Fairgrounds Coliseum in one afternoon. Of mention in Mr. Bash's recollection are Carl Larsen, Millard Drandt, Bob Barton, Bob Donner, "Cutch" Cutchins, Hoover Young of city recreation, Bob Grady, and Gene Bennaman.

Judge Rodney Ross followed in leadership winning the title once (1928). Irv Carlisle, Dean McNash, Charles "Mike" Milusnich, Andy Otto, James Milner, "Lefty" Evans, George Freeman, Jack McQuaid, Herb Bellman, John Coverdale, Don Schusterman, "Logey" and Joe Meyers, George Custer, Paul Kates, Bob Dietrich, and Clarence "Red" Foster are remembered by Ross from his eight years as coach.

Kermit Blosser assumed the duties for the 1936-37 season, tied for the city title once and won it outright four other times in eight seasons. The 1941-2 champs also won the district. Willie Mapp, Glen Golden, Bob Gillespie, Jack McClain, George Meyers, Dick Stock, Ernie Alban, "Stu" Jones, Jack Moore, present East mentor, John Young, Bill Courtney, Ray McDonald, Dic' Meusenbacher, Harold Soppel, Harry Edgington, and Al Kollmer were outstanding. Blosser left South for a "hitch" in the navy and fully expected to return until his former coach, Don Peden, offered him an opportunity to assist in football and basketball at his alma mater, Ohio University, and he has been there since.

George R. "Pug" Hood then moved from Grandview to South. In 11 seasons, his teams won the city championship outright once, 1952-3, and tied when Paul Ebert, later OSU great, graduated at mid-year. The 1953-4 team, although missing the city championship, penterated the state finals in tournament play, farthest in South basketball history.

Hood lists Paul Ebert, Clarence Pointer and Benny Wright as stand-outs. Hood resigned to assume full-time duties as junior partner in the Athletic Specialty Co. and was replaced by John Colmery for this season. Colmery, in his fifth year of teaching, transferred in from Indianola Junior High School of Columbus.

There are many big shoes to be filled from last year's state runners-up. Gone is the size of Frank Howard, Stan Owens, George Langley and Quincy Dunn, in addition to the leadership of Benny Wright. Gone also are the years of coaching experience and success of "Pug" Hood.

Remaining for half-season is Clarence Pointer, with hopes of adding Ken Redmond and Russ Ridgway at mid-year if they can meet the scholastic standards. Jim Ferrell, Norm James, provided he doesn't quit a la 1953, Dick Stahr and Lew Taylor, appear most likely to see action on the inexperienced club. Only Pointer was a regular last year.

Objective is "the first one that got away," the city title. East is the team to beat.

Roles Of South Siders Listed In Charity Newsies' Paper Sale

John A. Allen of 385 Reinhard-av, new probationary member of the Charity Newsies, already is at work on advance details for the welfare organization's 48th annual sale of "Open Your Heart" special edition newspapers.

This sale will be held on all principal street corners and at shopping centers throughout greater Columbus on Saturday, Dec. 11. Meanwhile, members are soliciting contributions now in factories, offices, stores, wholesale firms and military installations.

Newsie Allen's corner assignment will be announced later, according President Fred Moritz and Drive Chairman Walter W. Furniss. Allen is a time recorder for the Seagrave Corp.

Moritz stressed the meaning behind the humanitarian group's slogan of "100 Per Cent for Charity." He cited the fact that every dollar collected is used solely to purchase new clothing and new shoes, these articles, in turn, being turned over to needy children of school age. All campaign expenses are met from profits of social events staged by the membership for the pleasure of their friends and themselves.

Last year some 5,000 children were helped. Many received medical supplies, food, fuel and shelter, in addition to being outfitted with the best in new clothing and shod with shoes built to withstand the rigors of youthful play and enthusiasm.

Two South Side business men recently were honored by the organization they've helped materially on many occasions, it was noted by President Moritz. Harry Silberstein and Max Silberstein have been voted honorary memberships by the Charity Newsies. The brothers are owners and operators of the Columbus Pipe and Equipment Co., 763 E. Markison-av.

They have purchased the first edition of the "Open Your Heart" special newspaper for several years, making the biggest bid at the annual "Pep Dinner." This banquet is the traditional kick off event for the mid-December street sale.

WELL-KNOWN TRAVEL EXPERT TO APPEAR ON TOWN MEETING

One of America's best known figures in the field of motoring and travel will be interviewed by the editors of the three Columbus daily newspapers on Columbus Town Meeting at 1 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 28.

HAMILTON TOWNSHIP HIGH NOTES

Three Lettermen To Spark This Year's Varsity Basketball Squad

The basketball season this year at Hamilton Township High School should get off with a big bang with three lettermen returning to the varsity squad. They are Bill Bond, a senior; Bob Wise, a senior, and Jerry Featherolf, a junior. The others on the varsity squad are Wayne Sharron, Fred Chappelear, Hank Morgan, Pete Tufts, and Dan Jacobs. The reserve team has not yet been selected by the coach.

In the past the team has had one week of basketball practice before starting of the season, but this year they will have an extra week of practice.

The coaches of the season will be Mr. O'Dell, varsity coach, and Mr. Powless, reserve coach.

JUNIOR'S PLAY

The comedy play, "Arizona Dude Ranch," was presented to the public on Friday, Nov. 19, by the Hamilton Township High School junior class. The cowboy setting was enhanced by the colorful costumes worn by the actors and actresses. Special western effects were created by Beverly Richard's riding habit; John Prushing's chaps, gun and holster; Emerson Darst's boots, gun and holster, and Mike Lombardi's Indian outfit and wig—all of which were rented for the occasion.

The three cowboys of the play wore real honest-to-goodness 10-gallon hats imported from Texas.

The Redwood picnic tables and benches were loaned to the juniors by Mr. and Mrs. Strausbaugh. Kenneth Syx, a junior at Hamilton, furnished the gun case. The antlers were loaned to the junior class by one of the bus drivers at Hamilton.

AN ACTOR'S LIFE

Although a typical member of the cast of the junior play, Paul McClish needed no further wardrobe. Other members of the cast begged, borrowed, rented or bought various bits of "cowboy" apparel.

While rehearsing for the play Paul spent two hours each night for about four weeks. Altogether he spent 45 hours in rehearsals.

Paul also spent a half hour each night learning his lines as well. It was Paul's opinion that there weren't any romances created during the junior class play. "We were all too busy," he said.

UNIFORMS ARE CHOSEN

On Wednesday, Nov. 17, a meeting of the newly-elected cheerleaders was held. The varsity cheerleaders include Beverly Roof, Karleen Wikoff, Wauleka Adams, and Nina Smith. The reserve cheerleaders are Sharon Bond, Norma Tolliver, Virginia Obetz, and Eleanor Dieble.

Mrs. Belcher, the advisor, and the girls decided on a white sweater and a white skirt with a gold lining. This uniform will prevail until it goes out of style.

ANNUAL STAFF NOTES

The editor of the 1955 Hamiltonian at Hamilton Township High School is Verla Haynes and the business manager is Mary Griffith. Staff members include Doris Obert, Lois Goble, Joy Root, Jeri Bodkins, George Shannon, Paul Ellis and Linda Durst. Miss Harp is the adviser.

Annuals will cost $3 before Christmas and $3.50 after Christmas. Students may order them now by paying $1 down and the balance when annuals are delivered.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At a meeting of the student council held Nov. 9, plans were made to organize a student court for the first time in the school's history. Mr. Powless, one of the advisers, presented his ideas on the formation of a student court. Student approval was unanimous.

The hall monitors gave their reports on the number of students in the hall during their respective periods.

The student council was given a test on the general cleanliness of the school, after which the meeting was adjourned.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society of Hamilton Township High School met Monday, Nov. 15, to discuss ways of making money to pay for Honor Society pins and for the induction rites for new members in the spring. The old members are Dick Beightler, Kepler Runkle, Karleen Wikoff, Phyllis Heisel and Shirley Archer. New members are Ann O'Harra, Kathryn Taylor, Mary Young, Linda Anderson, Paul McClish, John Prushing. Mr. Strausbaugh is the Honor Society sponsor.

EVERY DAY THANKSGIVING DAY

Dear the people coming home,
Dear glad faces long away,
Dear the merry cries, and dear
All the glad and happy play,
Dear the thanks, too, that we give
For all of this, Thanksgiving Day.
Harriet Prescott Spofford.
(Written about 1900.)

Mail—From Cleveland: "Wonder what the newspapers will find to print after this trial is over? Too bad there isn't more space given to pleasant happenings" . . . From a Columbus teacher: "I wish the Armistice Day poems in your column had appeared before Armistice—or Veterans'—Day. We had been trying to find that particular poem of Grantfield Rice's and one or two others that you printed. We wanted to read them as part of our small program, the day before. We have not been able to find many Thanksgiving Day poems. Perhaps you could help us" . . . (Sorry, I couldn't find a poem for Thanksgiving either, but did find the above verse in Bartlett's Quotations) . . . From Mt. Vernon, also from a teacher: "Do you happen to have a poem of Victor Hugo's in your collection? If you have any tucked away some place please send them along" . . . From my Thornville 'Dirt Farmer" friend: "Winter came early to Honey Creek in 1954. Snow blanketed the willow trees that still were green. Maple leaves of brilliant hue sifted down with the snow flakes. Wild ducks by the hundreds looked up from Cranberry Marsh into a snow storm and realized they were far, far away from the Southland. Now they are pointing toward the southern horizon high above the corn fields, and many an onlooker, remembering bitter winters, secretly wishes for wings to go along."

A PRAYER FOR ALL

'Tis not for me to intercede
As proxy for the human race;
Have I not ample cause to plead,
Myself, a sinner asking grace?

No, if from earth, by vice defiled,
Should be upraised a prayer today,
That voice be yours, oh little child,
Who hardly known for whom you pray.

While on ourselves temptations dire
And pitfalls deadly ever wait,
Let children's prayers, a cherub choir,
Like incense, mount to Heaven's gate.

Victor Hugo.

This poem is included in a volume of French poetry published in 1921. The book was given to me in 1939, by Mr. H. E. Cherrington, well-known music and drama critic and publicist. He probably doesn't remember me by now, much less that he gave me the book. But nobody fortunate enough to know him ever forgets him—and I'm not on his payroll as his press agent either. He is one of Columbus' first citizens.

Why don't some of you poets send some verses to Ye Editor? He says no box tops, no prize, no nothin' but your poem in his column, which would be an honor.

My private Waterloo—the person who tells you how the book you are reading ends . . . mothers who report their offsprings' "misdeeds" to daddy when he gets home after a hard day and asks him to punish the children, then brag to all and sundry that THEY never spank their kids . . . ironing curtains . . . telephone advertising, which is still going strong. With apologies to Bobart who wrote the original, here is a po-em:

Count that day blest
Whose low descending sun
Views from thy phone
No advertising done.

In Passing—A closed-for-the-winter Dairy Queen stand in Newark displays this sign: "See you next spring." Under one of the signs somebody had written: "Not me. I'll be in the Army" . . . My favorite six-year-old thinks maybe Santa Claus should bring her a typewriter this year so she "I might break yours, Grandma, when she comes to visit. She added "I might break yours, Grandma(but I wouldn't mean to so it would be better if I had one of my very own" . . . Here is a verse swiped from a medical journal:

Just outside the medic's office
The gentleman took a fall.
He said "Scoop me up and take me inside
So I'll only have to pay for an office call."

SOUTH SIDE YMCA

The South Side YMCA inducted 125 members into their Gra-Y Clubs at an impressive ceremony held recently at St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church. Candidates for membership, with their advisers, were present from Beck, Deshler, Heyl, Greenlawn, Lincoln Park, Livingston, Reeb, Siebert, Southwood and Stewart Gra-Y.

Parents watched their boys promise to live up to the club purpose, "to be strong in spirit, mind and body and to live in a Christian way in the home, school, church and neighborhood." Bill Real, president of the Lincoln Park Gra-Y, led the candidates in the induction ceremony.

Rev. Ray Huff, pastor of the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church, presented a challenge to the boys to live up to their club purpose by being friendly, respecting and serving others, keeping up in their school work, being helpful at home, attending church services regularly and by being reverent to God.

Roosevelt Basketballers Begin Its Hoop Practice

By Nancy Winton

The general thought around most schools at this time of year is basketball, and Roosevelt Junior High is no exception. The Roosevelt team started its first day of practice on Nov. 8. Mr. Battin, the coach, has organized an almost new team. The only letter man on the team is Harold Ward. This tall, muscular lad is the star of the team.

The other team members are Jerry Ruby, Clark Rader, Dick and Rodger Folts, David Williams, Ronald Cohen, and Alan Weinberg. Also David Long, Jim Jacobs, Tim Woodyard, Kenny Wears, Don Zauderer, Chris Scheiderer, and Morris Jordan.

The team has a busy schedule with about half of its games away. Their first game is Champion at Champion on Dec. 2. On Dec. 9 they play Crestview at Roosevelt. Roosevelt goes to West on Dec. 16. For their fourth game they play at Roosevelt, which is played with Barrett on Dec. 21. Franklin comes to Roosevelt on Jan. 6. Roosevelt goes to Everett on Jan. 13. Indianola is host on Jan. 20. Roosevelt starts off February by going to Aquinas the third. On Feb. 10, Roosevelt goes to Starling. Mohawk comes to Roosevelt on Feb. 17 and McKinley plays at Roosevelt for their last game on Feb. 24.

transferred to the two afore-mentioned hospitals, as well as St. Francis and Mercy Hospitals, by emergency squads from Marion, Hamilton and Franklin Townships, the Columbus fire department and the Columbus police department.

The impact of the collision tore the bus' steel roof loose from its windshield base and peeled it backward several feet. The entire right front section of the bus was ripped away, leaving a huge gap exposed.

Two front seats on the right side were demolished and four on the left front were badly damaged. The driver's seat was not touched.

Police officers quoted Fetter as saying he was traveling only about 30 to 35 miles per hour at the time of the accident.

Harold Boles, superintendent of Marion Local Schools, said to his knowledge this was Fetter's first accident, as well as the school's first serious school bus mishap. Deeply concerned about the tragedy, Boles spent most of Tuesday afternoon and evening in the various hospitals, checking conditions of the injured students.

Motorists, as you know, it's never safe to get out of your car on the traffic side. But of course the risk sometimes has to be taken because the other door is blocked. This is especially dangerous at night. So, here's a safety tip from the Safety Council of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce: Apply luminous or reflector material on the inside edge of the left-hand door so approaching traffic will have no trouble seeing the open door.

"Don't be silly, dear! Bears are extinct in these mountains."

South Side Council Will Sponsor Fourth Annual Yule Lighting Rite

The Council of South Side Organizations has approved preliminary plans for the fourth annual Christmas tree lighting celebration to be held on Dec. 12, at Schiller Park.

Again this year the council will work on the program with the Ministerial Association, Young People's Inter-church Council, and the South Side Y-Teens Council. The program will include the numerous singing groups of the South Side. Any such choral groups are invited to send a representative to the Southside YMCA on Monday at 7:30 p. m. All choral groups desiring to participate should have a representative at this planning meeting.

In other business, council members heard Urban Redevelopment Director Lawrence Irvin speak on the redevelopment proposals. Irvin pointed out that many voters did not understand the proposal. He assured South Siders that the Greenlawn housing project could not be used by this redevelopment plan to house displaced persons. Irvin also discussed the Mohawk-Market area with the council and outlined future proposals.

Local Cub Leaders Urged To Attend Dec. 5 Pow Wow

South Side Cub Scout leaders were reminded today that little time remains to send in reservations for the Cub Scouts pow-wow at the State School for the Blind on Sunday, Dec. 5, at 1 p. m.

This pow-wow is aimed directly at assisting Cub Scout leaders by helping them in their greatest problem — that of obtaining and training qualified personnel to operate Cub packs. Attendances of four members from each pack will help units to function more smoothly by having four experts in pack administration, ceremonies and entertainment, games and handicraft. The concentrated training will be given in the afternoon.

The Central Ohio Council has promised to spare no effort to gather together the best talent, methods and facilities available for the conference. Those attending will receive proportional credit for their attendance toward the Scouter Key.

A Blue and Gold banquet will be held at 6 p. m. for all of those who attend. Registration is $1.50 per person.

In addition to the training there will be a midway and exhibit of Cub handicraft.

Mrs. Albanese Succumbs After Five-Year Coma

Solemn Requiem Mass for Mrs. Frances Albanese, 50, who had lain unconscious at her home at 921 Kelton-av for nearly five years, will be sung at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in St. John the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Albanese died Sunday at home while being fed her evening meal by her husband, Andrew.

She had been in the coma-like state since Jan. 17, 1950, when her heart stopped during an operation for a duodenal ulcer at the Cleveland Clinic. The surgeon hastily made an incision, massaged her heart, and she began to breathe again.

But the brief lapse damaged her brain. She never regained consciousness.

Her husband fed her morning and evening meals, and while he was at work as an inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad, Mrs. Albanese was cared for by the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor, 168 E. Lincoln-av.

Prior to her long illness, Mrs. Albanese had been the organist at St. John the Baptist Church for 16 years. She was a member of the Holy Rosary Society of the church.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Michael, at home, and Joseph of Columbus; her father, Michael Giantonio of Columbus; two brothers, Joseph and Nicholas E. Giantonio, operators of the Seymour Bakery Co.; a sister, Mrs. Mary Cincione of Columbus; and a grandson.

The Rosary was recited at the residence at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery by the John Quint and Sons Funeral Home.

For A Genuine Merry Christmas

An Editorial

Doing the bulk of your Christmas shopping in your neighborhood stores this year will help you and your family keep it a very "Merry Christmas"

There's little merriment in joining the hustling, bustling crowds downtown. Those of you who have tried it year after year will be quick to admit that Christmas has become such a chore that its very spirit of "Peace on earth, Good will to men" has been lost in the rude jostling of other harried shoppers.

Some people, we know, still suffering from the onslaught of crowded aisles in years gone by and with the memory of aching feet and big store bedlam imprinted on their minds have decided that "Christmas is too commercial and this year we're not going to exchange gifts." These folks are depriving themselves of some of the greatest joys of the Christmas season watching the looks of appreciation in the eyes of a surprised recipient, hearing the squeals of delight from Santa-thrilled children, and enjoying anticipation themselves as they open gifts.

You can regain that wonderful feeling of the old-fashioned Christmas spirit this year by changing your shopping from a chore to a joy. The secret is, of course, to shop locally.

In patronizing your own community stores you will be warmed by the hearty and sincere "Happy Holiday" greetings of your own friends and neighbors. And you will be aiding the merchants who are the backbone of most of the creative civic endeavors in your own neighborhood.

From a more practical standpoint, you will find that it truly pays financially to "shop local." Besides avoiding 'shoppers' nerves,' you will find that dollars go a lot farther when expensive parking lots, carfare, or cab fees don't have to be figured into your shopping budget.

Prices, too, are comparable to those in the most jam-packed downtown stores you can dream of. The local merchant passes on to each and every customer the economy of operating "out of the high-rent district." In most cases you will be amazed to find his prices are even lower than mid-town prices on nationally advertised name brands.

The smaller merchant, backbone of the American system of free enterprise, offers you all the advantages of downtown shopping plus a sincere interest in your happiness and the welfare of your community.

If you follow our "shop local" formula, we think on Christmas Day you will find that this has been the most economical, the most enjoyable, and the least harried Yule holiday season of your life.

Fourth Annual Community Christmas Tree To Be Lit On Sunday, Dec. 12

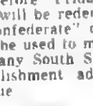
Reader Claims $1 Prize As Leader Jackpot Hits $87

The big Christmas Jubilee recently started on the South Side, teamed up this past week with the Leader's "Confederate Money" contest to pay dividends to Christopher Shoemaker, 826 S. Ohio-av.

Shoemaker discovered one of last week's five $1 insignia in the South Parsons Merchants' co-sponsored advertisement.



With only $1 discovered last week, our jackpot reaches a total of $87 to be awarded this week to any person presenting the paper containing the one and only $5 Confederate insignia, an exact replica of the one shown here, at the South Side Leader office.

In addition, the usual five $1 insignia will be in circulation to give five additional South Siders a chance to cash in on at least one "Confederate" Dollar. Here's hoping one of these six lucky readers is you!

Here's What To Look For

If you find the above insignia stamped in an advertisement in this copy of this newspaper take it at once to the office of the South Side Leader, 1542 Parsons-av. (before Friday at 5 p.m.). It will be redeemed for $87 in "Confederate" currency, which can be used to make purchases at any South Side business establishment advertising in this issue.

The above insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

On Monday evening, Nov. 22 the faculty at Barrett Junior High School reaped the benefits of some serious thinking and careful planning for a surprise party for the former principal, Robert F. Darrow, now the principal at West Junior and Senior High School.

Darrow was genuinely surprised when he entered the new cafeteria and was greeted by a group of 45 teachers and guests.

After a festive dinner a prepared program of games and music was offered.

A YULE MELODY OF BARGAINS

Six South Parsons-Av Merchants Speed Up Coming Of Christmas With Jubilee

In the familiar words of the old song, "Christmas is coming soon ," sooner than you think, actually, because six South Parsons-av. merchants have contrived to speed the event up a few days for 66 lucky South Side shoppers.

Of course, we're talking about the huge "Christmas Jubilee" a Yuletide contest to be climaxed by giving away, through six drawings, a total of $1,000 in prizes. The entire Jubilee is sponsored by six well-known merchants, Hoermle's, Leeds Credit Jewelers, Schottenstein's, B. F. Goodrich Store, R & S Dime Store, and Foreign Food-town Grocery.

Santa Claus, himself, will play a large part in this spectacular celebration, for on each of the six nights prior to Christmas, the "Jolly Old Elf" will make drawings from entry stubs submitted by customers at any of the six stores mentioned above. The drawing will take place in a different one of the six participating stores each night.

The fabulous prizes, which will soon find their way into the homes of 66 South Siders, include a 21-inch Motorola TV, deluxe bicycle, electric rotisserie, Polaroid camera, Sunbeam Mixmaster, Westinghouse roaster oven and cabinet, 30 baskets of select groceries, and 30 turkeys. Each night one of the grand prizes will be given away plus five turkeys and five baskets of groceries.

Everyone is eligible for the drawing so go ahead, enter from as many stores as you like! Remember, each and every ticket you put in the container actually gives you 66 chances of winning.

Just to get in the mood for the festivities why not stop in and take a look at all those valuable prizes on display in the lobby of the Ohio National Bank, Steelton Branch. Who knows? You may be the lucky winner of the very one you want most.

In conjunction with this first Christmas Jubilee, the co-sponsors are proving that it really pays to shop locally, for they are now offering a variety of merchandise at truly startling bargains to continue throughout the weeks preceding Christmas, itself.

Now is the time to join hundreds of wise South Side shoppers in the Jubilee Parade to any of these six stores. Make your shopping a pleasure this Christmas by buying and saving. As a delightful dividend, a valuable Christmas present may be yours!

$100 Oil Blaze Routs Family Of Five In Township

A $100 blaze, caused by a leaking oil furnace, routed a Marion Township mother and her four children out into the cold night on Monday evening and denoted a heroic act by an eight year old girl.

Mrs. Helen Stevens said Tuesday before going to bed Monday night she made a final check of the furnace which had been under repair earlier in the day.

"I opened the door to the hallway and saw smoke pouring out," she said. "The children were sleeping and I woke them up."

Mrs. Stevens' heroic Linda eight, Paula, seven and Ernest two and one half from the house and went to get the baby Carla three months who was sleeping in a crib in a bedroom adjacent to the floor furnace.

While the mother was getting the baby, young Ernest dashed back into the house. Although Linda thought the entire house was on fire, she rushed back inside to get the youngster.

Mrs. Stevens' husband, Ernest was working at the time of the blaze which firemen said caused an estimated loss of more than $100.

Christmas Decorations Installed With Lights As Added Feature

Christmas lights have joined the Christmas decorations this year and were recently installed on lower Parsons-av. These decorations are made possible by the efforts of members of the Steelton Merchants and through contributions by merchants along S. Parsons-av.

Lights have been strung across four of the intersections on Parsons-av. and make a wonderful addition to the Christmas decorations from last year.

Christmas cheer is in the air and the members of Steelton Merchants Association have expressed the wish that they hope that with these Christmas decorations that more people will enjoy their efforts to enhance the beauty of S. Parsons-av.

Aurora Association Seeks To Aid Local Epileptics

The newly formed Aurora Association, a group organized here this past summer for the purpose of helping epileptics meet their own needs and for lifting the stigma from the affliction through education is announcing a sale, backed by the National Epilepsy League to raise money to be used in the work of the local chapter.

During the Christmas season they are offering for sale an attractive Advent calendar imported from Europe. It is a 27 inch replica of "Little Christmas Town" with each door and window numbered from one to 24. It is given to a child on Dec. 1, and each day the youngster opens one of the numbered panels to find a new and exciting Yuletide scene. Over the rooftops of this tiny village could lie a new horizon for the millions now unable to lead a normal life.

"I opened the door to the hallway and saw smoke pouring out," she said. "The children were sleeping and I woke them up."

Mrs. Stevens' heroic Linda eight, Paula, seven and Ernest two and one half from the house and went to get the baby Carla three months who was sleeping in a crib in a bedroom adjacent to the floor furnace.

While the mother was getting the baby, young Ernest dashed back into the house. Although Linda thought the entire house was on fire, she rushed back inside to get the youngster.

Mrs. Stevens' husband, Ernest was working at the time of the blaze which firemen said caused an estimated loss of more than $100.

South Side Bell Ringer

"For Whom The Bell Tolls"

By Tom Sharp

Only 20 shopping days till Christmas! Time does fly as if it really had wings.

A merchant gave me a gift idea this morning that I thought was very appropriate. He said, "Rudd water heaters are coming out this year with Monel metal and many new features that add to the beauty of buying a Rudd water heater, and it seems to me that it might be just the Christmas present for the whole family." Hot water comfort supplied by a Rudd water heater sounds good.

Bell Ringer side note: These Rudd water heaters are carried by most all South Side plumbers. Call one of them and ask about the Rudd.

ARE YOU UP A CHRISTMAS TREE! Gift buying need not be a problem; just shop with the merchant advertising in the Leader for items you need at prices you can afford. And have you ever checked the coupons it is better to shop on the South Side? Here are some of them. Close at hand, no parking problems, no long drawn out bus rides, same items that are carried up town at lower prices due to a lower overhead. Money spent on the South Side is spent in your community.

He b Eichhorn is busily preparing his store on Jamesrd at Livingston-av. Stop and see it. You'll find it airy with plenty of room for parking. It is not quite ready to present to the public as yet but watch for the formal announcement. I understand he is going to give away quite a few gifts during his opening celebration. Might not be a bad idea to stop out and visit with our old friend after his opening.

There will be a fine demonstration given at Heil and Scheiderer Hardware today and tomorrow. I am not going to mention just what it is but every home owner should attend and see what is being offered. Curiosity killed the cat but it could help you.

Lights out for this week, but remember to pay attention to the lights that have been installed on S. Parsons-av through the efforts of the Steelton Merchants and contributions of other local merchants.

Our "Gifts for Orient" drive is perking right along. Two more groups are repeating last year's generosity and the patients of the State School will be benefited thereby. The two groups are the Grandmothers' Club of Schiller Park and the Friendship Class of Ohio Avenue EUB. Both gave generously last year.

We hope all sorts of groups respond to our appeal. The patients certainly represent all creeds and races, so we hope the donors are as diversified. Should you desire to contact me, the number is HI. 4-1051.

Gayle Smith, Woodrow-av, learned "first hand" how treacherous blood poisoning can be. We're glad to report that the last time we heard from her, her infected hand was mending.

Two more days of "singleness" are all that remain for Margie Brooks and Jackson C. Taylor. They will exchange their wedding vows Dec. 4 in the Christian Apostolic Church. Jackson resides at 735 Reinhard-av and Marge lives at 918 Racine-av. Had Marge waited a few weeks she could have combined her birthday and wedding day, for she will be 21 on Dec. 21.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. DeVoe will be saddened to know that the young couple lost their year-old son last week, suddenly and unexpectedly. The death came so quickly there wasn't any chance to call all the friends and relatives so the grandmother asked that they be informed via this medium. Mr. DeVoe was a St. Mary's graduate, living with his folks at 1276 City Park in his undergraduate days. He, his wife and little Paul Terrence made their home at 386 W. Sixth-av.

Mrs. Tackett of neighboring Kentucky is busy these days visiting her Columbus relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Beaver and kiddies of Sheldon-av spent the Thanksgiving holiday in the Blue Grass state and Mrs. Tackett returned with them.

A slumber party was held at the home of Barbara Martin, 1114 S. Ohio-av, on Nov. 5. The following attended: Barrett student, Sharon Riggs; Roosevelt Jr. High co-eds: Bonnie Bower, Sharon Myers, Margaret Andersen, Judy Kramer, Carol Foster, Karen Avery, Barbara Solomons, Sharon Kast and Patsy Fowler. Ginny Hewson and Mrs. Martin were chaperones for the party.

We make a safe prediction: Jack Allen will bring fame to Columbus town some day as a comer in the entertainment world and it will be country-wide, too. He just graduated from South High last year and has had a floor show troupe for two years "already"! Tonight he and his group, known professionally as Jack Lee and his Lee-Ettes, will be entertaining the patients at Benjamin Franklin Hospital. Lots of good luck, and the fewest possible pebbles on the rocky road to fame, Jack.

Trudeau Guild 10 will hold its December meeting in the home of Mrs. Louis Whitacre, 158 E. Southwood-av, on Dec. 8. Business will be kept to a minimum, with Christmas projects being the main order of the evening. (They got ye Gadabout desined to work at this meeting . . . she's co-hostess with Dorothy and will help Donna Hampton in the recreation department. They'll probably put us to work as a tall, thin Santa Claus, too!)

Our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Raymond, S. Third-st, and to Phylis Curron, wife of Bill Curron. Phyllis is head of all the Trudeau Guilds and I'm sure all the South Side members would like to express their sympathy to her. If you will, won't you send her a card expressing that sympathy? There were just the two of them and she must be awfully lonely.

Some December birthdays to be noted should include Linda Ackers, Jenkins-av, who is anxiously awaiting Dec. 12, to roll around, and Bobby Castle, whose birthday is today. Bobby is celebrating his birthday in a different house this year. The Castle family moved from their S. Fourth-st residence to one on Moler.

Mike Tabor has had lots to tell his Southwood schoolmates these past few weeks, since his return from Merrie England. The three Tabors, Charles, Peggy and Mike, had a happy time on their trip to Gloucester, England, and Peggy caught up on all the family happenings since 1949. It was the first time Charles had been back since 1945, when he was stationed there. Mrs. Tabor's mother is Mrs. Jels.

An amusing incident happened on shipboard, although at the time it was quite worrisome. Mike disappeared for practically the entire day and his frantic parents hunted and hunted. When they discovered him, he was riding up and down the ship's elevators and had been, all day!

A November birthday that we didn't hear about until Monday was that of Amelia Petrasio. Belated greetings, Amelia.

The wedding date hasn't been set, but plans for a life together keep Betty Baughman and Willie Hasey quite occupied these days. Betty is a S. Sixth-st resident and Willie has a Lockbourne address.

The Camp Fire Girls will hold their Christmas Council Fire this Sunday at the South Methodist Church.

New grandparents, as of Nov. 26, are Mr. and Mrs. William Frey, Sr., of S. Third-st.

Another bit of news concerning England, this time re a visitor. The "visited" were Mr. and Mrs. Winkleman of Welch-av, and the "visitor", Mrs. Hope, mother of Connie Winkleman. Mrs. Hope is from Manchester, England. She enjoyed her visit to America tremendously. Her departure for home was an event of Nov. 3.

Sheldon-av residents are missing some of their former neighbors these days, for Mickey, Lillian and Betty Skobrak are now getting their mail at 887 Wilson-av. The address is temporary, however, for the Skobraks are living with Lillian's mother, while their new home is being built.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hicks of McGuffey, O., are parents of a young son, born recently. Don is a former Columbus resident.

Scott Buller knows quite definitely what his Christmas present will be this year. This Frebis-av resident will be one of the students from OSU who will "train" to the Pasadena Rose Bowl. The students will be gone from Dec. 26 to Jan. 4. We only hope that Scott can give a first hand account of a rousing Ohio State victory over the California team.

Guess that does it for this week, and don't forget to dial HI. 4-1051 to give us your news. We'll be waiting! Till next edition—

Greetings:

Now that we have Thanksgiving tucked away for another year, we are ready to face the hustle and bustle and excitement of the Christmas season. If you are looking for a suitable present to take to an exchange party, why not try a green plant in an attractive planter? The little green plants and vines are 25 and 30 cents, the planters vary in price.

Our very best wishes to Jimmy Keckley and Dick Baars, two of the boys hurt in the Marion-Franklin school bus accident; in fact we would like to extend our best wishes to all the young folk injured in the accident. Also to Otto Gall, Dorothy Lawhead, Ester Workmaster, Earl F. Thompson, Marie Stiles, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Mrs. Chester Ramey, Carol Daniels and Mrs. Raymond Sutter, all of whom have been ill.

Happy new parents are Ray and Donna McKinster who have a new baby girl, the Gary Phillips and Earl Reisdorffs who have new sons. Birthday greetings to Mrs. Helen Knapp and Margaret Markus. We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Altenbach on their thirtieth anniversary.

Friday, Nov. 19, tryouts for cheerleading were held in the Roosevelt gym. There were four teams of cheerleaders: Ninth grade, Gerry Hoferkamp, Carol Weed, Judy Cameron, Nancy Turner, Darlene Layton and Jane Moerhman, Loretta Ginsburg, Diane Nye, Shirley Mertz, Judy Herrel, Judy Colburn and Vicki Kraft; eighth grade, Sandra Taylor, Sue Taylor, Cathy Igel, Judy Girard, Sharon Short, Annette Meisner, Linda Ringer, Diana Griffith, Mary Lou Geppart, Marilyn Bugh, Judy Siegel and Judy Kramer.

It was a very close vote between the two ninth grade teams but the judges gave the honor to Loretta Ginsburg's team. The judges were Mr. Ashbaugh, Mrs. Cavaroni and David Cook.

After the tryouts, six members of the faculty played a basketball game against members of the Roosevelt team. Faculty players were Mr. Nealeigh, Mr. Sanbrink, Mr Tata, Mr. Eberle, Mr. Regan and Tony Filichia.

Three Happy Classified Ad Users Of Last Week Reveal Stories Of Success

Triple proof that classified ads in the South Side Leader get results were offered by three equally satisfied ladies this week, who wished to share the knowledge of the greatest salesman on earth with you, their fellow readers.

Mrs. Joseph Anderson, 904 Oakwood-av, who was overwhelmed when she received over 30 calls on her ad which ran in the miscellaneous category: G. E. refrigerator and gas range. Both good condition. FE. 4691.

Mrs. E. A. Lapder, 1362 Refugee-rd, answered 13 calls on her "for rent" ad in the Leader: To middle-aged couple 3 rm. cottage. Bath, elec., good well water, soft water inside, furn., basement, gar. and yard, space. Just the home for a couple who like the country. Ref. req. $65 per mo. Call at 1362 Refugee-rd.

Mrs. Fred Neff, 894 Southwood-av, never dreamed she would receive over 70 calls on her ad in the Leader: 4 pc. bedroom set, bed, springs, mattress, and vanity. Modern, $25.

You may have to take the phone off the hook, but rest assured, when you advertise in the Leader, your little salesman is really on the job and you are sure to make a sale which is satisfactory to both parties. Your key to this satisfaction is the want-ad department of this newspaper, HI. 4-9262, or JO. 9444.

South Bulldogs Roll Up 73-52 Victory Margin

By Bob Hanly

South High broke the game with Grandview last Friday night wide-open by scoring 46 points in the second half to defeat the Bobcats 73-52.

It was a see-saw battle in the first half with the lead changing hands 12 times. But after half-time it was a different story.

Jim Ferrell hit for five straight points and Sam Pointer and George Devlin began to hit consistently.

Put it all together and it spelled that the Bulldogs had won their second straight game.

Pointer, who netted 22 points, was high man in scoring for the evening. Close behind for South were George Devlin 21, and Jim Ferrell, 19. The Bobcats' big center, Bill Brown, collected 21 markers.

JUST TRY!

Attempt the end and never stand to doubt;
Nothing's so hard but search will find it out.—Herrick.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

We of the Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County are proud of our program and we hope you will help us expand and strengthen it in 1955 by supporting the Christmas seal sale in your editorial columns

I would like to take this opportunity to explain something to you and your readers. At the risk of sounding elementary, I want to emphasize that Benjamin Franklin (TB) Hospital is not financially supported by the Tuberculosis Society and the Christmas seal sale. Five years ago when the TB tax levy (which was renewed on Nov. 2) was first passed, there was confusion in the minds of some who thought that the levy helped us and that therefore our Christmas seal receipts should be less needed. That, of course, is untrue.

The hospital is tax-supported. Our program, paid for only by Christmas seals, consists of free chest X-rays, given day in, day out, to residents of both county and city; educational programs in our local schools and community groups; programs to restore local TB patients to productive lives, TB medical research and better laws to fight TB. More than 90 percent of Christmas seal money is spent here in Franklin county.

Thank you sincerely for your always generous help.

Mrs. Virginia H. Benton

Carmen Cleaners Boasts No Job In Cleaning, Tailoring Too Big

Carmen Cleaners of 1553 Parsons-av, take all jobs in the clothing repairing field, no matter what size or what type. Carmen Minini, owner of this establishment, learned his trade in Italy and then came to this country in 1928. He has been tailoring for approximately 26 years. Carmen Cleaners handles all cleaning and pressing work while endeavoring to satisfy everyone in the tailoring field.

Carmen is married and has one child. He resides at 752 Mithoff-st. One of the unusual features of dealing with Carmen Cleaners is that when you have spent $15 with this firm you receive free one 8x10 photo of any member of the family. This special incentive gives you an additional reason for using Carmen's famous quality service.

Pickup and delivery service is also available. No matter what the job in the tailoring line, Carmen's can handle it. From zipper repair to fur work, the bigger, the better, and the more complex, the greater the chance that Carmen's can handle it.

Carmen's has been located on the same site since 1944. Just recently a new sign was installed so as to provide beter identification for this enterprising concern.

Carmen's interest in photography has transcended the hobby or amateur and several of his pictures have appeared in the South Side Leader. Carmen is a member of the Corpus Christi Church and is active in many South Side affairs.

A statement by the owner well worth keeping in mind when looking for a cleaner is: "We strive, at all times to meet the needs of our customers. We try to anticipate just what they want in the way of tailoring and provide them the best in service at the lowest possible prices. Our policy is to provide the finest of work with a minimum of trouble to the customer.

"No job is too large and no job is too small, and we pride ourselves in the knowledge that we are neither too big for a job nor too small for any type of job. We feel that we have the type of service needed by many people and we only hope they will try us. I feel sure they will be satisfied.

"Our special feature has been well received by the many families that have taken advantage of it and at all times the pictures that I take have to please the customer or I will give him another one. Why don't you stop in and let us try to meet your needs, either in the tailoring field or the dry cleaning line? We are always ready to please you, our customers."

Dry cleaning and tailoring are the only lines followed by this concern and are the lines in which it specializes.

Council Of South Side Organizations Sends Letter Of Thanks To Co-Sponsors

A letter of thanks for assistance throughout the year was mailed late last week by Louis Dimel, chairman of the civic welfare committee of the Council of South Side Organizations to co-sponsors of the council's community activities. The letter read as follows:

"It is coming into the Christmas season and the Fourth of July Celebration, to which you contributed so generously last spring, is now a pleasant memory.

"Without your assistance, plans of the Council of South Side Organizations for observing this historical date, would have failed to materialize.

"You will be interested to know that your donation not only helped to sponsor the Fourth of July celebration but also helped play a part in the community Halloween parties for the South Side children.

"The spirit with which you contributed to these civic causes is to be commended and deserves a hearty thanks from this council.

"Since our mission is that of fostering civic welfare and promoting community projects beneficial to South Siders, we urge you to call upon us for any service we may render you.

In Passing

By

Esther Weakley

DECEMBER

I will hear stillness in an hour or so,
The lovely quiet that is snow.

I will hear nothing but a faint sound
Of something barely touching ground.

When the climb's over my heart will be
One with the whiteness of chastity;

And it will beat louder till sleep shall stop
The beating, and gentle drop, drop.

I will dream tranquil dreams and sw.
Warmed by a holy world of snow.
Joseph Joel Keith, in his book
The Long Nights.

It was like a breath of fresh air when the football game took over the front pages and there wasn't space for the sordid trial up north.

Borrowed from a medical journal: A stout, balding man was describing his tennis technic. He panted "My brain immediately barks out a command to my body. 'Run forward speedily, it says. 'Start right away! Slam the ball over the net, then walk back.'" "And then what happens?" he was asked. "And then," he replied, "my body says 'Who? Me?'"

In Passing — A teen-age niece was collecting "thrills" of her relatives and acquaintances for a school paper. When she asked what my biggest thrill had been, or as she put it — the highest highlight of my life — I could think of nothing but the personal things that would be of interest to nobody but me—thrills that every mother and grandmother have experienced. She was persistent, so I remembered a few in a hurry: when a letter comes from a friend you thought had forgotten you; when neighbors who had moved away care enough to come back to visit, and tell you they miss you and wish they had never left the old neighborhood; when a poinsettia you thought had died, suddenly blooms; when John N. Wolfe, then editor of The Hilltop Record, told me 'way back in 1935 that there could be a column; when my favorite shutin was told she could sit up; when I see a Washington or Oregon license; when my first po-em appeared in The Columbus Dispatch in 1932. (I knew right then tha. I was even better than Edna St. V. Millay) . . . . Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognise a mistake when you make it again —and this is not original . . . Neither is this: "We are having a raffle for a poor widow. Will you buy a ticket?" No. My wife would not let me keep her even if I won."

More mail—From Athens: "This past Indian summer has convinced me that southern Ohio hills vie with my ocean for my love. The ocean wins though, because I was born near it. Another student (Ohio Un.) and I went for a long hike Saturday. Athens is truly a hiker's paradise. One can start at any given point and ramble through picturesque country, mostly hills. We skipped along sun-baked roads, ran through a field of alfalfa—I think it was—and slid down a leafy ravine into a lot of overhanging caves. We loafed and invited our respective souls and climbed clear out of the indigo. We passed cows that mooed at us and we mooed right back, and we stopped to wonder if all the tears the weeping willows dropped into the water made that waterfall. We found an abandoned farm house and of course we went in. We walked over broken glass, torn old newspapers—but no mice, thank goodness. The last tenants must have left in a hurry because a pan with mold in it was on a rusty stove in what must have been the summer kitchen. If an artist would paint some of the landscapes as we actually saw them, nobody would believe such beauty really exists. Try hiking in the hills some time. It's good for what ails you."

Mayor To Address Meet Of Townsend Club Dec. 9

Mayor Jack Sensenbrenner will be guest speaker at the bean pot pie and corn bread dinner of Townsend Club 32, starting at 6 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 9, in WOW Hall, 588 S. Third-st.

Fred Birkhimer, chairman of the dinner and program committee, announces that the public is cordially invited to attend and hear the mayor explain the Townsend plan and Social Security.

Marine Reservists Launch Their 1954 'Toys For Tots' Drive Here

In conjunction with the program of the Marine Corps Reservists in the Columbus area, soon to launch their annual Christmas campaign, "Toys for Tots," Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, in a proclamation issued Nov. 27, urged Columbus residents to support the program, scheduled for Nov. 27-Dec. 10, and designed to provide needy children with a toy on Christmas morning.

In his proclamation Saturday the Mayor said in part: "Whereas the true spirit of Christmas is reflected in unselfish giving . . . I urge all my fellow citizens to join me in support of this Christmas gift campaign."

Why are these reservists so interested in this Christmas project? Captain Keith Lynn, commanding officer of the 27th Special Infantry Company, and Major Richard E. Pryor, commanding officer of Marine Fighter Squadron 244, explain it this way: "Every member of our unit is also a member of this community. We want to help our community in every way we can and that includes bringing Christmas happiness to those children who might otherwise be forgotten on Christmas morning."

According to Mr. Norman Ingmire, 2176 W. Mound-st, Southwest District chairman, the campaign will be climaxed on Dec. 11, when Mr. and Mrs. Public are asked to have a new or usable toy available to be collected by Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts, who will take them to the sub-collection centers for their district.

Vernon D. Sanford, Scouting District Commissioner of the Southwest District, emphasized that the collection centers will be established for one day only—Saturday, Dec. 11. After the toys have been delivered to the collection centers by the Scouts, they will be picked up by the marines who will, in turn, sort and prepare them for distribution.

The project was started in 1948 by reservists who had seen heartbreaking numbers of unhappy children in other lands during World War II. Last year, the campaign conducted here in Franklin County was one of the most successful in the nation, as Over 150,000 toys were collected. The only other community in the nation that topped this record was Philadelphia, Pa.

AGREED

Charles de Gaulle, French General: "At one time during the war Churchill and I were agreed on only three things: That Britain was an island, Frances was her nearest neighbor and that America was another world altogether."

Holiday Program Held By Clarfield School Pupils

By Mrs. Virginia Kessler

Boys and girls of Clarfield Elementary School observed the coming of Thanksgiving in two general assembly programs.

Grades four, five, and six assembled in 1954. Prayer songs of Thanksgiving and other appropriate holiday songs were presented by grades for the group. At the close of the program all of the children joined in singing the traditional music of Thanksgiving.

For the upper grade assembly Jerry Honaker of the YMCA was present and received the boys and girls of the sixth grade into the Gra-Y in a short and impressive ceremony.

Children in grades one, two, and three entered their assembly shortly afterward to sing of the "big fat turkey" and of praises to God. The songs presented by the various grade groups had been learned as a part of the regular school music program.

Story-time in the assembly program told the children about a "sad turkey that had no wings and how good fortune came to him when he became the special friend of a little boy."

It was hoped that through the singing and sharing of these Thanksgiving assembly thoughts the teachers and children carried home for the holidays a bit more of the joy and reverance that the nation feels for Thanksgiving Day.

Plans For Great Southern Shoppers Mart Detailed

An 80-acre tract on the north 3,000 feet of the Hartman Farm, S High-st, will be the site of the Don M. Casto organization's eighth suburban shopping center in Columbus, it was disclosed Saturday.

To be known as the Great Southern Shoppers Mart, the new center will contain a completely integrated community of retail establishments, medical center, bowling alleys, and recreational facilities. It will be the eighth suburban mart built by the Casto firm and the first to be constructed on the South Side.

Don M. Casto, Sr., in disclosing the acquisition of the site, said the decision to enter the South Side came after a survey revealed tremendous potentialities. Increased traffic between Columbus and the atomic energy plant in Pike County, expansion of housing facilities at nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base, industrial concentration in the area, and plans for commercial and residential development in the area were among the factors, he said.

Don M. Casto, Jr., the son in the family team, said work may not be started on the new center until late next year. Certain zoning requirements must be met and utility services must be extended.

Arthur E. Daley, consultant for the Ohio National Bank, trustee for the Samuel B. Hartman estate, said an over-all study indicated soundness of the transaction.

He said a Casto shopping center would result in a great urge of residential building in the area, and make the Hartman farm the logical place for the largest single residential development in Greater Columbus.

Taking part in the negotiations were Samuel A. Keller, Ohio National Bank vice president; Herman B. Tingley, legal counsel for the trustee; Harold Voelker, legal counsel for the Castos, and Daley.

Six South Siders must have been too busy Christmas shopping this week to notice the insignia plainly printed in their own copies of the South Side Leader for not one person showed up at the South Side Leader office to claim "Confederate" bills for their insignia.

Foreign Foodtown Grocery Observes Its 50th Annviersary Of Founding By 'Uncle' Trautman

FOREIGN FOODTOWN GROCERY, founded 50 years ago by "Uncle Billy" Trautman, Foreign Foodtown Grocery, above, has grown to become the leading independently-owned South Side grocery.

Bill and Ed Findley announced this week that their store, the Foreign Foodtown Grocery at 1954 Parsons-av, is now celebrating its 50th anniversary. Started just half a century ago by "Uncle Billy" Trautman, this store has grown and prospered over the years until now it is the leading independently-owned grocery store on the South Side.

One of the items of interest about "Uncle Billy" was that when he started business his clerks had to speak approximately 11 languages. Nowadays the clerks in the store don't have to speak all the languages but the store still specializes in carrying items of gastronomic delight for its many foreign and native-born customers.

Bill and Ed said, "We hope to make this an occasion that everyone will remember. We are going to present a gift of some kind to everyone shopping with us during this celebration. In addition, we'll provide tickets for more than 100 prizes. The first prize is a beautiful watch and the second prize is an electric train."

The celebration will be centered around a red star on the register tape. When you receive a register tape with a star on it, you will be entitled to a free basket of groceries. "We invite the public to shop with us and see how they save," Ed Findley added. "We also provide delivery service on any purchase made in the store."

Housewives are rapidly learning that there are many advantages in looking to Foreign Foodtown Grocery for their food stuffs. While prices are invariably low, quality always remains the very best. Wide varieties are always there to choose from. Stocks are fresh and clean, and goods are displayed for your convenience.

If you are among those few who have not enjoyed these shopping facilities and every-day low prices of the Foreign Foodtown Grocery, why not try them and learn for yourself what thousands of others have learned by thrifty buying at this long-established but modern South Side establishment.

Foreign Foortown Grocery offers a complete service in staple groceries, quality A-1 meats, and fresh fruits and vegetables. And in addition to high quality at low prices you also receive courteous and efficient service. You are always welcome at the Foreign Foodtown Grocery and you are guaranteed a square deal.

Mnagers Bill and Ed Findley are active in local civic affairs and have always given freely of their efforts for any project that promises to benefit our community.

Barrett Pupils Receive Thank-You Note From Correspondents On Isle Of Man

Within the past few years the classes in general language and foreign language at Barrett Junior High School have established correspondence with a certain school on the Isle of Man in the English Channel. The latest letter from overseas reads as follows:

"Dear Miss Wallace:

"I wish to thank you and your pupils for the wonderful parcel you sent us. The scrapbook was beautifully made and so very interesting. I think that by now every form in the school has seen it, and we are keeping it in the school library for future generations of pupils to look at.

"The other books were very much appreciated by those of us who teach geography. Because naturally pictures in textbooks do not come up to the standard of those you sent us.

"I am writing this letter because it was my class who sent you the information on the Isle of Man, and the girls were very thrilled when they received such a lovely reply.

"I am sending you a calendar from all of us here, with very best wishes to you and your pupils for Christmas and the New Year.

Irene A. Shimmin"
Yours sincerely,

HOW TO MAKE MULTI-COLORED LOGS

Yule logs that burn with a beautiful, multicolored flame add a novel touch to holiday gatherings around the fireplace. The logs are made by soaking tightly rolled newspapers in a strong solution of salt, blue vitriol (copper sulphate) and water. After the rolls have soaked for a week in a wooden barrel or large earthenware crock and dried thoroughly, they will burn for a long time with flames of various colors.
CAUTION: The solution is poisonous.

South Hands Stinging 72-40 City League Lacing To West Cowboys

By Woody Owen

South High School's smooth playing cage squad, spearheaded by another brilliant, all-around performance by Clarence Pointer, handed the West High School a 72-40 lacing last Friday night on the Bulldogs' home court, in a City League contest.

In the opening minutes, Pointer's charity toss gave the blue and gray a lead which South never relinquished the remainder of the contest. The Bulldogs built up an 18-5 advantage at the end of the first period and continued to hold a commanding 32-17 margin at half time.

Early in the third period the Cowboys displayed some spark as they cut the lead to a 41-36 count. A goal by Stahr and three more in succession by Pointer, however, gulled the home forces out of danger as they led 54-35 at the three-quarters mark. Both coaches substituted freely in the final period but the Bulldogs continued to dominate play as they outscored the Cowboys by an 18-5 count to win as they pleased.

Pointer scorched the nets for 28 points, besides dominating both boards. He tallied eight points in each of the first three periods and only four in the finale, leaving the contest with 4½ minutes remaining with a slight leg injury. Stahr chipped in with 15 points also for the winners.

Randall led the Cowboys' offensive with 10 points but it was the inability of the local lads to get many rebounds that made the final score so one-sided.

On Friday night, Dec. 10, the Cowboys will invade Marion for a clash with Harding in a non-league contest.

Showing The Way...

HERE is life's romance; a grandfather guiding the minds of young boys and young girls seeing Heaven through grandfather's eyes. This may be hero-worship but it is a grand time to teach them to pray... to introduce them to the eternal Friend. Your child will listen at each bedtime when you talk about God, and Heaven, and the Church. He will follow when your journey is toward Sunday School. Oh, for the faith of grandfathers who care and who help youngsters find the way to God. It is our privilege and our responsibility to teach them to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take." If you teach them to trust this prayer, then you can trust them anywhere.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Dicke-
HI. 4-1051

The hectic time of the year is here, for HI. 4-1051 always gets quiet around the holiday time . . . cleaning, programs, shopping and Christmas parties all take their toll of our time, don't they?

Four birthdays occur on the 15th of this month, so our "best-est" to this quartet: Gasper La Rue (I call him "Pop"), Margie Speakmon, Catherine Leonard and Bill Kaufman. Dig my pappy's name! His birth certificate says Gaspard. He's a good guy, and I'm happy to be able to tell him so.

A real fine person is listed among our ailing residents these days. Lots of the readers know him, and we hope they remember him with a get-well card. The man is Ott Gall and his home address is 667 Thurman-av. Get well soon, Ott.

Mae Dean probably felt her Dec. 3 birthday, for she had a hectic, busy time last week. But she remained her serene, sweet self all through it, so maybe she didn't feel any older last Friday. Belated greetings!

We're glad to report that Mary Crossmock is beginning to feel better after her recent illness.

Heavens, how time does fly, to become quite unoriginal. Seems like only a few weeks ago we reported a triple birthday of a man, boy and dog, and here its time to report it again. The man is Mr. Richardson of Hinman-av, the boy is Harry Dorst of Morrill-av, and the pooch is Harry's pal. The three share a Dec. 1 birthday, so greetings.

Emma Horcher, proxy of South High PTA, will have an energetic Dec. 17, for that date finds her entertaining her PTA executive board. Mrs. Horcher is a resident of 826 Stewart-av.

Belated anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Lorbach, 1770 S. 18th-st. Two more years will find them celebrating their golden anniversary and we certainly hope to write it up at that time. Right now we'll congratulate them on achieving 48 years of wedded bliss.

Job's Daughters, Bethel 5, held their Christmas party last night at the South Gate Masonic Hall.

Twins Jack and Gene Speakmon, 820 S. Third-st, will soon be celebrating their 16th birthday, so we want to wish them the best. Their birthday date occurs three days after their mom's, and wouldn't it have been nice if it had been the same day? We heard a cute thing about the twins, which we just have to pass on. Seems they help a boy friend, Dean Phillips, carry the early morning papers. Family and neighbors objected to the "holler" method of arousing the twins at 4 a.m., so they devised an elaborate system, whereby they knotted all their old ties together throwing one end out the window and tying the other to one of the twin's wrist! The inclement weather finally got the ties, so now it's old sheets that are being used. If you ever go past the Speakmon household, don't think it's someone eloping—it's just the oldest kind of alarm clock known.

Mac Elfresh, Jr., is sending out a plea for musicians who enjoy playing for the love of it, to attend his rehearsals at King Avenue Methodist Church, King and Neil-av. The group is called the Columbus Philharmonic Group. And along the same lines Tom Crawshaw is doing a fine job at Schiller Park, 8 p.m. on Tuesdays. If you "used to play" and you haven't played for years, dig out the old instrument and give it a whirl, why don't you?

Jeannie LaRue will be celebrating a Dec. 10 birthday, so we'll kinda get an early greeting in.

We heard of a nice project, so we'll tell the readers about it too. All children, ages six to 15, are cordially invited to attend the Saturday afternoon get-togethers at South Methodist Church, from 2 to 4. Movies, games and oftentimes refreshments fill the two hours to capacity. Mr. Richardson is in charge, and Eddie Straub is his assistant. One of the films to be shown this week is "The Littlest Angel." Children from all churches are welcome, as this is strictly a recreational activity, designed to give the children supervised play time.

Here are the addresses of two lads in the service which we'd like to pass along: Pvt. Norman E. Wolfe, U.S. 52378934 Battery A—509 A.F.A. Bn., Third Armored Div., Fort Knox, Ky. The other soldier is Pvt. Harry Gene Bradford, R.A. 18510215 Co. D 4th Inf. B.N. Prov. 47th Inf. Div. Fort Benning, Ga.

Two more folks have heard our pleas for the patients at Orient State Hospital, and we want to thank them for helping us get a little nearer our goal. They are Mrs. D. R. White, 480 Elsmere-st, and Helen Swadley, our operator at the Kurlylock Beauty Shoppe.

Frankly, we're a wee bit disappointed, for our phone has been all too silent. Remember, it isn't necessary to give brand new articles, just items that are usable. Articles of clothing are quite acceptable as well as toys. It isn't necessary to wrap the items, but the wrapping could be included. All ages and sizes are represented at the institution and the mental age goes up to about 12. Keep those facts in mind, and perhaps when you're "holiday-cleaning" you'll run across articles that are usable. Here's hoping!

Till next week then—

AAA Official Suggests Membership In Columbus Club As Ideal Yule Gift

A suggestion that membership in the Columbus Automobile Club would make in ideal Christmas gift for any car-owner was made this week by Russell H. Campbell, general chairman of the local club. Such a gift, he said, actually combines 15 gifts into one gift of motoring well-being.

Mentioning just a few of these "extra gifts" wrapped up in club membership, he pointed to money and time-saving services such as the 24-hour, two-way radio emergency road service; touring service; notary service; bail bond protection; and license service.

STRICTLY FOR DOGS

Remind The Man Or Woman You Own That Dog Licenses Went On Sale Dec. 1

By I. M. Tollwagger

You've heard of things being strictly for the birds; well, this is strictly for us dogs. And I and any other tail-waggers would appreciate it if you humans would not read it. I can guarantee you that your canine buddy—and I don't have to tell you that dogs are man's best friend—will tell you about it.

The matter that has me barking and the hackles up on my back is a notice I read in an announcement for humans just the other day.

Franklin County Auditor Fred C. Dunn said that 1955 dog licenses went on sale Wednesday, Dec. 1, at the court house and at the animal shelter of the Humane Society out at 2770 Groveport-pk.

You can save your master a lot of standing in line during January if you tip him off to the fact that the current sale is designed to save him time. Growl at him, even give him a playful nip if it's necessary to remind him that the auditor's office will be open from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. except Saturdays when the closing hour will be noon.

Dunn figures that there are about 42,000 of us dogs in the county and apparently is working quite hard to convince the humans that "own" us dogs of the necessity of buying licenses and getting them early.

Actually, here's the clincher you can use when you talk to the man or woman or boy or girl who is making life pretty doggone nice for you. Whine in his or her ear that $2 is a pretty small price to pay for friendship—and the same amount applies to the license whether you're a male or female dog.

All your "owner" (Hah!) has to do to make the process even easier is to use the mails to obtain the license. Tell him to forward the fee to the Franklin County auditor, County Court House, Columbus 15, Ohio, along with his or her name and address in a stamped, self-addressed envelope along with a brief description of his canine pal (age, breed, sex, color, long or short hair, etc.)

The best part about it all is that it's real Social Security for us dogs. You see, the fees collected constitute a fund allocated to the Humane Society's activities. And just remember, my canine friends, there is no stigma attached to wearing a number and being registered with the government. After all, humans have to go through the same process for their Social Security. It is for our protection!

Bus Drivers Draw Up Safety Rules

Bus drivers of Hamilton Township High School met recently with Superintendent Strausbaugh, to discuss safety for the school buses. The following resolutions were passed:

1. We sympathize with Marion Franklin in their serious bus accident.

2. We do not want to become discouraged about the Marion-Franklin accident, but it should be taken as a warning for close examination of all safety measures.

3. We should continue to permit students to carry music instruments on the bus. The band teacher should take surveys of large instruments and work with the bus drivers in a mutual agreement as to whether they can or can not be safely taken on the bus.

4. It is suggested that students carrying instruments sit in the rear of the bus and hold the instrument.

5. Do not stack the instruments around the bus driver.

6. Large items that would in any way be safety hazards should not be permitted on the bus.

Strausbaugh emphasized that a bus driver is responsible for the conduct and safety of the boys and girls on his bus. He asked the bus drivers to bring to his attention any problems arising and offered his complete support.

Tumbling Club Provides Lots Of Action For Children At Schiller

A tumbling club has been formed at Schiller Recreation Center. Its members have been chosen from the top participants in the tumbling classes. The members qualify for membership by passing all five of the skill test series.

Once a member of the tumbling class has proved himself skilled enough to pass this last series, he then is asked to join the club and work on more difficult phases of tumbling. The Tumbling Club forms the core around which tumbling shows are built.

Fourteen persons have now been taken into this club which held its first meeting Nov. 26. These members include Dorothea Ruoff, president; Bonnie Husse, vice-president; Lynne Myers, secretary; Joan Sollner, treasurer; and Mary Ann Yetter, Schiller reporter. Other members are Carol Sollner, Barbara Kimberely, Eva Ward, Paulette Fix, Linda Grimstead, Mary Dempsey, Norma Rice, Barbara McGraw, and Karen Schmitt.

Future activities of this club will be a Christmas party on Dec. 17, and participation of its members in the Christmas play to be given at Schiller Center the same day. Tumbling advisor for the club is "Jay" Hoch and parent advisor is Mrs. Schmitt.

More and more tumblers are passing their skill tests. Children who just passed the "clown" test are Harold Mather, Arthur Parfitt, Laura Reed, Curtis Marcum, Billy Prince, and Charles Branson. A beautiful poinsettia or cyclamen plant, a dozen gorgeous roses, or a box of dewy, fresh cut flowers will be just the answer . . . or perhaps a handsome corsage for her to wear to Christmas Eve services at church . . . a gay centerpiece to add to the festivity of the holiday dinners . . . dish gardens which she will enjoy for many months. We have lovely new dishes in gold metal, and gay red and chartreuse in plastic and wrought iron. Visit us, we will surely have the answer to your gift problem.

Pre-Christmas Activities In Full Swing At South Side Settlement

Christmas activities are in full swing at the South Side Settlement. Club groups are planning their parties, trees are being decorated, Christmas songs, music and stories are heard on every hand. Especially reflecting the spirit of the South Side Settlement, is the Christmas window display at 1917 Parsons-av.

Registration for the re-opening of the settlement's School Lunch Program on Jan. 3, is now being taken through the Reeb Avenue School. It will have room for 50 children every school day in the dining room. There, they will get a good hot meal for 25 cents. Questionnaires were sent out and at the present time the indication is that the limit of children will be reached by Jan. 1. This is open only to registered members, so every interested parent should be sure his child has filled out a membership card and paid the registration fee of 25 cents.

The Mothers' Breakfast Club will have its annual Christmas Potluck Luncheon at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 15. Members are asked to bring enough food for both themselves and any guests or children they may bring with them. The Nursery Play School children will put on a program and be the recipients of the gifts from the club.

The athletic activities are going full steam, according to Carl Pangle. Three all-star teams are practicing for the Federation of Settlements Leagues. Each Saturday afternoon the South Side Settlement invites other Federation teams in the 19 years old and older league to come in for practice periods from 2-4 p.m.

The Girls' All-Star team is practicing at Beatty Center, preparing for the girls' basketball league, which will start after Christmas.

On the home front, the South Side Settlement is starting its inter-club tournaments. The prominent teams are: Badgers, Knights, Buckeyes, Elks, and Panthers.

The settlement announced early this week that all club activities will be over Dec. 18 and will not resume until Jan. 3.

Today when a small child misbehaves while being dressed for a trip to the country, the mother threatens to leave her at home with a "sitter," which in this modern day seems to be a fate worse than being locked in the attic.

Poetry Corner

ON THE SEA OF LIFE

By Charles W. Widmeier

Men are like tiny sailboats,
Sailing on the sea of Life.
As they navigate along their course,
They are faced with its storms and strife.

Tho some days the sailing goes smoothly,
While on others, there is no rest.
Like the sea, life is uncertain,
Dividing the worst with the best.

Men must face life every day,
Regardless of whom he may be.
Map and plan and aim his course,
Or he will be helplessly lost at sea.

Successful are those only who meet life,
With its storms of distrust and greed.
Only they will conquer these storms,
Are those who to wisdom will heed.

Lost are they who fear and are weak.
Men with hearts that harbor a hate.
They are at fault when their lives are lost,
They themselves carve their own fate.

Variety Of Special Events Planned At Schiller To Mark The Christmas Season

A variety of special events are planned for the holiday season at Schiller Recreation Center.

Teen-agers from the center will join representatives from the other city recreation centers for Christmas caroling on Dec. 20. The group will sing for the city council and then proceed to tour the downtown section on a bus to entertain with a program of holiday songs.

Wednesday, Dec. 22, is a big day for the boys and girls who are 12 and under. That's the day the annual Christmas Party will be held in the auditorium at Schiller. The program will include entertainment, candy and surprises for the children who attend the party.

A dance will be held on Thursday, Dec. 30. The gymnasium will be decorated for this dance which is the most important event of all the dances planned during the year.

Many other parties are planned for the clubs and various activities at Schiller. The dance classes will receive certificates and have their party on Dec. 16. South Side Bell Ringer

"For Whom The Bell Tolls"

By Tom Sharp

Christmas week is upon us. Have you all of your Christmas shopping done? If not, now is the hour! You can't put it off today and do it tomorrow, because we are running out of tomorrows. Many fine items of Christmas delight are carried throughout our pages this week. Check every ad and then shop on the South Side. Shop with the merchants that offer you so many advantages. Your local merchants are specializing in pleasing each and every one of you. Just check and see!

I was talking to Matt of Matt's Pizza the other day and he said that he was very pleased with the results of his grand opening celebration last week end. He added that he is extending very special low prices on his regular 13-inch pizzas once again this week in appreciation.

Matt's Pizza is located at the corner of Bruck and Gates right next door to the B&G Grill. Matt specializes in pizza that will satisfy anyone who appreciates truly fine Italian foods. Step in to try one of Matt's Pizzas and tell him the Bell Ringer sent you!

Next on my list of congratulations this week is IDEAL CLEANERS, located at Innis and Fourth. In the advertisement carried each week by this small but capable cleaning establishment is a thought that every one of us should remember: "Quality Cleaning". Quality is a word that should be remembered in everything, but especially in dry cleaning. You can't afford to send garments to a dry cleaner and not have the work done as you like it. Just call HI. 4-1765 and see how Ideal Cleaners can do your work in a jiffy and do it the way you want!

A question is asked this week in Ideal's advertisement: "Have you been prepared?" Are your drapes and slip covers and all your dry cleaning ready for Christmas?" Because of Christmas shopping some of us forget our dry cleaning until we need the clothes. But all you have to do is call Ideal Cleaners and have your clothes picked up, dry cleaned, and then delivered to your door—all at a very reasonable price. Remember for dry cleaning that satisfies, "Deal with Ideal."

TRASH BARRELS have been provided along Parsons-av for everyone to use in conjunction with a concerted effort to "keep the South Side Clean." Twenty of these barrels have been provided by the Steelton Merchants Association, whose members express the wish that everyone try to deposit their refuse in these barrels instead of in the street. The barrels are painted white and have elbow attachments on the lids to facilitate your depositing of trash inside instead of outside. Try it and see how well we can KEEP THE SOUTH SIDE CLEAN.

48 NEW STREETLIGHTS ON SOUTH SIDE'S MAJOR THOROUGHFARE SLATED TO GO ON AT NIGHTFALL

MERCHANTS CONVEY APPRECIATION—Members of the Steelton Merchants' Association are shown above this week as they got together with members of the city administration to convey their thanks for the ultra-modern lighting system which will be turned on for the first time tonight along Parsons-av. In the photo above, Mayor Jack Sensenbrenner points to the Parsons-av stretch which now boasts 48 light standards of the latest design and promises three and one-half times as much lighting over the strip as before. The Steelton Merchants' Association has actively sought the lighting improvements for 14 years. Seated, from left, are Robert Horowitz, president of the Steelton Merchants' Association; Mayor Sensenbrenner and Otto L. Meier, chairman of the city traffic and transportation commission and a past president of the merchants' association. Standing, from left, are Bill Hoermle, of the merchants' association; O. J. Fillinger, president of the city council; and Floyd C. Redick, city service director; and Robert N. Tucker, superintendent of the city division of electricity. (South Side Leader photo)

Steelton Merchants Assn. Has Sought Parsons-Av Job 14 Yrs.

A major civic event on the South Side is scheduled to take place this evening, practically unheralded. Without pomp or ceremony, an electronic eye will turn on 48 new ulta-bright street lights at dusk today along Parsons-av from Hanford-st to the southern city limits, bringing to a happy fruition the 14-year-old dream of all South Siders and the Steelton Merchants Association in particular.

Actually, two separate strings of light: along the South Side's main thoroughfare will come on this evening for the first time as darkness activates an electronic eye, according to Robert N. Tucker, superintendent of the city division of electricity. The same electronic device will light the fixtures each night in the future

One of the strings of lights, stretching 5,240 feet from Hosack-st north to Hanford-st, along Parsons-av, boasts 42 modern, enclosed "Luminaire"-type fixtures, replacing 18 obsolete street lamps. The Luminaire fixtures, with 600 candlepower each, replace lamps of only 400 candlepower each. This particular stretch will be three and one-half times as brightly illuminated as before

The second section of the new lighting is a 1,090-foot portion south of Hosack-st across the viaduct to the south corporation line. Six new Luminaires have replaced five old-style lamps, providing twice as much illumination in terms of candlepower as before.

In explaining the technical aspects of the new lighting project, started Oct. 18 and worked at intermittently since that time by division of electricity personnel, Tucker declared that visibility would be far superior under the lighting. He cited lack of glare and "more comfortable" lighting visibility aids to visibility

Back in 1940, the Steelton Merchants Association first brought the attention of city officials to the need for replacement of antiquated lights along Parsons-av, the South Side's most heavily traveled thoroughfare. Members cited the fact that most of the standards along the street had been in existence since 1910 and 1920. Completely inadequate, most of the fixtures consisted of broad-rim shades with light bulbs underneath. Their light glared and many dark places made the street unsafe for both motor and pedestrian traffic

The copper wire embargo after the nation entered World War II remained in effect until after the war and completely eliminated possibility of additional lighting during those years. When the city resumed street lighting modernization in the spring of 1950, Steelton Merchants Association members made certain that high priority was maintained for the Parsons-av. project

Throughout the years, a standing committee of Steelton Merchants Association members has kept the issue before city officials.

The latest committee for the project has been Otto L. Meier, chairman of the Columbus traffic and transportation commission and a past president of the Steelton Merchants Association; Bob Horowitz, current president of the association; Bill Hoermle; and Bill Finzley.

Meier, as a past president of the Steelton Merchants Association, had this to say about the completion of the long-awaited project:

"Not only will it enhance the South Side's busiest street, but it will also add to the feeling of pride in one of the oldest and most stable sections of our city.

Steelton Merchants' Association President Horowitz declared, "On behalf of the entire South Side, our organization wishes to thank all cooperating city officials for the successful fruition of this project."

While no ceremony has been planned for the dusk turn-on of the new street lighting for the first time tonight, City Electric Superintendent Tucker has invited all South Siders to make a special effort to be on hand to note the difference in lighting.

Marion-Hamilton Townships Sewer Plan Apparently Picks Up Speed

The recently-proposed water and sewage system for portions of Marion and Hamilton Townships apparently demonstrated momentum last week with the word from Dessc T. Mitchell, county sanitary engineer, that the project is being readied for presentation to the bond houses. The required sewer district has already been established by the board of county commissioners.

Several meetings have been held with bonding attorneys, in which these attorneys have expressed considerable interest and have stated that they would submit a proposition as soon as cost versus income data was made available.

The proposed system will not only offer the residents within the involved areas tremndous benefits, but will be the biggest single factor ever contributed to the future prosperous development of the two townships, backers of the sewer district claim.

Among the many benefits anticipated upon the establishment of this system, advocates are listing an automatic increase in property values and loan values, fire hydrants, and an automatic decrease in fire insurance rates. In addition to the lower insurance rates residents will have the assurance of added fire protection, as the efficiency of the fire fighters will be multiplied as soon as the hydrants are installed, backers add.

The system will open the areas to new developments upon completion, and with the additional tax monies carried in with the expected influx of new businesses and new industries, the tax burden on the home owners should be lessened proportionately. The new businesses will provide new shopping conveniences for the entire family, a spokesman for the sewer district group concluded.

TO PRESENT PLAY

The Wa-han-ka Camp Fire Group and Mrs. Williams' Blue Bird group will present a play, "Dear Santa," at 7:30 p. m. Dec. 21, at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Althen, HI. 4-2881 or Kay Chambers, HI. 4-3679, before Dec. 17.

HANDY CHRISTMAS MONEY

Leader's 'Confederate' Jackpot Could Net You Tidy $105 Award This Week

Two South Siders will have a little extra Christmas money to spend this week because of their observing natures.

Barbara Waugh, 330 Reeb-av, and Mrs. William Hartig, 1295 S. 18th-st, both collected $1 in "Confederate" currency this week by simply taking the $1 insignia, which they found in their copies of the South Side Leader, to the Leader office.

The brand of "Confederate" bills they received may be redeemed at the full value of United States currency at any of the business establishments which advertised in that issue of the South Side Leader.

If you are as alert and observant as these two folks, you might be able to fatten your purse with 105 of those "Confederate" bills, for the jackpot carried by the one $5 insignia printed each week in only one copy of the South Side Leader, has reached the grand sum of $105 this week. It may be plainly printed on one of the advertisements in the paper you are now holding, so why not check them right now?
